Winnie Davis Daughter Of The Lost Cause:

Winnie Davis Heath Hardage Lee, 2020-10 A biography of Varina Anne Winnie Davis daughter of President of the Confederate States of America Jefferson Davis and known as Daughter of the Confederacy for her work on behalf of Confederate veterans groups The Lost Cause, 1898 Monuments to the Lost Cause Cynthia Mills, Cynthia J. Mills, Pamela Hemenway Simpson, 2003 This richly illustrated collection of fourteen essays examines the ways in which Confederate memorials from Monument Avenue to Stone Mountain and the public rituals surrounding them testify to the tenets of the Lost Cause a romanticized narrative of the war Several essays highlight the creative leading role played by women's groups in memorialization while others explore the alternative ways in which people outside white southern culture wrote their very different histories on the southern landscape The authors who include Richard Guy Wilson Catherine W Bishir W Fitzhugh Brundage and William M S Ramussen trace the origins objectives and changing consequences of Confederate monuments over time and the dynamics of individuals and organizations that sponsored them Thus these essays extend the growing literature on the rhetoric of the Lost Cause by shifting the focus to the realm of the visual They are especially relevant in the present day when Confederate symbols and monuments continue to play a central role in a public and often emotionally charged debate about how the South's past should be remembered The editors Art Historian Cynthia Mills a specialist in nineteenth century public sculpture is executive editor of American Art the scholarly journal of the Smithsonian American Art Museum Pamela H Simpson is the Ernest Williams II Professor of Art History at Washington and Lee University She is the coauthor of The Architecture of Historic Lexington The Lost Cause Sidney St. James, LINCOLN The Lost Cause Book 1 in the Lincoln Assassination Series President Abraham Lincoln once said It is better to remain silent and be thought a fool than to speak out and remove all doubt President Jefferson Davis once said I worked night and day for twelve years to prevent the war but I could not The North was mad and blind would not let us govern ourselves and so the war came More than 150 years later the assassination of Abraham Lincoln remains one of the most significant events in United States history It continues until this very day attracting the interest of scholars writers like myself and armchair historians This series is very special to my heart It begins with the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln on March 4 1861 and passes by the four war years and continues with his assassination by David Edgar Herold a 23 year old pharmacist who was living in Washington City Wait Did you just say who If you did then follow this book from start to finish and you will find out that not only did John Wilkes Booth die for his involvement in the assassination but so did four others Many novels define John Wilkes Booth as a lone deranged actor and a madman who struck from a twisted lust for vengeance This is not true He was neither alone nor was he mad According to the U S federal government over 250 people were taken into custody and interrogated Later books in the series will take you through the actual military trial of the other's conspirators including the first woman ever executed by the United States Government This novel will also cover that fateful night of Lincoln's assassination It will follow the 12 day chase for John Wilkes Booth and David Herold Then it will follow the burial route and final resting place for Lincoln The trial will not be covered in this novel but the day of execution of the conspirators is included along with the burial of the other assassins Then the chase and capture of Jefferson Davis is told along with his two year imprisonment by the federal government Are you aware that it wasn't until 1977 during Jimmy Carter's term in office that Davis was posthumously forgiven for his role in the civil war and made a U S Citizen The novel includes the inauguration the assassination the funeral capture of John Wilkes Booth the execution the arrest and imprisonment of Jefferson Davis and later his funeral held in Metairie Louisiana Below are a few words his wife said while traveling down Poydras in downtown New Orleans The funeral procession was over three miles long as mourners paid their respect to the South's President Jefferson Davis Dear I was thinking out loud how sad a day this has been The United States War Department did not recognize your father The United States flag did not fly at half mast It flew at half mast throughout the south Varina began to cry again She raised her handkerchief up to blot the tears running down her cheek He is the only former Secretary of War not given the respect and honor due him by the United States Government She sighed clasping her slender hands together in her lap and stared at them lost with her emotions Mother don't fret about it Father's funeral service was I am sure attended by far more people than those who attended Abraham Lincoln's The South loves him We love the South

Hidden in History: The Untold Story of Female Artists, Musicians, and Writers Myra Faye Turner, 2018-11-08 Of the few historical shortlists women make as influencers in the arts the same few names are recognized making the catalogue of powerful and gifted females feel like an small and exclusive club The truth is however that far more women than we know can be credited with contributions to the industries in which they honed their crafts In 1940 when the world was at war and the Civil Rights Movement had yet to turn the page of history Hattie McDaniel became the first black woman to win an Academy Award She and Anna May Wong fought hard to pave the way for actresses of color and fight against racial stereotypes Maria Tallchief was the first and one of the only Native American prima ballerinas to push past the stage wings toward the limelight More than just performers these women were people as well In Hidden in History: The Untold Stories of Female Artists, Musicians, and Writers the lives of many of these artists are explored from Edmonia Lewis wrongful expulsion from higher learning to the boundary breaking talents of the International Sweethearts of Rhythm and their untraditional start as a school band This book is an open door to the lives of 10 female artists wordsmiths and performers whose work has often been overlooked in the dusty pages of an often male dictated narration

Faith, Race, and the Lost Cause Christopher Alan Graham, 2023-03-07 Winner of the AASLH Leadership in History Award Faith Race and the Lost Cause is a new history of Richmond's famous St Paul's Episcopal Church attended by Robert E Lee and Jefferson Davis during the Civil War and a tourist magnet thereafter Christopher Alan Graham's narrative which emerged out of St Paul's History and Reconciliation Initiative charts the congregation's theological and secular views of race from the church's founding in 1845 to the present day exploring the church's complicity in Lost Cause narratives and racial oppression in Richmond Graham investigates the ways that the actions of elite white southerners who imagined themselves as benevolent liberal even in their treatment of Black people through the decades obscured the actual damage to Black bodies and souls that this ostensible liberalism caused Placing the legacy of St Paul's self-described benevolent paternalism in dialogue with the racial and religious geography of Richmond Graham reflects on what an authentic process of recognition and reparations might be drawing useful lessons for America writ large

Apostle of the Lost Cause Chris Moore, 2024-01-12 Perhaps no person exerted more influence on postwar white Southern memory than former Confederate chaplain and Baptist minister J William Jones Christopher C Moore's Apostle of the Lost Cause is the first full length work to examine the complex contributions to Lost Cause ideology of this well known but surprisingly understudied figure Commissioned by Robert E Lee himself to preserve an accurate account of the Confederacy Jones responded by welding hagiography and denominationalism to create in effect a sacred history of the Southern cause In a series of popular books and in his work as secretary of the Southern Historical Society Papers Jones's mission became the canonization of Confederate saints most notably Lee Stonewall Jackson and Jefferson Davis for a postwar generation and the contrivance of a full blown myth of Southern virtue in defeat that deeply affected historiography for decades to come While personally committed to Baptist identity Jones supplied his readers with embodiments of Southern morality who transcended denominational boundaries and enabled white Southerners to locate their champions and themselves in a quasi biblical narrative that ensured ultimate vindication for the Southern cause In a time when Confederate monuments and the enduring effects of white supremacy are in the daily headlines an examination of this key figure in the creation of the Lost Cause legacy could not be more relevant

Spectacle of Grief Sarah J. Purcell, 2022-02-16 This illuminating book examines how the public funerals of major figures from the Civil War era shaped public memories of the war and allowed a diverse set of people to contribute to changing American national identities These funerals featured lengthy processions that sometimes crossed multiple state lines burial ceremonies open to the public and other cultural productions of commemoration such as oration and song As Sarah J Purcell reveals Americans participation in these funeral rites led to contemplation and contestation over the political and social meanings of the war and the roles played by the honored dead Public mourning for military heroes reformers and politicians distilled political and social anxieties as the country coped with the aftermath of mass death and casualties Purcell shows how large scale funerals for figures such as Henry Clay and Thomas J Stonewall Jackson set patterns for mourning culture and Civil War commemoration after 1865 public funerals for figures such as Robert E Lee Charles Sumner Frederick Douglass and Winnie Davis elaborated on these patterns and fostered public debate about the meanings of the war Reconstruction race and gender

Stepdaughters of History Catherine Clinton, 2016-11-02 In Stepdaughters of History noted scholar Catherine Clinton reflects on the roles of women as historical actors within the field of Civil War studies and examines the ways in which historians have redefined female wartime participation Clinton contends that despite the recent attention white and black women's contributions remain shrouded in myth and sidelined in traditional historical narratives Her work tackles some of these well worn assumptions dismantling prevailing attitudes that consign women to the footnotes of Civil War texts Clinton highlights some of the debates led by emerging and established Civil War scholars which seek to demolish demeaning and limiting stereotypes of southern women as simpering belles stoic Mammies Rebel spitfires or sultry spies Such caricatures mask the more concrete and compelling struggles within the Confederacy and in Clinton's telling a far more balanced and vivid understanding of women's roles within the wartime South emerges New historical evidence has given rise to fresh insights including important revisionist literature on women's overt and covert participation in activities designed to challenge the rebellion and on white women's roles in reshaping the war's legacy in postwar narratives Increasingly Civil War scholarship integrates those women who defied gender conventions to assume men's roles including those few who gained notoriety as spies scouts or soldiers during the war As Clinton's work demonstrates the larger questions of women's wartime contributions remain important correctives to our understanding of the war's impact Through a fuller appreciation of the dynamics of sex and race Stepdaughters of History promises a broader conversation in the twenty first century inviting readers to continue to confront the conundrums of the American Civil War Spies smugglers nurses plantation mistresses liberators of slaves traders writers freedom fighters wives and mothers Catherine Clinton considers the many roles of diverse groups of southern women from the Civil War to the late nineteenth century in these lively and provocative essays Jacqueline Jones author of Labor of Love Labor of Sorrow Black Women Work and the Family from Slavery to the Present Clinton's sweeping synthesis is a timely call for rethinking women's roles in the Civil War Her panoramic view of the existing scholarship her revealing new histories and the questions that she raises for the future offer a rich scholarly feast that is useful for undergraduates and seasoned historians alike Glenda Elizabeth Gilmore Peter V and C Vann Woodward Professor of History Yale University Stepdaughters of History is a timely treatise on the legacy of the Civil War and how Americans both remember and forget the women who dreamt and helped build the landscape with which we reside The writing is accessible and engaging Clinton integrates gender studies political history and current events into this slim volume and challenges us to continue to build a Civil War historiography that is full and more honest Deirdre Cooper Owens professor of history Queens College CUNY Catherine Clinton delights in disentangling the ambiguities and contradictions of the experiences of southern women whether they were free or enslaved or rich or poor in Stepdaughters of History In this beautifully written volume she explores how the field of Civil War history has demolished the Lost Cause shibboleths of the devoted mammy and the submissive plantation mistress Clinton reminds us that history should never offer the comfort of a bedtime story and in Stepdaughters of History there is plenty for us to ponder late into the night Peter Carmichael director of the Civil War Institute and author of The Last Generation Young Virginians in Peace War and Reunion
