Scholarship Students in Elite South African Schools Jennifer Wallace, Jennifer Feldman, 2022-11-16 This book provides a narrative account of the experiences of twenty former scholarship students from historically disadvantaged communities who attended elite public and private secondary schools It draws on in depth one on one semi structured interviews conducted with former scholarship recipients who were between the ages of 19 and 24 years at the time of the interviews Various themes are explored specifically focusing on elite schooling in relation to the experiences and navigational practices of the scholarship recipients and the adjustments that they felt they needed to make in order to fit into the elite school space The book analyses and discusses the reflective experiences of students who were awarded a scholarship to attend an elite secondary school It reveals that accepting the gift of a scholarship is far more complex multi layered and at times harsh and even painful for the individual recipients than is possibly realized by those involved in this practice This book contributes to academic educational debates within the sociology of education elite schools and schooling in the post apartheid South African context

Breaking a Rainbow, Building a Nation

Rekgotsofetse Chikane,2018-10-01 Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation is a first hand account of the university protests that gripped South Africa between 2015 and 2017 widely better known as the FeesMustFall Chikane outlines the nature of student politics in the country before during and after the emergence of MustFall politics exploring the political dynamics that informed and drove the student protests and the effect that these MustFall movements have had on the nature of youth politics in the country Chikane looks at how the current nature of youth politics is different from previous youth upheavals that have defined South Africa specifically due to the fact that the protests were being led by so called coconuts who are part of the black elite Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation poses the provocative question can coconuts be trusted with the revolution
