'Hell': A Hard Look at a Hard Question David J. Powys, 2007-01-01 I welcome this rigorous examination of some of the many questions which are raised by the doctrine of hell At a time when it is rare to hear even heaven spoken about in our churches it is encouraging that this sober theme is once more in our sights It was plainly often on the lips of Jesus Nigel M de S Cameron Trinity International University Dr Powys has pursued a rigorous examination of the Scriptures He rivets our attention on what the New Testament actually says about the fate of the unrighteous This is a seminal work David Claydon Federal Secretary CMS Australia The author writing from a position of biblical conservatism has presented a powerful convincing and scholarly case for the view that the unrighteous will forfeit resurrection life in the Kingdom of God It is in my judgment the most thorough treatment of the issue in recent years John W Pryor Macquarie University This book is an impressive thorough discussion of a thorny question Dr Powys is at home in many branches of biblical studies He examines the biblical evidence carefully and sets his case out lucidly and with real insight showing convincingly how ill founded are many ancient and many recent views on the fate of the unrighteous His own solution of a set of complex exegetical and theological issues is judicious and clearly the end result of careful thought from the Foreword by Graham Stanton University of Cambridge David Powys has made a significant contribution to an increasingly important debate His book's real strength lies in its very careful study of New Testament teaching in the light of a comprehensive analysis of the Old Testament and Jewish literature This literature is rightly seen not merely as background but as the key to a right understanding of the New Testament teaching I wish that such a clear discussion had been available when I first began engaging with these questions Stephen Travis St John's College Nottingham David Powys was educated at The University of Melbourne He gained degrees in arts and social work studied theology at Ridley College and was ordained in 1981 Dr Powys has ministered in four Melbourne parishes He is an Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of Melbourne and a member of Archbishop in Council and National Synod He was awarded the Doctor of Theology by the Australian College of Theology in 1994 for his The Hermeneutics of Hell The present volume is a slightly abbreviated version of that dissertation

Straight Answers to 35 Tough Questions Gordon Kainer, 2017-07-18 Many years ago Bob Dylan wrote The answer my friend is blowin' in the wind but we've learned that really important answers don't come that easily Asking questions is a sign of a healthy growing faith a faith that drives us deeper into God's Word That's the reason God's first question in the Old Testament is Where are you while the first question the wise men ask in the New Testament is Where is He It's been observed that God answers just enough questions to get us through the day while leaving us with enough unanswered questions so we can look forward to learning more tomorrow This book is designed to deal with some of our most difficult questions or troubling issues from a biblical perspective At times it may appear that some questions have no answer or maybe have more than one or perhaps have answers that contradict each other That s one reason we re not only to confront knotty questions but willingly accept God s unraveling answers
