Touching Lives A Teachers Memoir:

Touching Lives Shirley A. Kitner-Mainello, 2012-03-01 This is a moving and personal story of teachers life told from her side of the desk Teachers build a nation by touching the lives of the youth and you will be there too as the stories touch your life Everyone knows what it is like to be a student they don t know how it is to be the teacher The author began teaching in 1960 before the civil rights movement was in full swing Through the eyes of the children and the teacher you will watch education change in the forty years that followed When you read Touching Lives you will share wonderful and surprising experiences with students of various ages whose lives have touched my own As you read you will cry for them worry for them and always you will love them as I did Laugh with me when Henry brings his snakes to school Enjoy the adventure to the aquarium and the trip to the woods through the eyes of the children who have never been out of the city Any person involved in education at any level will enjoy this story Shirley A Kitner Mainello Touching Lives Shirley A. Touch Not My Anointed...Memoirs of a Pastor's Wife Dee Dee Blackwell, 2012-09-08 The struggles of being in the church married to a pastor and facing the many challenges of meshing two worlds two lives and multiple vices I am the woman I am today in spite of this traumatic experience Despite bad choices I love God more than ever My heart is open to love marriage and the good in human nature I tell my story of intense deception and life s continuous twists and turns to expose the realness of what lies behind the veil of marriage The truth is even when you believe in God love your mate pray without ceasing and hope for the best sometimes for better or worse means different things to different people and therefore until death do us part is not literal but spiritual and figurative

Notes on the Path - Memoirs 1972 to 1997 Larry

Flagg, 2017-11-05 In the late 1990s I wrote a few pages for my children and called it My Children's Spiritual Heritage It evolved into a memoir of 25 years of life's sweet and sour twists and turns I saw Master Kirpal Singh in 1972 and recognized His competency but I missed the chance to be initiated by Him My wife and I were initiated in 1977 by Sant Ajaib Singh and I haltingly began to follow the spiritual path My experiences of the following years confirmed the reality of spiritual teachings and the protection the Masters give their disciples The book is suitable for anyone with similar adventures or interests Along with larger themes five short episodes are highlighted as notable Transcriptions book reviews a bibliography and five appendices reflect my desire to preserve what I consider to be important material The inclusion of family photos reflects my love for my children and my Master's love and concern for all children and all humanity He has said This is a path of self improvement returning to time and again The Teacher, Literature and the Mediterranean Simone Galea, Adrian Grima, 2014-11-26

At a time when the Mediterranean has rediscovered its own vitality seven academics from the fields of education and literature look at how fictions set in the region narrate the role of the teacher from the point of view of the students and from that of the teachers themselves While an increasingly technocratic approach to the performance of teachers focuses on competences these often highly subjective narratives tell stories of practitioners who refuse to fit into the mould imposed on them by patriarchy or the educational institutions The writers dealt with in this volume are aware that teachers cannot be solely defined in terms of what they are expected to do within schools and classrooms This reductively conceives them as simply needing the skills to teach without having the ability to contextualise their teaching within wider historical social and cultural realities With its migration flows and intricate web of social and cultural politics the Mediterranean of the 21st century is an ideal space for reflections on the role of the teacher in an ever changing society Memoirs of Africa, 1996 to 2009 Delores J. Dillard, 2013-12-11 My dream of going to Nigeria West Africa began in 1974 I didn't go to Nigeria until 2004 Don't give up on your dream even it takes 30 years Some things are worth the wait This book gives some of the details of my travels to Ghana Burundi Nigeria Rwanda Liberia and Kenya Each of the nations have their own history and culture Africa is such a huge continent It would be impossible to cover all of the details of the trips Traveling to the nations that I traveled gave me insight that books don't cover The people in each nation had their own way to survive and thrive The food and clothing was different in each location The people were as curious about me an African American grandmother as I was about them They loved seeing my family photos and appreciated my wisdom as an elder They were friendly and hospitable My plans for 2014 is to go to South Africa Botswana and Zambia I haven't been to any of the southern part of Africa Contact me if you are interested in going to minister with me My e mail is deloresd2003 yahoo com
