Towards Infinity Challenging The Empire:

Burton, 2015 While imperial blockbusters fly off the shelves there is no comprehensive history dedicated to resistance in the 19th and 20th century British Empire The Trouble with Empire is the first volume to fill this gap offering a brief but thorough introduction to the nature and consequences of resistance to British imperialism Historian Antoinette Burton's study spans the 19th and 20th centuries when discontented subjects of empire made their unhappiness felt from Ireland to Canada to India to Africa to Australasia in direct response to incursions of military might and imperial capitalism The Trouble with Empire offers the first thoroughgoing account of what British imperialism looked like from below and of how tenuous its hold on alien populations was throughout its long unstable life By taking the long view moving across a variety of geopolitical sites and spanning the whole of the period 1840-1955 Burton examines the commonalities between different forms of resistance and unveils the structural weaknesses of the British Empire 0

The dream is the projection of the mind. Everything of the dream enjoys the same degree of reality. Yet some person, thing or transaction of the dream has the special power to wake us up. The seventh chapter of the Chandogya Upanishad, which is a dialogue between the great Sage Sanat Kumara and his younger brother turned disciple, the famous Narada, makes us realise that all knowledge is the play of words alone, nama eva etat. Yet the words of the text have the unique power not only to prepare us but finally awaken us to our true nature, which is Infinite Bliss, Bhumaiva Sukham. Swamini Vimalananda has added relevant notes to make the subject easier to grasp. A Personal Anthology Jorge Luis Borges, 2020-02-26. Handpicked works from the greatest Argentinian writer of the twentieth century. Without Borges, the modern Latin American novel simply would not exist. Carlos Fuentes, author and diplomat. After almost a half a century of scrupulous devotion to his art, Jorge Luis Borges personally compiled this anthology of his work: short stories, essays, poems and brief mordant sketches which in Borges's hands take on the dimensions of a genre unique in modern letters. In this anthology, the author has put together those pieces on which he would like his reputation to rest; they are not arranged chronologically but with an eye to their sympathies and differences. A Personal Anthology therefore is not merely a collection but a new composition. An important work by far the best yet available to the reader who seeks a representative sampling of the great Argentine writer. The standard introduction to Borges in England and the United States. Saturday Review.

Selected Non-Fictions Jorge Luis Borges, 2000-11-01. Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award in Criticism. The first comprehensive selection in any language of the non-fiction, much of it appearing here in English for the first time, of one of literature's most fertile and original minds. San Francisco Chronicle. A Penguin Classics Deluxe Edition with flaps and deckle edged paper. It will come as a surprise to many readers that the greater part of Jorge Luis Borges's extraordinary writing was not in the genres of fiction or poetry but in various forms of non fiction prose His thousands of pages of essays reviews prologues lectures and notes on politics and culture though revered in Latin America and Europe as among his finest work have scarcely been translated into English Selected Non Fictions presents a Borges almost entirely unknown to American readers Here is the dazzling metaphysician speculating on the nature of time and reality and the inventions of heaven and hell and the almost superhumanly erudite reader of the world s literatures from Homer to Ray Bradbury James Joyce to Lady Murasaki Here too the political Borges taking courageous stands against fascism antisemitism and the Per n dictatorship Borges the movie critic on King Kong and Citizen Kane and the Borgesian art of dubbing and Borges the regular columnist for the Argentine equivalent of the Ladies Home Journal writing hilarious book reviews and capsule biographies of modern writers Like the Aleph in his famous story the magical point in a basement in Buenos Aires from which one can view everything in the world Borges s non fictions are a vortex for seemingly the entire universe Dante and Ellery Queen Shakespeare and the Kabbalah the history of angels and the history of tango the Buddha Bette Davis and the Dionne Quints Selected Non Fictions presents more than 160 of these astonishing writings from his youthful manifestos to his last meditations on his favorite books More than a hundred of these pieces have never before appeared in English and all have been rendered in brilliant new translations by Esther Allen Suzanne Jill Levine and Eliot Weinberger This unique selection presents Borges as at once a deceptively self effacing guide to the universe and the inventor of a universe that is an indispensable guide to Borges For more than seventy five years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 2 000 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

A Challenge to Modern Skepticism John B. Koehne,1911 Modern Death in Irish and Latin American Literature Jacob L. Bender,2020-09-22 This comparative literature study explores how writers from across Ireland and Latin America have both in parallel and in concert deployed symbolic representations of the dead in their various anti colonial projects In contrast to the ghosts and revenants that haunt English and Anglo American letters where they are largely either monstrous horrors or illusory frauds the dead in these Irish Latinx archives can serve as potential allies repositories of historical grievances recorders of silenced voices and disruptors of neocolonial discourse George Gissing: The Cultural Challenge John Sloan,1989-05-30
