Managing Innovation National Academy of Engineering,1988-02-01 This book of case histories is devoted solely to service industries and the technologies that drive them as told by those who have developed segments of these industries The chapters cover innovations such as Federal Express s advanced system for package tracking Citicorp s development of the Automated Teller Machine AT T s experience with mobile telephones Bell Howell s introduction of an automated automotive parts catalog and the New York Stock Exchange s development of electronic trading Some broader analyses discuss the interfaces between services technologies and manufacturing operations research in services and technology in professional services Beyond the Living Dead Bruce Peabody,Gloria Pastorino,2021-09-13 In 1968 George Romero s film Night of the Living Dead premiered launching a growing preoccupation with zombies within mass and literary fiction film television and video games Romero s creativity and enduring influence make him a worthy object of inquiry in his own right and his long career helps us take stock of the shifting interest in zombies since the 1960s Examining his work promotes a better understanding of the current state of the zombie and where it is going amidst the political and social turmoil of the twenty first century These new essays document interpret and explain the meaning of the still budding Romero legacy drawing cross disciplinary perspectives from such fields as literature political science philosophy and comparative film studies Essays consider some of the sources of Romero s inspiration including comics science fiction and Westerns chart his influence as a storyteller and a social critic and consider the legacy he leaves for viewers artists and those studying the living dead

Mastering Fear Rikke Schubart,2018-07-12 Mastering Fear analyzes horror as play and examines what functions horror has and why it is adaptive and beneficial for audiences It takes a biocultural approach and focusing on emotions gender and play it argues we play with fiction horror In horror we engage not only with the negative emotions of fear and disgust but with a wide range of emotions both positive and negative The book lays out a new theory of horror and analyzes female protagonists in contemporary horror from child to teen adult middle age and old age Since the turn of the millennium we have seen a new generation of female protagonists in horror There are feisty teens in The Vampire Diaries 2009 2017 troubled mothers in The Babadook 2014 and struggling women in the New French extremity with Martyrs 2008 and Inside 2007 At the fuzzy edges of the genre are dramas like Pan s Labyrinth 2006 and Black Swan 2010 and middle age women are now protagonists with Carol in The Walking Dead 2010 and Jessica Lange s characters in American Horror Story 2011 Horror is not just for men but also for women and not just for the young but for audiences of all ages National perspectives on a multipolar order Benjamin Zala,2021-10-26 The global distribution of power is changing But how should we make sense of this moment of transition With the rise of new powers and the decline of seemingly unchallenged US dominance in world politics a conventional wisdom is gaining ground that a new multipolar order is taking shape Yet multipolarity an order with multiple centres of power is variously used as a description of the current distribution of power of the likely shape of a future global order or even as a prescription for how power should be distributed in the international system To understand the power of the different and sometimes competing narratives on offer today about the changing global order a global perspective is necessary This book explores how the concept of a multipolar order is being used for different purposes in different national contexts From rising powers to established powers contemporary debates are analysed by a set of leading scholars to provide in depth insight into the use and abuse of a widely employed but rarely explored concept Behind the Swap Andrew DeJoy,2022-05-10 Andrew DeJoy s Behind the Swap offers a middle office perspective on the risks and miscommunications in post trade processing and provides a framework and solutions for a better approach In August of 2020 Citibank made one of the worst mistakes in banking history it accidentally sent out almost 900 million of its own funds Many of the recipients didn t give back the money Citibank sued And a federal court ruled that the recipients could keep the funds Citibank s error is not surprising The underlying contributors that led to the mistaken payment permeate the global financial services industry Manual data entry decades old technological infrastructure inadequate training and systems that can t interact with one another are just a few of the problems that face post trade processing the machinery behind financial markets Unfortunately years of neglect by regulators and financial institutions themselves has left this infrastructure needlessly complex astoundingly inefficient frequently inaccurate and woefully inadequate for modern financial markets The problems are easy to see but difficult to admit For financial institutions the current system costs billions of dollars each year in labor systems maintenance and lost funds For regulators the current system precludes the ability to track systemic risk It also artificially inflates the stability of the global financial system For lawyers and prosecutors the current system allows ample opportunity for unlawful misconduct such as rogue trading and fraud Andrew DeJoy's Behind the Swap examines the risks involved in post trade processing in swaps and derivative markets and provides solutions to better control those risks While Andrew doesn't claim to have all the answers he does believe there is a better system that is both achievable and necessary

In Two Minds Kate Bassett, 2014-10-01 In Two Minds is the first comprehensive biography of Jonathan Miller the story of one of post war Britain's most intriguing polymaths Descended from immigrants who fled Tsarist anti-Semitism to become shopkeepers in Ireland and London's East End Miller was born into an intellectual milieu between Bloomsbury and Harley Street the son of a novelist and a leading child psychiatrist Miller trained as a doctor but then forged a career as a stellar comedian and as a world renowned theatre and opera director He is a controversial humorist public intellectual and TV personality As a star in the groundbreaking satirical revue Beyond the Fringe he shot to fame alongside Peter Cook Dudley Moore and Alan Bennett His expertise and interests encompass many areas from medicine he wrote and presented the hugely acclaimed BBC documentary series The Body in Question to the history of art Mozart atheism and the nature of laughter Jonathan Miller is one of the most multi talented Britons of his generation celebrated for his dazzling intelligence and anti establishmentarian wit Drawing on in depth interviews this is an entertaining and illuminating portrait of a fascinatingly complex man
