Another Zionism, Another Judaism Göran Rosenberg,2025-02-04 A timely deeply personal biography of a Jewish leader whose questions for Israel have come back to haunt us with a vengeance

Born in what is now Lviv Ukraine in 1869 Marcus Ehrenpreis was the secretary of Theodor Herzl at the First Zionist Congress in Basel in 1897 a grand rabbi of Bulgaria during two Balkan wars a diplomat in defense of Europe's minorities a Swedish author compared to Joseph Conrad the chief rabbi of one of Europe's few unscathed Jewish communities through the Nazi era More than a biography of a man's life and work this book is a literary journey by award winning Swedish Jewish writer and public intellectual G ran Rosenberg A Brief Stop on the Road from Auschwitz in search of that European Jewish world of meaning and hope that Ehrenpreis so clearly embodied so vividly articulated and so relentlessly worked to explain defend and salvage from his pulpit in Stockholm His lifelong dream was to build a bridge between Israel and the peoples and he believed that he could do so by bringing a spiritually and culturally revitalized Judaism into a new and self asserted contact with the non Jewish world His Zionism was not about making Jews a nation like all others in a nation state like all others but creating a spiritual and cultural center for the renaissance of Jewish life amidst the nations Even as Jewish life in Europe was all but annihilated he feared what Jewish nationalism might do to the spiritual heritage of Judaism A meticulously researched and beautifully written story of boundless hope unrequited love and annihilated possibilities Another Zionism Another Judaism evokes a diasporic Jewish existence that would be harshly judged in the aftermath of the Holocaust and the creation of the State of Israel It also reminds us of a Zionism that strived for something other than an ethnic national fortress on a narrow strip of land in the Middle East

Innovations in Inclusion Barbara Benedict Bunker, Janice Eddy, 2009 Over the last ten years Purdue University has undertaken a culture change initiative With leadership changes imminent at Purdue University in spring 2007 it seemed wise to document this effort to increase the awareness knowledge and skills of faculty and staff in the many areas of diversity This work focuses on the faculty and staff in the colleges and schools of the University The data for this report were gathered by the researcher and author of this document who interviewed key informants and examined documents archives and websites during spring 2007 What is reported here does not represent the history of diversity at Purdue There is a long history of recruiting and retaining underrepresented minority students and women in the more technical fields that is not covered here There is also ongoing training and intervention work in the administrative side of the University and in the support units This report describes work with faculty and staff in the colleges and schools to change the academic culture so that students whatever their diversity and gender will feel welcomed supported and included It begins with the narrative of the ten year development of this diversity initiative which includes data on changes that have occurred in the academic culture at Purdue A section on change in universities and the concepts that underlie the change process concludes the discussion
