Why Johnny Doesn't Flap Nt Is Ok:

Why Johnny Doesn't Flap Clay Morton, Gail Morton, 2015-10-21 Why Johnny Doesn't Flap gives readers a unique perspective on neurological difference. Observe the quirks of the non-autistic Johnny through the eyes of someone with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). Turning the tables on common perceptions of normal social behaviour, our narrator lets us know that Johnny is different but that's ok. A Guide to Sometimes Noise is Big for Parents and Educators Angela Coelho, Lori Seeley, 2017-10-19 Understand how children with autism experience the world around them with this simple guide. Learn why they might react unexpectedly to lights, noise, and even seemingly simple requests, and what you can do to help reduce sensory overload. This accompanying guide to the children's picture book Sometimes Noise is Big takes the illustrations and gives a breakdown of what is happening in each picture, with practical tips on how to help children who struggle with sensory issues. This book can also be used as a standalone resource and is ideal for supporting children aged 5 with autism at home, in the classroom, and for raising awareness of autism and sensory issues. Multicultural Curriculum

Transformation in Social Studies and Civic Education Kenneth J. Fasching-Varner, Kerri J. Tobin, Norma A. Marrun, Iesha Jackson, Christine Clark, 2021-07-12 This book focuses on multicultural curriculum transformation in social studies and civic education subject areas. The discussion of each area outlines critical considerations for multicultural curriculum transformation for the area by grade level and then by eight organizing tools, including content standards, relationships with and among students and their families, and evaluation of student learning and teaching effectiveness. The volume is designed to speak with PK-12 teachers as colleagues in the multicultural curriculum transformation work. Readers are exposed to things to think about but also given curricular examples to work with or from in going about the actual, concrete work of curriculum change. This work supports PK-12 teachers to independently, multiculturally adapt existing curriculum to create new multicultural curriculum differentiated by content areas and grade levels and by providing ample examples of what such multicultural transformed social studies and civic education curricula look like in practice. Undoing Ableism Susan

Baglieri, Priya Lalvani, 2019-08-30 Undoing Ableism is a sourcebook for teaching about disability and anti-ableism in K-12 classrooms. Conceptually grounded in disability studies, critical pedagogy, and social justice education, this book provides both a rationale as well as strategies for broad-based inquiries that allow students to examine social and cultural foundations of oppression, learn to disrupt ableism, and position themselves as agents of social change. Using an interactive style, the book provides tools teachers can use to facilitate authentic dialogues with students about constructed meanings of disability, the nature of belongingness, and the creation of inclusive communities. The Little Book of Autism FAQs Davida

Hartman, 2019-09-19 Empowering and practical, this guide is the perfect companion for parents who are finding it difficult to tell their children about their autism diagnosis. It provides a realistic yet uplifting approach to autism, treating it not as a disability but as a difference. Not telling children about their autism diagnosis can have a significant negative impact on their mental health by equipping parents with a language of positivity around autism the book will make a difference to many children on the spectrum It advises on how and when to talk to autistic children with both high and low care needs and provides guidance on supporting children's relationships with peers at school as well as how to broach the conversation with the child's siblings Concise and easy to read The Little Book of Autism FAQs answers parents' questions with accessible language preparing them to approach this difficult conversation in a constructive manner
