Heritage and Tourism Linde Egberts, Maria Alvarez, 2025-10-01 Heritage and tourism mutually reinforce each other with the presentation of heritage at physical sites mirrored by the ways heritage is presented on the internet This interdisciplinary book uses humanities and social sciences to analyse the ways that heritage is branded and commodified how stakeholders organise place brands and how digital strategies shape how visitors appreciate heritage sites The book covers a wide geographic diversity offering the reader the chance to find cross cutting themes and area specific features of the field

Culture and Cultures in Tourism Andres Artal-Tur, Metin Kozak, 2020-06-29 According to the World Tourism Organization UNWTO international tourists engaging in cultural activities accounted for more than 500 million of international tourist numbers in 2017 City tourism relies on culture as a major product providing benefits not only for interested visitors but also for the local resident population New trends in tourism include experiential tourism where the interactions between tourists and residents become a key part of the tourism experience and overall customer satisfaction New technologies and IT applications allow tourists to design their own trip given the presence of global companies like Trip Advisor Booking com and AirBnB This comprehensive volume explores new trends in cultural tourism demonstrating how and why culture has become a central factor in tourism The authors analyse a wide range of relevant issues including how heritage based and cultural tourism could contribute to the sustainability of destinations the increase of religious travels to and within Arab countries and how cultural tourism fosters understanding among people and cultures and could even potentially help to consolidate peace at a regional level The book also analyses interactions between hosts the local residents and guests the cultural visitors revisiting the pioneer hippy travelling experiences in Turkey of the 1960s and how they shaped youth culture This book will be of great interest to students and researchers of cultural tourism The chapters were originally published in the journal Anatolia

The Racial Politics of Bodies, Nations and Knowledges Barbara Baird, Damien W. Riggs, 2009-01-14 The Racial Politics of Bodies Nations and Knowledges takes on the urgent task of chipping away at existing racial and ethnic hierarchies that obstruct global and local movement towards human rights and social justice It imagines subjective social and political spaces which might enable this movement Many authors engage with Indigenous sovereignties from both Indigenous and non Indigenous perspectives While most authors write from an Australian perspective the issues addressed both have relevance beyond antipodean borders and complicate the idea of national boundaries Chapters include a comparison of Indigenous struggles for land in Canada and Australia the situation of minority ethnic and religious communities in the European Union a meditation on teaching an Australian film about colonial history to German university students and the story of the delicate positioning of a man of mixed Maori and Irish heritage finding cultural citizenship in the US academy in the mid 20th century Other chapters focus on children s storybooks media representations of suffering and websites aimed at gay and lesbian youth all international phenomena and all places where racialised politics are at play The book also offers insights into contemporary Australian racial politics via analyses of the treatment of asylum seekers the health of Indigenous women the education of young Indigenous people and the development of national histories in local tourist promotion Readers looking for international perspectives on racial issues will find this book a diverse but rewarding approach to vitally important subject matter

Tourism and Cuba Lauren Duffy,Carol Kline,2020-05-07 Cuba has experienced many social economic and political changes since Raul Castro retained presidency of the island nation in 2008 This comprehensive volume examines how Cuba has restructured some of its core economic policies in order to tackle stagnation these include allowing for more legalized private enterprises reducing the number of State employed workers and fostering additional outside investments The authors explore the surge of entrepreneurial activity in tourism among Cuban residents due to these reforms whether that be offering new tourism products or expanding traditional ones Though the current diplomatic climate suggests continued uncertainty the ripple effect of a potentially thawing relationship between Cuba and the USA resulted in an unexpected surge of international tourists wishing to experience Cuba before it opened to the American travel market This book highlights the factors that are influencing and in some cases complicating tourism planning and development in Cuba The authors explore a wide range of topics including tourism and land use policy competitiveness responsible practices gender and ethical advertising the role of tour guides emergence of casa particulares experiential learning and solidarity and authenticity through local art This book will interest students researchers politicians and investors with a focus on Cuba It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Planning Development

Settings Angelika Mietzner, Anne Storch, 2019-05-13 This book focuses on perspectives from and on the global south providing fresh data and analyses on languages in African Caribbean Middle Eastern and Asian tourism contexts It provides a critical perspective on tourism in postcolonial and neocolonial settings explored through in depth case studies The volume offers a multifaceted view on how language commodifies and is commodified in tourism settings and considers language practices and discourse as a way of constructing identities boundaries and places It also reflects on academic practice and economic dynamics in a field that is characterised by social inequalities and injustice and tourism as the world's largest industry enacting dynamic communicative social and cultural transformations The book will appeal to both undergraduate and postgraduate students of tourism studies linguistics literature cultural history and anthropology as well as researchers and professionals in these fields Heritage and Tourism Russell Staiff, Robyn Bushell, Steve Watson, 2013-06-26 The complex relationship between heritage places and people in the broadest sense can be considered dialogic a communicative act that has implications for both sides of the conversation This is the starting point for Heritage and Tourism However the dialogue between visitors and heritage sites is complex Visitors have for many decades become synonymous with tourists and the tourism industry and so the dialogic relationship between heritage place and tourists has produced a powerful critique of this often contested relationship Further at the heart of the dialogic relationship between heritage places and people is the individual experience of heritage where generalities give way to particularities of geography place and culture where anxieties about the past and the future mark heritage places as sites of contestation sites of silences sites rendered political and ideological sites powerfully intertwined with representation sites of the imaginary and the imagined Under the aegis of the term dialogues the heritage tourism interaction is reconsidered in ways that encourage reflection about the various communicative acts between heritage places and their visitors and the ways these are currently theorized so as to either step beyond where possible the ontological distinctions between heritage places and tourists or to re imagine the dialogue or both Heritage and Tourism is thus an important contribution to understanding the complex relationship between heritage and tourism Cities, Monuments and Objects in the Roman and Byzantine Levant Walid Atrash, Andrew Overman, Peter

Gendelman, 2022-11-10 Chapters by leading archaeologists in Israel and the Levant explore themes and sites connected with cities and villages from the Hellenistic to early Islamic periods across the region The result is a rich trove of up to date data and insights that will be a must read for scholars and students active in this part of the ancient Mediterranean world
