Why Men Fight Bertrand Russell, 1917      Principles of Social Reconstruction (Classic Reprint) Bertrand Russell, 2015-07-14 Excerpt from Principles of Social Reconstruction The following lectures were written in 1915 and delivered in the beginning of 1916 I had hoped to re write them considerably and make them somewhat less inadequate to their theme but other work which seemed more pressing intervened and the prospect of opportunity for leisurely revision remains remote My aim is to suggest a philosophy of politics based upon the belief that impulse has more effect than conscious purpose in moulding men s lives Most impulses may be divided into two groups the possessive and the creative according as they aim at acquiring or retaining something that cannot be shared or at bringing into the world some valuable thing such as knowledge or art or goodwill in which there is no private property I consider the best life that which is most built on creative impulses and the worst that which is most inspired by love of possession About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
