Winters Romance Anthology Emily Barrett:

Victorian Poetry: An Anthology Erik Gray, Veronica Alfano, 2025-04-23 The first new anthology of its kind in twenty years Victorian Poetry provides generous selections of poetry both by well known Victorian poets Alfred Tennyson Robert Browning Christina Rossetti and by writers who have received less critical attention Constance Naden Toru Dutt Grace Aguilar Detailed annotations substantial biographies and an introduction outlining major literary and historical trends of the Victorian period ensure that the anthology will be useful both for specialists and for students encountering these poems for the first time A companion website features additional poetry selections of critical prose and four appendices that group together poems related by genre geography or subject Richard Polwhele and Romantic Culture Dafydd Moore, 2020-12-27 Richard Polwhele was a writer of rare energies Today known only for The Unsex'd Females and its attack on radical women writers Polwhele was a historian translator memoirist and poet As an indigent Cornish gentleman clergyman and JP his extensive written output encompassed sermons open letters and even headstone verse This book recovers the lost Polwhele locating him within an archipelagic understanding of the vitality and complexity inherent in the loyalist tradition with British Romantic culture via a range of previously unexamined texts and manuscript sources Torn between a desire for sociability and an appetite and capacity for a good argument Polwhele's outspoken contributions across a range of disciplines testify to the variety and dynamism of what has previously been considered provincial and reactionary This book locates Polwhele's work within key preoccupations of the age the social economic and political valences of literary sociability in the age of print the meaning of loyalism in an age of revolution the meaning of place and belonging enthusiasm religious or otherwise and the self-fashioning of the provincial man of letters In doing so it argues for a broader definition of Romanticism than the one that has typed Polwhele as an unpalatable embarrassment and the anachronistic voice of provincial High Tory reaction This volume will be of interest to those working in the field of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century British Literature with a particular focus on politics and on the nature of literary production and identity across the non metropolitan areas of the British Isles The British Female Poets: with Biographical and Critical Notices. [An Anthology.] George Washington Bethune, 1848 Romantic Poetry Angela Esterhammer, 2002-06-04 Romantic Poetry encompasses twenty seven new essays by prominent scholars on the influences and interrelations among Romantic movements throughout Europe and the Americas It provides an expansive overview of eighteenth and nineteenth century poetry in the European languages The essays take account of interrelated currents in American Argentinian Brazilian Bulgarian Canadian Caribbean Chilean Colombian Croatian Czech Danish English Estonian Finnish French German Greek Hungarian Irish Italian Mexican Norwegian Peruvian Polish Romanian Russian Serbian Slovak Spanish Swedish and Uruguayan literature Contributors adopt different models for comparative study tracing a theme or motif through several literatures developing innovative models of transnational influence studying the role of Romantic poetry in socio political developments or focusing on an issue that appears most prominently in one national literature yet is illuminated by the international context This collaborative volume provides an invaluable resource for students of comparative literature and Romanticism SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism s own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age Little Songs Amy Christine Billone, 2007 Silence gender and the sonnet revival Breaking the silent Sabbath of the grave romantic women s sonnets and the mute arbitress of grief In silence like to death Elizabeth Barrett s sonnet turn Sing again Christina Rossetti and the music of silence Silence tis more cruel than the grave Isabella Southern and the turn to the twentieth century Women s renunciation of the sonnet form The Joy of Walking Suzy Cripps, 2020-04-23 Just like the best walks The Joy of Walking takes you on a journey with lots to surprise and enjoy along the way Through the best of classic writing this inspiring anthology shows how the simple act of walking goes to the heart of life itself Part of the Macmillan Collector s Library a series of stunning pocket size classics this edition is edited and introduced by Suzy Cripps Whether walking through awe inspiring countryside or weaving your way through crowds in the hustle and bustle of great cities we take thousands of steps a day Finding meaning in movement can be difficult in today s frenetic world This may seem like a modern problem but putting one foot in front of the other is something that authors have been writing about for centuries Some like Gaskell Wordsworth and Whitman extol the virtues of walking in the countryside be it on one s own connecting with nature or as the means to really good conversation with friends Others like Dickens and E M Forster explore the thrill and dangers of moving about the city by day or by night In The Joy of Walking you ll find a wealth of essays poetry and fiction celebrating and exploring the joy of walking

The Broadview Anthology of Victorian Poetry and Poetic Theory: Concise Edition
 Thomas J. Collins, Vivienne J. Rundle, 2000-03-15 The Broadview Anthology of Victorian Poetry and Poetic Theory Concise Edition is less than half the length of the full anthology but preserves the main principles of the larger work A number of longer poems such as Tennyson's In Memoriam are included in their entirety there are generous selections from the work of all major poets and a representative selection of other work the work of Victorian women poets features very prominently and a substantial selection of poetic theory is included to round out the volume

Timeless Devotional Poetry Elizabeth McCallum Marlow, 2020-03-19 This anthology covers thirteen centuries of Christian poetry from the ancient Dream of the Rood to modern poems by T S Eliot and C S Lewis I can think of no one better qualified to assemble an anthology of Christian devotional poetry than Elizabeth Marlow She not only knows this poetry well but has taught it for many years to appreciative students Best of all she loves and serves the Lord to whom the poems in this collection direct the gaze of our souls With this anthology she has given us a tool with which to stir up the embers of our hearts that our love for the triune God might blaze all the brighter I highly recommend this collection Greg Bailey Director of Editorial Crossway Books I am chastened by comments in the preface to this book If we don't read reflect on and enjoy the great wealth of Christian poetry available to us these poetic gems will eventually be consigned to academic libraries and forgotten by the majority of the reading public Apart from reading and singing psalms and hymns I have not been an avid reader of poetry I confess this to my shame and recently I determined to address this appalling shortcoming in my life Elizabeth Marlow's anthology of poetry is the ideal antidote I am excited to recommend this anthology of thirteen centuries of English poetry Just look at the table of contents and your appetite will be whetted So join me in learning to love God better by reading these selections Dr Joseph A Pipa President of Greenville Theological Seminary Professor of Systematic and Homiletical Theology Greenville SC
