interviews and the study of primary documents The work widens the geographical perspective of feminist security studies to discover in what ways the historical political and social context has motivated the women to participate in military action and presents new case study data from Germany Ukraine Turkey Israel Palestine Cameroon India the Philippines Vietnam and Latin America Temporally the chapters cover almost two centuries from the late 19th century to the present day touching upon a wide variety of examples of armed conflict from wars of independence to the Second World War Bringing together approaches from politics history anthropology and area studies the chapters are informed by the fundamental insights of feminist research and address such pivotal questions as hegemonic masculinity in the armed forces and the relation between women s armed violence and female agency This book will be of much interest to students and researchers in gender and security studies armed conflict and history

Rural Life in Late Socialism ,2023-08-28 China Laos and Vietnam are three of a handful of late socialist countries where capitalist economics rubs up against party state politics In these countries sweeping processes of change open up new vistas of opportunity and imaginaries of the future alongside much uncertainty and anxiety especially for their large rural populations Contributors to this edited volume demonstrate the diverse ways in which rural people build futures in this unique policy landscape and how their aspirations and desires are articulated as projects involving both citizens and the state This produces a politics of development that happens through and around the state as people navigate discourses of betterment to imagine and make new futures at individual and collective levels

Christianity and Migration Peter C. Phan,Oxford Editor,2025-10-07 This book essays a not the Christian theology of migration The phenomenon of human migration that is the movement of people to and settlement temporary or permanent in a new area or country its causes and reasons and its historical anthropological social political legal and cultural dimensions have been widely studied and reasonably well understood and the next chapter will discuss them in detail By contrast theology as an academic discipline seems least capable of illuminating this human phenomenon It appears to most people outside the church and its educational institutions to be at best an esoteric subject and at worst a convoluted and useless mumbo jumbo especially when liberally sprinkled with Greek and Latin phrases Why not leave the study of migration to scholars in history sociology anthropology economics politics and law who albeit no less infected with highfalutin language than theologians do at least try to offer practical policies and effective strategies either for or against immigration Provided by publisher
