Toward Eco Spirituality Church At Crossroad:

God is Green Bob Shore-Goss, 2016-10-28 At this time of climate crisis here is a practical Christian ecospirituality It emerges from the pastoral and theological experience of Reverend Robert Shore Goss who worked with his congregation by making the earth a member of the church by greening worship and by helping the church building and operations attain a carbon neutral footprint Shore Goss explores an ecospirituality grounded in incarnational compassion Practicing incarnational compassion means following the lived praxis of Jesus and the commission of the risen Christ as Gardener Jesus becomes the green face of God Restrictive Christian spiritualities that exclude the earth as an original blessing of God must expand This expansion leads to the realization that the incarnation of Christ has deep roots in the earth and the fleshly or biological tissue of life This book aims to foster ecological conversation in churches and outlines the following practices for congregations meditating on nature inviting sermons on green topics covenanting with the earth and retrieving the natural elements of the sacraments These practices help us recover ourselves as fleshly members of the earth and the network of life If we fall in love with God's creation says Shore Goss we will fight against climate change Turning to the Heavens and the Earth Julia Brumbaugh, Natalia Imperatori-Lee, 2016 The Earth needs our attention the best of our intellectual ethical and spiritual wisdom and action In this collection written in honor of Elizabeth A Johnson scholars from the United States and around the world contribute their insights on how theology today can and must turn to the world in new ways in light of contemporary science and our ecological crisis The essays in this collection advance theological visions for the human task of healing our destructive relationship with the earth and envision hope for our planet's future Contributors Kevin Glauber Ahern Erin Lothes Biviano Lisa Sowle Cahill Colleen Mary Carpenter David Cloutier Kathy Coffey Carol J Dempsey OP Denis Edwards William French Ivone Gebara John F Haught Mary Catherine Hilkert OP Sallie McFague Eric Daryl Meyer Richard W Miller Jürgen Moltmann Jeannette Rodriguez Michele Saracino Rethinking Nature Aurélie Choné, Isabelle Hajek, Philippe Hamman, 2017-05-18 This textbook provides an overview of different ways of conceptualising nature in epistemological terms reflecting the tensions between the polarities of humans as masters or protectors of nature or as part of or outside of nature But What Is the Church For? Neil Darragh, 2021-11-19 What is the church really for Some people are members of the church because it's part of their family tradition or their culture or their identity Others have left the church because that's all it is in fact Is it the best way to salvation or a way of coming closer to God In any case the church is not just for us or the benefits we get out of it Very few of us would say that this is what the church is really for There is surely something more here something more generous life giving outgoing and gracious than what we personally get out of it This book is about the church's outreach beyond itself its purpose beyond any benefits for those already its members This book is not about a church looking inwards and worrying about itself but about a church looking outwards The local Christian community that we belong to is part of that much bigger much more exhilarating project of the evolving realm of God

Encountering Earth Trevor George Hunsberger Bechtel, Matt Eaton, Tim Harvie, 2018-05-14 One day Matthew Eaton was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton s flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth
