Full Surrogacy Now Sophie Lewis, 2021-08-31 Where pregnancy is concerned let every pregnancy be for everyone Let us overthrow in short the family The surrogacy industry is estimated to be worth over 1 billion a year and many of its surrogates around the world work in terrible conditions deception wage stealing and money skimming are rife adequate medical care is horrifyingly absent and informed consent is depressingly rare In Full Surrogacy Now Sophie Lewis brings a fresh and unique perspective to the topic Often we think of surrogacy as the problem but Full Surrogacy Now argues we need more surrogacy not less Rather than looking at surrogacy through a legal lens Lewis argues that the needs and protection of surrogates should be put front and center Their relationship to the babies they gestate must be rethought as part of a move to recognize that reproduction is productive work Only then can we begin to break down our assumptions that children belong to those whose genetics they share Taking collective responsibility for children would radically transform our notions of kinship helping us to see that it always takes a village to make a baby

Queer Mobilizations Manon Tremblay, 2015-05-15 Ever since certain homosexual acts were decriminalized in 1969 queer activists have fought for and won a series of public policy battles in governments across Canada As Queer Mobilizations shows anti discrimination legislation the extension of benefits to same sex couples the right to marry adoption rights and the protection of gay straight alliances in schools did not result from a single act nor from the work of a single organization but rather from the concerted efforts of many people in many places over many years This volume examines the relationships between LGBTQ activists and local provincial and federal governments The contributors explore how various governments have tried to regulate and repress LGBTQ movements and how in turn queer activists have successfully shaped public policy across the political spectrum from city halls to the House of Commons

Modernism's Queer Parents Anchit Sathi, 2025-12-02 This volume offers the first critical examination of how societal pressures compelling individuals towards parenthood are experienced processed and enacted by queer characters in selected works by Thomas Mann Virginia Woolf and Marcel Proust authors now widely regarded as queer despite not having claimed such an identity in their own time The selected texts include Mann s Chaotic World and Childhood Sorrow and Death in Venice Woolf s Mrs Dalloway and Orlando and key sections from Proust s In Search of Lost Time By engaging these texts in a pairwise dialogue this book argues that Mann Woolf and Proust employ a shared repertoire of motifs and narrative strategies to depict queer characters struggles with the institution of parenthood However it contends that each author articulates a distinct and nuanced approach to this theme shaped in part by the specific cultural contexts in which they wrote To substantiate this argument the monograph draws on insights from queer theory metaphor theory and the social sciences predominantly from late twentieth and early twenty first century scholarship thereby reinforcing its commitment to linking literary modernism to contemporary lived realities At the same time the analysis situates these works within the broader socio historical framework of the early twentieth century which is to say the modernist period with which these authors are conventionally associated Reproductive Losses Christa Craven,2019-05-30 Although there are far more opportunities for LGBTQ people to become parents than there were before the 1990s attention to the reproductive challenges LGBTQ families face has not kept pace Reproductive Losses considers LGBTQ people s experiences with miscarriage stillbirth failed adoptions infertility and sterility Drawing on Craven s training as a feminist anthropologist and her experiences as a queer parent who has experienced loss Reproductive Losses includes detailed stories drawn from over fifty interviews with LGBTQ people including those who carried pregnancies non gestational and adoptive parents and families from a broad range of racial ethnic socio economic and religious backgrounds to consider how they experience loss grief and mourning The book includes productive suggestions and personal narratives of resiliency commemorative strategies and communal support while also acknowledging the adversity many LGBTQ people face as they attempt to form families and the heteronormativity of support resources for those who have experienced reproductive loss This is essential reading for scholars and professionals interested in LGBTQ health and family and for individuals in LGBTQ communities who have experienced loss and those who support them See additional material on the companion website www.lgbtqreproductiveloss.org The Sage Encyclopedia of LGBTQ+ Studies, 2nd Edition Abbie E. Goldberg,2024-01-16 The SAGE Encyclopedia of LGBTQ Studies 2nd Edition is aimed at students and educators interested in an interdisciplinary perspective on LGBTQ issues It examines and provides understandings of the lives and experiences of LGBTQ individuals with attention to the contexts and forces that shape their world The volume addresses questions such as What are the key theories used to understand variations in sexual orientation and gender identity What does LGBTQ affirmative therapy look like How have anti LGBTQ ballot measures affected LGBTQ people What are LGBTQ people s experiences during COVID 19 How were LGBTQ people impacted by the Trump administration What is life like for LGBTQ people living outside the United States This encyclopedia looks at LGBTQ issues and identity primarily through the lenses of psychology human development and sociology while emphasizing queer feminist and ecological perspectives on this topic Entries are written by top researchers and clinicians across multiple fields psychology human development gender queer studies sexuality studies social work nursing cultural studies education family studies medicine public health and sociology What About the Children! Masculinities, Sexualities and Hegemony Damien W. Riggs,2010-01-08 What About the Children takes up the important task of examining the role of hegemonic masculinities in propping up a normative social order in which children are constructed as the property of adults By examining adult child relations in the context of a wide range of family forms and social contexts the book provides some hard answers to questions relating to what exactly are the best interests of children and how they should be determined The book responds by suggesting that there is a pressing need to recognise the capacity of children to voice their own desires and needs and that in failing to recognise this all adults and men in particular only serve to further perpetuate a possessive logic that at least in part gives rise to the mistreatment or abuse of children Covering topics such as the experiences of foster fathers gay adoptive fathers and sperm donors and exploring phenomena such as books on raising boys and movies about gay parents the book offers important insights as to the operations of hegemony in the lives of a broad range of men Importantly the book moves beyond simply identifying the operations of hegemony in relation to possessive investments in children and goes on to propose a non indifferent approach to understanding adult child relations that at its heart examines the operations of power that produce children as supposedly docile subjects and only certain adults as capable of caring for them As a result the book makes a significant contribution to setting an alternative agenda for child protection both within Australia and internationally by asking the question protection for whom

What Is Parenthood? Linda C. McClain, Daniel Cere, 2013-01-14 Extraordinary changes in patterns of family life and family law have dramatically altered the boundaries of parenthood and opened up numerous questions and debates. What is parenthood and why does it matter? How should society define, regulate and support it? Is parenthood separable from marriage or couplehood when society seeks to foster children's well-being? What is the better model of parenthood from the perspective of child outcomes? Intense disagreements over the definition and future of marriage often rest upon conflicting convictions about parenthood. What Is Parenthood asks bold and direct questions about parenthood in contemporary society and it brings together a stellar interdisciplinary group of scholars with widely varying perspectives to investigate them.
