Tout Pour Plaire Himes Chester:

Chester Himes James Sallis, 2022-03-08 A smart conscientious often stylish biography of the great African American crime writer of the mid twentieth century The New York Times Best known for The Harlem Cycle the series of crime stories featuring Coffin Ed Johnson and Grave Digger Jones Chester Himes was a novelist and memoirist whose work was neglected and underappreciated in his native America during the 1950s and 60s even as he was awarded France s most prestigious crime fiction prize In this major biography literary critic and fellow writer James Sallis examines the life of this fascinating figure combining interviews of those who knew Himes best including his second wife with insightful and poignant writing Publishers Weekly Himes wrote some of the 20th century s most memorable crime fiction and has been compared to Jim Thompson Raymond Chandler and Dashiell Hammett His life was just as spectacular as his novels Sentenced to 25 years in prison for armed robbery when he was 19 he turned to writing while behind bars and when released after serving eight years published two novels Their poor reception by the white establishment only confirmed Himes s beliefs about racism in America He eventually moved to Paris spending most of the rest of his life abroad While in Paris he began to produce the crime fiction that would make him famous including A Rage in Harlem and Cotton Comes to Harlem a riveting biography Library Journal starred review Satisfying thoughtful long overdue Publishers Weekly As intelligent and as much fun to read as a book by Himes himself There is no higher praise The Times London

The several lives of Chester Himes, 1997 The Writings of Chester Himes are colored by a fascinating blend of hatred and tenderness of hard boiled realism and generous idealism His life was complex his relationships complicated How did this gifted son of a respectable southern black family become a juvenile delinquent How did he acquire self esteem and a new sense of identity by writing short stories while in the Ohio state penitentiary Drawn from his letters notebooks memoirs and fiction this straightforward account of Himes s varied episodic life attempts to trace the origins of his significant literary gift It details the socioeconomic familial and cultural background that fed his ambivalent views on race in America His Deep South childhood his adolescence in the Midwest his young manhood in prison his years as a menial laborer his struggle as an author in California and New York City and finally his glory days as an expatriate and celebrity in France and Spain are plumbed deeply for their effects upon his creative urges and his works In his native country Himes is recalled more as the author of successful detective novels such as Cotton Comes to Harlem than as a practitioner of the art of fiction In France and Spain his adopted countries he is regarded as a literary master This critical biography is the bittersweet story of a troubled man who found salvation in writing

Seasoned Authors for a New Season Louis Filler, 1980 This collection of essays probes the values in a variety of authors who have had in common the fact of popularity and erstwhile reputation Why were they esteemed Who esteemed them And what has become of their reputations to readers to the critic himself No writer here has been asked to justify the work of his subject and reports and conclusions about this wide variety of creative writers vary sometimes emphasizing what the critic believes to be enduring qualities in the subject in several cases finding limitations in what that writer has to offer us today

The French Critical Reception of African-American Literature, 1995-10-24 The first real reviewing of African American literature in France began in 1844 when audiences welcomed the romantic dramas of Victor Sejour. With the passing of time African American works have become increasingly known in France where they are now translated almost as soon as they come out in the United States. This bibliography charts the French critical response to African American literature from the 19th century to 1970. The bulk of the items selected were published between 1900 and 1970 and all were printed in French. The selection has been limited to responses to the works of creative writers along with some important and influential autobiographical writings. Entries are arranged in chronological sections and then alphabetically within each section. Annotations summarize the critical views expressed in the work cited. As a whole the bibliography is a valuable guide to changing French critical attitudes toward African American literature and is an index to the growing popularity of African American literature in France.

Gothic to Multicultural A. Robert Lee, 2009-01-01 Gothic to Multicultural Idioms of Imagining in American Literary Fiction twenty three essays each carefully revised from the past four decades explores both range and individual register. The collection opens with considerations of gothic as light and dark in Charles Brockden Brown war and peace in Cooper's The Spy Antarctica as world genesis in Poe's The Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pym the link of The Custom House and main text in Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter reflexive codings in Melville's Moby Dick and The Confidence Man Henry James Hawthorne as self mirroring biography and Stephen Crane's working of his Civil War episode in The Red Badge of Courage. Two composite lineages address apocalypse in African American fiction and landscape in women's authorship from Sarah Orne Jewett to Leslie Marmon Silko. There follow culture and anarchy in Henry James The Princess Casamassima text into film in Edith Wharton's The Age of Innocence modernist stylings in Fitzgerald Faulkner and Hemingway and roman noir in Cornell Woolrich. The collection then turns to the limitations of protest categorization for Richard Wright and Chester Himes autofiction in J D Salinger's The Catcher in the Rye and the novel of ideas in Robert Penn Warren's late fiction. Three closing essays take up multicultural genealogy Harlem then the Black South in African American fiction and the reclamation of voice in Native American fiction.

Le polar de la Caraïbe francophone Emeline Pierre, 2024-08-12T00:00:00-04:00 Bien que la production de polars en Caraïbe francophone Haïti Guadeloupe Guyane française Martinique ait connu un essor remarquable dès les années 1990 ces œuvres demeurent moins connues aussi bien dans leurs territoires respectifs qu'en dehors de leurs frontières. Parallèlement l'appropriation du polar par les auteurs caribéens suscite des interrogations quant à la singularité même du genre dans cette région du monde. Où se situe-t-il par rapport à ce qui se produit ailleurs ? De l'analyse approfondie d'un corpus d'une dizaine de romans il ressort qu'un nombre significatif d'écrivains attentifs à la latence du magico-religieux dans leur société mettent en scène le surnaturel alors que le roman policier conventionnel plébiscite la méthode logico-ductive. Cette étude montre en quoi le polar participe à la reconfiguration du champ littéraire de la Caraïbe francophone.
