Literature of Scotland Roderick Watson,2006-11-24 Critics hailed the first edition of The Literature of Scotland as one of the most comprehensive and fascinatingly readable accounts of Scottish literature in all three of the country s languages Gaelic Scots and English In this extensively revised and expanded new edition Roderick Watson traces the lives and works of Scottish writers in a beautiful and rugged country that has been divided by political and religious conflict but united too by a democratic and egalitarian ideal of nationhood The Literature of Scotland The Twentieth Century provides a comprehensive account of the richest ever period in Scottish literary history From The House with the Green Shutters to Trainspotting and far beyond this companion volume to The Literature of Scotland The Middle Ages to the Nineteenth Century gives a critical and historical context to the upsurge of writing in the languages of Scotland Roderick Watson covers a wide range of modern and contemporary Scottish authors including MacDiarmid MacLean Grassie Gibbon Gunn Robert Garioch Iain Crichton Smith Alasdair Gray Edwin Morgan James Kelman Irvine Welsh Alan Warner A L Kennedy Liz Lochhead John Burnside Jackie Kay Kathleen Jamie and many many more Also featuring an extended list of Further Reading and a helpful chronological timeline this is an indispensable introduction to the great variety of Scottish writing which has emerged since the start of the twentieth century

The Madam and the Spymaster Urs Brunner,Nigel Jones,Julia Schrammel,2023-07-04 This extraordinary story of a high class Berlin brothel taken over by the Nazi secret service is one of the last untold tales of World War II There is no book in English about the wartime Berlin salon run by Kitty Schmidt under the secret control of Reinhard Heydrich one of the architects of the Final Solution Salon Kitty was the most notorious brothel in the decadent Berlin of the Weimar Republic the city of Cabaret But after the Nazis took power it became something more dangerous a spying center with every room wired for sound staffed by female agents specially selected by the SS to coax secrets from their VIP clients Masterminded by Reinhard Heydrich the spymaster whom Hitler himself called the man with the iron heart the exclusive establishment turned listening post was patronized by the Nazi leaders themselves not knowing that hidden ears were listening The Madam and the Spymaster reveals the sensational true story of this forgotten part of espionage history The deep research undertaken by Nigel Jones Urs Brunner and Dr Julia Schrammel sheds new light on Nazi methods of control and coercion and the way sex was abused for their own perverse purposes

Docu-Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova, 2019-05-01 Historical writing and fiction are not the same thing though historians often creatively manipulate material in imposing plot structures selecting starting and ending points and fashioning compelling literary characters from historical figures In Docu Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova argues that the opposite is also true war fiction offers a kind of history that both documents its subjects and provides a snapshot of the cultural representation of the United States most recent military involvements She covers a largely neglected body of cinematic and literary texts about the First Gulf War the Balkan War the Afghanistan War and the Iraq War to open a fresh analysis of cultural texts on war Prorokova contends that these texts are not pure fiction but docu fictions works of imagination that can document their subjects while disclosing the social political and historical link between war and culture during the last three decades Docu Fictions of War analyzes how these representational narratives have highlighted a humanitarian rationale behind American involvement in each war whether the stated goals were to free the oppressed from tyranny stop genocide or rid the world of terrorism The book explores the gap between history what allegedly happened and the cultural mythology that is both true and inexact tangible and sensed recognized and undocumented
