Any Person Is the Only Self Elisa Gabbert,2024-06-11 Contagiously curious essays on reading art and the life of the mind from the acclaimed author of The Unreality of Memory Who are we when we read When we journal Are we more ourselves alone or with friends Right now or in memory How does time transform us and the art we love In sixteen dazzling expansive essays the acclaimed essayist and poet Elisa Gabbert explores a life lived alongside books of all kinds dog eared and destroyed cherished and discarded classic and clich d familiar and profoundly new She turns her witty searching mind to the writers she admires from Plath to Proust and the themes that bind them chance freedom envy ambition nostalgia and happiness She takes us to the strange edges of art and culture from hair metal to surf movies to party fiction Any Person Is the Only Self is a love letter to literature and to life inviting us to think alongside one of our most thrilling and versatile critics Perspectives on Richard Ford Huey Guagliardo, 2010-01-06 This is the first book length examination of the fiction written by Richard Ford who gained critical acclaim for The Sportswriter the story of suburbanite Frank Bascombe's struggle to survive loneliness and great loss That novel published in 1986 struck a chord with readers and reviewers alike and Ford a little known writer who had for a time considered giving up the writing of fiction was suddenly hailed in Newsweek as one of the best writers of his generation The Sportswriter along with its 1995 sequel Independence Day which became the first novel to win both the Pulitzer Prize and the PEN Faulkner Award made Ford's Frank Bascombe as much a part of the American literary landscape as John Updike's Rabbit Angstrom With three other novels a well received volume of short stories and a trilogy of novellas to his credit Ford is now firmly established as a major figure among writers of the post World War II generation Perspectives on Richard Ford is the first collection of essays to study the body of Ford's fiction The nine essays demonstrate that Ford like few other writers of his time powerfully depicts what it feels like to live in the secular late twentieth century world a dangerous and uncertain place where human relationships are impoverished and where human existence is often characterized by emptiness solipsism and above all by a sense of alienation The contributors tend to view Ford's narratives of alienation in a broad cultural context His works dramatize the breakdown of the institutions of marriage family and community His protagonists often typify the rootlessness and the nameless longing pervasive in a highly mobile present oriented society in which individuals having lost a sense of the past relentlessly pursue their own elusive identities in the here and now The collection which concludes with a compelling conversation between Ford and the editor will prove to be an essential companion to the work of one of our most intriguing contemporary writers Effective Writing for Health

Robert DeMott, 2018-12-18 Conversations with Jim Harrison Revised and Updated offers a judicious selection of interviews spanning the writing career of Jim Harrison 1937 2016 from its beginnings in the 1960s to the last interview he gave weeks before his death in March 2016 Harrison labeled himself and lived as a quadra schizoid writer He worked in fiction poetry nonfiction and screenwriting and he published more than forty books that attracted an international following These interviews supply a lively narrative of his progress as a major contemporary American author This collection showcases Harrison s pet peeves his candor and humility his sense of humor and his patience He does not shy from his authorial obsessions especially his efforts to hone the novella for which he is considered a contemporary master or the frequency with which he defied polite narrative conventions and created memorable resolute female characters Each conversation attests to the depth and range of Harrison s considerable intellectual and political preoccupations his fierce social and ecological conscience his aesthetic beliefs and his stylistic orientations in poetry and prose James Salter Jeffrey Meyers,2024-02-07 Biographer and critic Jeffrey Meyers knew the novelist James Salter 1925 2015 during the last decade of his life visited him twice on Long Island and received eighty letters from him Meyers s knowledge of Salter s life provides many new insights about the personal literary and historical background of his work This appreciative book the first full length study in twenty six years is intended to introduce Salter to new readers and show his achievement as a writer of novels stories screenplays memoirs and travel essays Salter had an extraordinary range of experience as West Point graduate fighter pilot in the Korean War downhill skier rock climber and mountain climber screenwriter and film director connoisseur of food and wine world traveler and sophisticated observer In an elegant blend of literary criticism and intimate memoir with crisp prose and an eye for telling detail Meyers discusses Salter s family and friends the significance of his book and chapter titles characters names and cultural allusions literary influences especially Ernest Hemingway and F Scott Fitzgerald development of his fictional style and techniques awareness of weather and light supreme delineation of sexual ecstasy recurrent themes of war and love strange career and late recognition A detailed chronology tracks the key dates and events in Salter s life and a chronological bibliography shows the development of his literary reputation For Meyers Salter s lyrical evocation of people and places of luxurious decadence and the danger of death are unsurpassed in contemporary literature This book appears just before the centenary of Salter s birth My Reading Life Pat Conroy,2010-11-02 Bestselling author Pat Conroy acknowledges the books that have shaped him and celebrates the profound effect reading has had on his life Pat Conroy the beloved American storyteller is a voracious reader Starting as a childhood passion that bloomed into a life long companion reading has been Conroy s portal to the world both to the farthest corners of the globe and to the deepest chambers of the human soul His interests range widely from Milton to Tolkien Philip Roth to Thucydides encompassing poetry history philosophy and any mesmerizing tale of his native South He has for years kept notebooks in which he records words and expressions over time creating a vast reservoir of playful turns of phrase dazzling flashes of description and snippets of delightful sound all just for his love of language But for Conroy reading is not simply a pleasure to be enjoyed in off hours or a source of inspiration for his own writing It would hardly be an exaggeration to claim that reading has saved his life and if not his life then surely his sanity In My Reading Life Conroy revisits a life of reading through an array of wonderful and often surprising anecdotes sharing the pleasures of the local library's vast cache with his mother when he was a boy recounting his decades long relationship with the English teacher who pointed him onto the path of letters and describing a profoundly influential period he spent in Paris as well as reflecting on other pivotal people places and experiences His story is a moving and personal one girded by wisdom and an undeniable honesty Anyone who not only enjoys the pleasures of reading but also believes in the power of books to shape a life will find here the greatest defense of that credo BONUS This ebook edition includes an excerpt from Pat Conroy's The Death of Santini Garner on Language and Writing Bryan A. Garner, 2009 The essays in this volume represent the author's views not those of the American Bar Association Title page verso Don't Save Anything James Salter, 2017-11-01 In Don't Save Anything Kay Eldredge Salter assembles her late husband's bread and butter journalism yet how delicious good bread and butter can be As always Salter emphasizes simple vivifying details Michael Dirda The Washington Post One of the greatest writers of American sentences in our literary history James Salter's acute and glimmering portrayals of characters are built with a restrained and poetic style The author of several memorable works of fiction including Dusk and Other Stories which won the PEN Faulkner Award he is also celebrated for his memoir Burning the Days and many nonfiction essays In her preface Kay Eldredge Salter writes Don't Save Anything is a volume of the best of Jim's nonfiction articles published but never collected in one place until now Though those many boxes were overflowing with papers in the end it's not really a matter of quantity These pieces reveal some of the breadth and depth of Jim's endless interest in the world and the people in it One of the great pleasures in writing nonfiction is the writer's feeling of exploration of learning about things he doesn't know of finding out by reading and observing and asking questions and then writing it down That's what you'll find here This collection gathers Salter's thoughts on writing and profiles of important writers observations of the changing American military life evocations of Aspen winters musings on mountain climbing and skiing and tales of travels to Europe that first appeared in The New Yorker Esquire People Condé Nast Traveler The Aspen Times among other publications Teachers & Writers, 2002 Jim Harrison Gregg Orr, Beef Torrey, 2009-06 Jim Harrison a literary maverick is widely considered one of the great and iconic writers in contemporary American literature This pioneering volume an extensive and up to date illustrated guide to Harrison's published works is the first full length catalog of a distinguished literary career spanning more than forty years Longtime Harrison readers and collectors Gregg Orr and Beef Torrey have amassed a thorough list of the author's wide ranging work annotated and arranged by genre to provide a full view of the breadth of Harrison's accomplishment This work contains more than sixteen hundred citations of writings by and about Harrison including his fiction poetry essays interviews screenplays criticism and reviews it also features photographs of his books dust jackets and broadsides With a foreword by Harrison penned especially for this seminal volume and an introduction by writer and scholar Robert DeMott this is the definitive bibliographical study of a major figure in late twentieth and early twenty first century American letters Speak, 1998 Why We Write About Ourselves Meredith Maran, 2016-01-26 For the many amateurs and professionals who write about themselves bloggers journal keepers aspiring essayists and memoirists this book offers inspiration encouragement and pithy practical advice Twenty of America's bestselling memoirists share their innermost thoughts and hard earned tips with veteran author Meredith Maran revealing what drives them to tell their personal stories and the nuts and bolts of how they do it With contributions from Edwidge Danticatt A M Homes Sue Monk Kidd Edmund White and many more American Writers Leonard Unger, A. Walton Litz, Molly Weigel, Jay Parini, Lea Bechler, 1974 The four volume set consists of ninety seven of the pamphlets originally published as the University of Minnesota pamphlets on American writers Some have been revised and updated Why We Write H. Nigel Thomas, 2006 In this volume African Canadian novelists and poets discuss the complexities of the writing experience Most of the writers interviewed here are humanists i e they see their work as serious depictions of the human condition admit that their works are informed by an African Canadian ontology and adhere to the notion that their books must delight and instruct These interviews therefore are valuable additions to the creative process of the individual writers Apart from identifying how the writers geographical and social origins have influenced their work the questions deliberately avoid autobiography Instead these writers respond to the exigencies of craft the manipulations of publishers the criticism of readers and the absence of a clearly identifiable market for their works Interviewed in this volume Ayanna Black Austin Clarke George Elliott Clarke Wayde Compton Afua Cooper Bernadette Dyer Cecil Foster Claire Harris Lawrence Hill Nalo Hopkinson Suzette Mayr Pamela Mordecai M NourbeSe Philip Althea Prince Robert Sandiford Write Your Novel in a Month Jeff Gerke, 2013-07-18 One of these days I'm going to sit down and write that novel Everyone thinks about doing it yet most people who do start a novel end up stalling after a few chapters Where do these would be novelists go wrong Are the characters dull and cliched Did the story arc collapse Did they succumb to a dreaded bout of writer's block Or maybe it was all just taking too long These problems used to stop writers in their tracks but nothing will get in your way after reading Write Your Novel in a Month Author and instructor Jeff Gerke has created the perfect tool to show you how to prepare yourself to write your first draft in as little as 30 days With Jeff's help you will learn how to organize your ideas create dynamic stories develop believable characters and flesh out the idea narrative for your novel and not just for the rapid fire first draft Jeff walks you through the entire process from initial idea to the important revision stage and even explains what to do with your novel once you've finished Whether you are participating in National Novel Writing Month or you're simply hoping to complete a draft over winter break or your vacation this book covers the entire scope of writing a novel and lays out exactly what you need to know to get it done fast and right Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide, 2000 The Annihilation of Foreverland Tony Bertauski, 2019-08-30 When kids awake on an island they're told there was an accident

Before they can go home they will visit Foreverland an alternate reality that will heal their minds Reed dreams of a girl that tells him to resist Foreverland He doesn't remember her name but knows he once loved her He'll have to endure great suffering and trust his dream And trust he's not insane Danny Boy the new arrival meets Reed's dream girl inside Foreverland She's stuck in the fantasy land that no kid can resist Where every heart's desire is satisfied Why should anyone care how Foreverland works
