

The calculation will look as follows:

Description	Rate	Total
Step 1: Calculate the number of days the renter will need the car
Monday 09:00 to Wednesday 07:00 = 2 days
Step 2: Identify a car that will suit the renters needs and calculate the daily rate
Customer is looking for the cheapest automatic car, super insurance and is only planning on travelling 80 km a day. Group D car in the Rate Group 3 at R496 per day will suit her needs.	2 × R496	R992
Step 3: Calculate the number of kilometres
Customer gets 100 free km per day. She is only going to travel 80 km per day so there will be no extra costs.	No cost
Step 4: Calculate the insurance costs
SCDW STLW PAI - R30 per day	Included in day rate Included in day rate 2 × R30	R60
Step 5: Calculate the cost of optional extras
GPS in the car - R69 per day	2 × R69	R138
Stay baggage insurance - R29 per day	2 × R29	R58
Step 6: Add any additional charge
Contract fee of R50.00	R50.00	R50.00
VAT included in rates	-
Airport surcharge included in rates	-
Tourism levy included in rates	-
Because the rates table does not give us any information about the fuel deposit or the excess amounts, we cannot calculate these.	-
Step 7: Calculate the total amount of the quotation
Add the charges to get the total amount of the quotation		R1 298.00

6.3 Comparative calculations

- Comparative calculations are used to compare the total cost for a rental car at two or more companies. Because different amounts of free kilometres are included for each type of rate, and the rates for Standard or Super cover are different, the rental cost will differ between companies.
- Renters usually prefer the cheaper option as long as it includes what is wanted.

Festivals and Values Waldemar Kuligowski, Marcin Poprawski, 2023-11-27 This is an original book covering all the past areas of research anyone would need to know about festivals and event based culture It is based on academic research but written in a way relevant for cultural professionals uniquely explaining the cultural power of festivals and with original empirical research the realities of organisation and management and social and economic value Dr Jonathan Vickery Reader in Cultural Policy Studies and Director Centre for Cultural and Media Policy Studies University of Warwick This book discusses music festivals in the context of the specific values they convey Today music festivals are a permanent feature of national regional and local cultural policies a valuable asset in the tourism industry and a significant source of income for an industry that has been adversely affected by the steady decline in physical sales of music For the audience on the other hand it is an opportunity to escape from everyday life multi sensory contact with art an activity that stands for full body participation a cultural phenomenon that drags people out of their homes like no other There is one common denominator linking the above mentioned features of contemporary music festivals namely the world of values This is evident from the non accidental locations festivals spaces design planning and the line ups created consciously with great care The organisers missions logos and other symbolic organisational artefacts communicate specific values These values are explicitly mentioned by artists and audiences they can be easily identified in online forums and media reports participant behaviour festival rituals and additional festival programs are shaped on the basis of values and cooperation is built between the festival and the local community As the reader will quickly realize numbers and statistics sit alongside descriptions and quotations in this book and the organisers statements are accompanied by the opinions of academics but above all the festival audience is given a voice both through quotations and their drawings This voice is by no means uniform as it turned out that research into values was often transformed into a pretext for spinning tales about one s life situation one s political preferences and one s understanding of freedom and responsibility Memories were mixed with declarations joy with regret curses with dreams prose with poetry Thomas Pettitt was not wrong in noting that Social history has learnt to appreciate festival as a valuable window on society and its structures The authors have tried to open all the windows available Students and researchers in the fields of cultural anthropology social psychology folklore studies comparative religion sociology of culture cultural policy cultural history and cultural management will find this book highly interesting
