White Essays On Race And Culture:

White Richard Dyer, 2013-10-18 White people are not literally or symbolically white yet they are called white What does this mean In Western media whites take up the position of ordinariness not a particular race just the human race How is this achieved White takes these questions as starting points for an examination of the representation of whiteness by whites in Western visual culture Dyer places this representation within the contexts of Christianity race and colonialism In a series of absorbing case studies he shows the construction of whiteness in the technology of photography and film as part of a wider culture of light discusses heroic white masculinity in muscle man action cinema from Tarzan and Hercules to Conan and Rambo analyses the stifling role of white women in end of empire fictions like The Jewel in the Crown and traces the associations of whiteness with death in Falling Down horror movies and cult dystopian films such as Blade Runner and the Aliens trilogy

The Death of White Sociology Joyce A. Ladner, 1998

Speculative Imperialisms Susana Loza, 2017-12-27 Speculative Imperialisms Monstrosity and Masquerade in Postracial Times explores the settler colonial ideologies underpinning the monstrous imaginings of contemporary popular culture in the Britain and the US Through a close examination of District 9 Avatar Doctor Who Planet of the Apes and steampunk culture Susana Loza illuminates the durability of settler colonialism and how it operates through two linked yet distinct forms of racial mimicry monsterization and minstrelsy Speculative Imperialisms contemplates the fundamental albeit changing role that such racial simulations play in a putatively postracial and post colonial era It brings together the work on gender masquerade racial minstrelsy and postcolonial mimicry and puts it in dialogue with film media and cultural studies This project draws upon the theoretical insights of Stuart Hall Homi K Bhabha Edward Said Philip Deloria Michael Rogin Eric Lott Charles Mills Falguni Sheth Lorenzo Veracini Adilifu Nama Isiah Lavender III Gwendolyn Foster Marianna Torgovnick Ann Laura Stoler Anne McClintock Eric Greene Richard Dyer and Ed Guerrero

Ornamentality Anne Anlin Cheng, 2018-12-18 Focusing on the cultural and philosophic conflation between the oriental and the ornamental Ornamentality offers an original and sustained theory about Asiatic femininity in western culture This study pushes our vocabulary about the woman of color past the usual platitudes about objectification and past the critique of Orientalism in order to formulate a fresher and sharper understanding of the representation circulation and ontology of Asiatic femininity This book alters the foundational terms of racialized femininity by allowing us to conceptualize race and gender without being solely beholden to flesh or skin Tracing a direct link between the making of Asiatic femininity and a technological history of synthetic personhood in the West from the nineteenth to the twenty first century Ornamentality demonstrates how the construction of modern personhood in the multiple realms of law culture and art has been surprisingly indebted to this very marginal figure and places Asian femininity at the center of an entire epistemology of race Drawing from and speaking to the multiple fields of feminism critical race theory visual culture performance studies legal studies Modernism Orientalism Object Studies and New Materialism Ornamentality will leave reader with a greater understanding of what it is to exist as a person thing within the contradictions of American culture

The Phantom Comics and the New Left Robert Aman, 2020-02-14 This book is about the Phantom in Sweden or more correctly about Sweden in the Phantom Robert Aman uncovers how a peripheral American superhero created in 1936 by Lee Falk that has been accused of both racism and sexism has become a national concern in a country that several researchers have labelled the most antiracist and gender equal in the world When a group of Swedish creators began their official production of licensed scripts based on The Phantom comic in 1972 the character was redefined through the prism of New Left ideology The plots of these comics besides aiming to entertain also sought to affirm for readers the righteousness and validity of an ideological doctrine that at the time was dominant among the Swedish public and influential in the country's foreign policy Ultimately Aman demonstrates how the Swedish Phantom embodies values and a political point of view that reflect how Sweden sees itself and its role in the world

Alluring Monsters Rosalind Galt, 2021-11-16 The pontianak a terrifying female vampire ghost is a powerful figure in Malay cultures as loved and feared in Southeast Asia as Dracula is in the West In animist tradition she is a woman who has died in childbirth and her vengeful return upsets gender norms and social hierarchies The pontianak first appeared on screen in late colonial Singapore in a series of popular films that combine indigenous animism and transnational production with the cultural and political force of the horror genre In Alluring Monsters Rosalind Galt explores how and why the pontianak found new life in postcolonial Southeast Asian film and society She argues that the figure speaks to a series of intersecting anxieties about femininity and modernity globalization and indigeneity racial and national identities the relationship of Islam to animism and heritage and environmental destruction The pontianak offers abundant feminist potential but her disruptive gender politics also unsettle queer and feminist film theories by putting them in dialogue with Malay epistemologies Reading the pontianak as a precolonial figure of disturbance within postcolonial cultures Galt reveals the importance of cinema to histories and theories of decolonization From the horror films made by Cathay Keris and Shaw Studios in the 1950s and 1960s to contemporary film television art and fiction in Malaysia and Singapore the pontianak in all her media forms sheds light on how postcolonial identities are both developed and contested In tracing the entanglements of Malay feminist animisms with postcolonial visual cultures Alluring Monsters reveals how a pontianak theory can reshape understandings of anticolonial aesthetics and world cinema Postfeminism, Postrace and Digital Politics in Asian American Food Blogs Tisha

Dejmanee, 2022-12-26 This book examines how Asian American women bloggers challenge dominant race and gender discourses through the practice of food blogging Asian American food blogs which situate recipes and food photography within the personal narratives and domestic spaces of Asian American women offer unique insights into the ways that hegemonic race and gender discourses are negotiated in quotidian life The genre's focus on food provides a particularly rich backdrop for this study as it necessarily implicates family histories gendered labour domestic spaces and the power dynamics of consumption These intimate digital texts therefore provide unique insights into the ways that postfeminist and postrace discourses are encountered in the individual's mundane experiences The author engages a critical cultural analysis of food blogs narratives images communities and platforms expressions of post race and feminism discourses are constrained by the commercial logics of this digital culture The author argues that while Asian American food blogs rarely present a sustained challenge to hegemonic identity representation the processes of reproduction and rupture that define this blogosphere consistently reveal the collective desire to push back against the limits of post identities This is a unique and fascinating study which is ideal reading for students and scholars of gender studies media studies cultural studies and sociology

Performing Chinatown William Gow, 2024-05-14 In 1938 China City opened near downtown Los Angeles Featuring a recreation of the House of Wang set from MGM's The Good Earth this new Chinatown employed many of the same Chinese Americans who performed as background extras in the 1937 film Chinatown and Hollywood represented the two primary sites where Chinese Americans performed racial difference for popular audiences during the Chinese exclusion era In Performing Chinatown historian William Gow argues that Chinese Americans in Los Angeles used these performances in

Hollywood films and in Chinatown for tourists to shape widely held understandings of race and national belonging during this pivotal chapter in U S history Performing Chinatown conceives of these racial representations as intimately connected to the restrictive immigration laws that limited Chinese entry into the U S beginning with the 1875 Page Act and continuing until the passage of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 At the heart of this argument are the voices of everyday people including Chinese American movie extras street performers and merchants Drawing on more than 40 oral history interviews as well as research in more than a dozen archival and family collections this book retells the long overlooked history of the ways that Los Angeles Chinatown shaped Hollywood and how Hollywood in turn shaped perceptions of Asian American identity

Social Media Discourse, (Dis)identifications and Diversities Sirpa Leppanen, Elina Westinen, Samu Kytola, 2016-12-08 This volume serves as an in depth investigation of the diversity of means and practices that constitute dis identification and identity construction in social media Given the increasing prevalence of social media in everyday life and the subsequent growing diversity in the types of participants and forms of participation the book makes the case for a rigorous analysis of social media discourses and digital literacy practices to demonstrate the range of semiotic resources used in online communication that form the foundation of dis identification processes Divided into two major sections delineating between the dis identification of the self across various social categories and the dis identification of the self in relation to the other the book employs a discourse ethnographic approach to highlight the value of this type of theoretical framework in providing nuanced descriptions of identity construction in social media and illuminating their larger long term societal and cultural implications This volume is a key resource for researchers and students in sociolinguistics discourse studies computer mediated communication and cultural studies

Food Television and Otherness in the Age of Globalization Casey Ryan Kelly, 2017-02-09 Food Television and Otherness in the Age of Globalization examines the growing popularity of food and travel television and its implications for how we understand the relationship between food place and identity Attending to programs such as Bizarre Foods Bizarre Foods America The Pioneer Woman Diners Drive Ins and Dives Man vs Food and No Reservations Casey Ryan Kelly critically examines the emerging rhetoric of culinary television attending to how American audiences are invited to understand the cultural and economic significance of global foodways This book shows how food television exoticizes foreign cultures erases global poverty and contributes to myths of American exceptionalism It takes television seriously as a site for the reproduction of cultural and economic mythology where representations of food and consumption become the commonsense of cultural difference and economic success

Racism and Xenophobia in Early Twentieth-Century American Fiction Wisam Abughosh Chaleila, 2020-12-29 The Melting Pot The Land of The Free The Land of Opportunity These tropes or nicknames apparently reflect the freedom and open armed welcome that the United States of America offers However the chronicles of history do not complement that image These historical happenings have not often been brought into the focus of Modernist literary criticism though their existence in the record is clear This book aims to discuss these chronicles displaying in great detail the underpinnings and subtle references of racism and xenophobia embedded so deeply in both fictional and real personas whether they are characters writers legislators or the common people In the main chapters literary works are dissected so as to underline the intolerance hidden behind words of righteousness and blind trust as if such is the norm Though history is taught it is not so thoroughly examined To our misfortune we naively think that bigoted ideas are not a thing we could become afflicted with They are antiques from the past yet they possessed many hundreds of people and they surround us still Since we've experienced very little change it seems discipline is necessary to truly attempt to be rid of these ideas

War on the American Republic Kevin Slack, 2024-10-15 Kevin Slack sounds the alarm on how America's failed neoliberal regime has given way to a woke oligarchy that has deployed a radical toolkit to rapidly strip away the rights of citizens Americans often use the words progressive liberal and radical more or less interchangeably without understanding their place in American history Kevin Slack describes the distinct aims of the movements they represent and weighs their consequences for the American republic Each of the three movements rejected older republican principles of governance in favor of an administrative state but there were substantial differences between Teddy Roosevelt's Anglo Protestant progressive social gospelers who battled trusts and curbed immigration Franklin Roosevelt's and Lyndon Johnson's secular liberals who forged a government business partnership and promoted a civil rights agenda and the 1960s radicals who protested corporate influence in the Great Society liberal hypocrisy on race and gender and the war in Vietnam Each sought to overturn what came before Following the revolution of the 1960s elites on both left and right turned against the industrial middle class to erect an oligarchy at home and advance globalization abroad Each side claimed to serve the interests of disadvantaged or underrepresented groups Radicals ensconced themselves in bureaucracy and academia to advance their vision of social justice for women and minorities while neoliberal elites promoted monopoly finance open borders and the outsourcing of jobs to benefit consumers The administrative state became a global American empire but the neoliberals economic and military failures precipitated a crisis of legitimacy In the great awakening that began under Barack Obama neoliberal elites including establishment conservatives openly broke with the populist base of the Republican Party embraced identity politics and used COVID 19 and a myth of insurrection to strip away the rights of American citizens Today an incompetent kleptocracy is draining the wealthiest and most powerful people in history thus eroding the foundations of its own empire Beyond Subculture Rupa Huq,2007-01-24 Using case studies and first hand interviews with consumers and producers including Noel Gallagher and Talvin Singh Rupa Huq investigates a series of musically centred global youth cultures and re examines the link between music and subcultures The Future of Media Joanna Zylińska,2022-03-22 An investigation of the future of various media industries and technologies that considers how media shape our future How do we combat post truth in the news Are social media influencers the journalists of today What is it like to live in a smart city Does AI really change everything The Future of Media investigates the future of media industries and technologies journalism TV film photography radio publishing social media while exploring how media shape our future on a political economic cultural and individual level Issues of diversity media reform labour activism and art take the discussion into a wider social context Through this the book celebrates the importance and vitality of media in the modern world The Future of Media is also an experiment in collaborative modes of thinking and working Co authored by theorists and practitioners from one of the world's most established media departments it offers a radical creative and critical take on media industries and on world affairs The World According to Color James Fox,2025-09-23 A kaleidoscopic exploration that traverses history literature art and science to reveal humans unique and vibrant relationship with color We have an extraordinary connection to color we give it meanings associations and properties that last millennia and span cultures continents and languages In The World According to Color James Fox takes seven elemental colors black red yellow blue white purple and green and uncovers behind each a root idea based on visual resemblances and common symbolism throughout history Through a series of stories and vignettes the book then traces these meanings to show how they morphed and multiplied and ultimately how they reveal a great deal about the societies that produced them reflecting and shaping their hopes fears prejudices and preoccupations Fox also examines the science of how our eyes and brains interpret light and color and shows how this is inherently linked with the meanings we give to hue And using his background as an art historian he explores many of the milestones in the history of art from Bronze Age gold work to Turner Titian to Yves Klein in a fresh way Fox also weaves in literature philosophy cinema archaeology and art moving from Monet to Marco Polo early Japanese ink artists to Shakespeare and Goethe to James Bond By creating a new history of color Fox reveals a new story about humans and our place in the universe second only to language color is the greatest carrier of cultural meaning in our world The Handbook of Journalism Studies Karin Wahl-Jorgensen,Thomas Hanitzsch,2019-06-20 This second edition of The Handbook of Journalism Studies explores the current state of research in journalism studies and sets an agenda for future development of the field in an international context The volume is structured around theoretical and empirical approaches to journalism research and covers scholarship
