Independent Learning Pocketbook Peter Anstee, 2015-09-16 The mind is not a vessel to be filled but a fire to be kindled Plutarch The trouble is that as much as we believe those words we're sometimes under such pressure to deliver that we're tricked into the spoon feeding shortcut We then become trapped with our pupils in an unhealthy cycle where we do more and more of the work and they rely on us more and more heavily The Independent Learning Pocketbook is about breaking that cycle and creating ambitious learners who are self regulated self motivated resourceful and resilient learners with clear goals and direction and who use their initiative to achieve success Peter Anstee draws on a variety of research as well as first hand classroom experience and observation in this clear sighted look at how to inspire and nurture the people you teach to become lifelong learners

Bag Man Lew Frankfort, 2025-10-14 The longtime CEO of Coach shares stories and strategies behind the company's stunning growth from a 6 million business to a 5 billion global brand Lew Frankfort knew nothing about fashion when he became assistant to the founder of Coach By the time he left Frankfort had spent 29 years as CEO growing Coach from a scrappy maker of leather bags with a small cult following to a beloved lifestyle brand Along the way Coach created a new market segment accessible luxury that redefined an industry In Bag Man Frankfort explains how the son of a Bronx policeman after working in city government built a business that challenged conventions grew it 1000% and became recognized as one of the world's best CEOs. Bag Man offers lessons from both achievements and missteps as Coach reinvented itself over decades. Throughout, Frankfort considers a more personal aspect of leadership: how the double-edged sword of fear and drive can lead to success but also take a toll. He shares his struggles with a haunting fear of failure, including how it drove an obsession with consumer insights that made Coach unique in the industry. Summing up Coach's philosophy in three words: magic plus logic. Bag Man shows how blending creativity and data-driven discipline can produce sustainable, profitable growth: helping to design and market products people love; build a roster of talent and a performance-driven culture; drive strategies that pair a brand's unique value with the right market opportunities; scale the business to achieve next-level organic growth; operate as a respected public company. A riveting, candid business memoir, Bag Man traces an extraordinary leadership journey that built a legacy brand.

12 Cliches of Selling (and Why They Work) Barry Farber, 2013-07-09. Written by Barry Farber, one of the country's best-known, most-respected and incredibly successful sales gurus, Entrepreneur magazine's 12 CLICHES OF SELLING AND WHY THEY WORK is steeped in the language and knowledge of what it takes to sell. It uses one cliché per chapter as a starting point and mines its truth and powerful wisdom. Never take no for an answer; for example, belies the image of the stereotypical "make the sale at any cost" salesperson and focuses on finding ways to get around obstacles such as making the gatekeeper your ally and using humor to open closed doors. You never get a second chance to make a first impression; shows how to sell yourself first; how to make people like, trust, and respect you; and how and why to make eye contact and keep a questioning attitude. Your attitude determines your altitude; describes how to build and maintain a positive attitude even in the face of rejection. Don't sell the steak; sell the sizzle; gives the 12 steps to a solid presentation. The art of networking and mentoring is covered in. It's not what you know; it's who you know; while the importance of value, including the value of getting your money's worth, and all that it implies, falls under. You get what you pay for. It's the book for everyone who sells, and as Robert Louis Stevenson once wrote, "Everyone lives by selling something."
