Wish Her Safe At Home New York Review Books:

Marrow and Bone Walter Kempowski, 2020-03-24 A moving darkly funny road trip novel about World War II returning to one's birthplace and coming to terms with tragedy West Germany 1988 just before the fall of the Berlin Wall Jonathan Fabrizius a middle aged erstwhile journalist has a comfortable existence in Hamburg bankrolled by his furniture manufacturing uncle He lives with his girlfriend Ulla in a grand decrepit prewar house that just by chance escaped annihilation by the Allied bombers One day Jonathan receives a package in the mail from the Santubara Company a luxury car company commissioning him to travel in their newest V8 model through the People's Republic of Poland and to write about the route for a car rally Little does the company know that their choice location is Jonathan's birthplace for Jonathan is a war orphan from former East Prussia whose mother breathed her last fleeing the Russians and whose father a Nazi soldier was killed on the Baltic coast At first Jonathan has no interest in the job or in dredging up ancient family history but as his relationship with Ulla starts to wane the idea of a return to his birthplace and the money to be made from the gig becomes more appealing What follows is a darkly comic road trip a queasy misadventure of West German tourists in Communist Poland and a reckoning that is by turns subtle satiric and genuine Marrow and Bone is an uncomfortably funny and revelatory odyssey by one of the most talented and nuanced writers of postwar Germany Turtle Diary Russell Hoban, 2013-06-11 Two lonely Londoners bond over a plan to free the sea turtles at the city zoo in this touching novel from a cult favorite author who has drawn comparisons to J D Salinger and Kurt Vonnegut A wise and touching classic that crackles with witty detail mordant intelligence and self deprecating irony from the author of Riddley Walker Time Life in a city can be atomizing isolating And it certainly is for William G and Neaera H the strangers at the center of Russell Hoban's surprisingly heartwarming novel Turtle Diary William a clerk at a used bookstore lives in a rooming house after a divorce that has left him without home or family Neaera is a successful writer of children's books who in her own estimation looks like the sort of spinster who doesn't keep cats and is not a vegetarian Looks like a man's woman who hasn't got a man Entirely unknown to each other they are both drawn to the turtle tank at the London Zoo with minds full of turtle thoughts wondering how the turtles might be freed And then comes the day when Neaera walks into William's bookstore and together they form an unlikely partnership to make what seemed a crazy dream become a reality Hav Jan Morris, 2011-08-30 Journey through a mystical country where everything is possible and easily arranged in this 2 part travelogue set in a fictional Mediterranean city of dreams Los Angeles Times A touching lover letter to life itself featuring Last Letters from Hav shortlisted for the Booker Prize and a foreword by Ursula K Le Guin The Independent Hav is like no place on earth Rumored to be the site of Troy captured during the crusades and recaptured by Saladin visited by Tolstoy Hitler Grace Kelly and Princess Diana this Mediterranean city state is home to several architectural marvels and an annual rooftop race that is a feat of athleticism and insanity As Jan Morris guides us through the corridors and quarters of Hav we hear the mingling of Italian Russian and Arabic in its markets delight in its famous snow raspberries and meet the denizens of its casinos and cafés. When Morris published Last Letters from Hav in 1985 it was short listed for the Booker Prize. Here it is joined by Hav of the Myrmidons a sequel that brings the story up to date. Twenty first century Hav is nearly unrecognizable. Sanitized and monetized it is ruled by a group of fanatics who have rewritten its history to reflect their own blinkered view of the past. Morris's only novel is dazzlingly sui generis: part erudite travel memoir, part speculative fiction, part cautionary political tale. It transports the reader to an extraordinary place that never was but could well be. Jan Morris is to other travel writers what John le Carr is to other spy novelists.

New York Times A Favourite of the Gods and A Compass Error Sybille Bedford, 2017-07-11 A Favourite of the Gods is the story of two generations of a single family united by a strong matrilineal bond but divided by the customs of their differing nationalities. Anna Howland, the matriarch and American heiress born in the 1870s to a prominent liberal New England family, marries an Italian prince and makes her home in Rome. Her daughter, Constanza, the favorite of the title, inherits her mother's beauty, intelligence, and wealth along with her father's Catholicism, which she soon rejects. When disaster strikes, Anna and the prince fall back on the standards of behavior of their disparate cultures. Constanza, with her European upbringing, is free to plot her own course and she does so with daring, making an unconventional life for herself in England and on the continent during and after the First World War. Her own daughter, Flavia, is the heroine of A Compass Error, which begins where the first novel concludes. Flavia too is a brilliant young woman, though both more brash and more faltering than her mother, studying for her entrance exam to Oxford when she becomes involved with a mysterious woman whose arrival at a sensitive moment in Flavia's adolescence will alter both her and her mother's lives forever.

Proud Beggars Albert Cossery, 2011-12-27 Early in Proud Beggars a brutal and motiveless murder is committed in a Cairo brothel. But the real mystery at the heart of Albert Cossery's wry black comedy is not the cause of this death but the paradoxical richness to be found in even the most materially impoverished life. Chief among Cossery's proud beggars is Gohar, a former professor turned whorehouse accountant, hashish aficionado, and street philosopher. Such is his native charm that he has accumulated a small coterie that includes Yeghen, a rhapsodic poet and drug dealer, and El Kordi, an ineffectual clerk and would-be revolutionary who dreams of rescuing a consumptive prostitute. The police investigator Nour El Dine, harboring a dark secret of his own, suspects all three of the murder but finds himself captivated by their warm good humor. How is it that they live amid degrading poverty yet possess a joie de vivre that even the most assiduous forces of state cannot suppress? Do they, despite their rejection of social norms and all ambition, hold the secret of contentment? And so this short novel, considered one of Cossery's masterpieces, is at once biting social commentary, police procedural, and a mischievous delight in its own right.

Dissipatio H.G. Guido Morselli, 2020-12-01 A fantastic and philosophical vision of the apocalypse by one of the most striking Italian novelists of the twentieth century. From his solitary buen retiro in the mountains, the last man on earth drives to the capital, Chrysopolis, to see if anyone else has survived the Vanishing. But there's no one else living or dead.

in that city of holy plutocracy with its fifty six banks and as many churches He d left the metropolis to escape his fellow humans and their struggles and ambitions but to find that the entire human race has evaporated in an instant is more than he had bargained for Meanwhile life itself the rest of nature is just beginning to flourish now that human beings are gone Guido Morselli s arresting postapocalyptic novel written just before he died by suicide in 1973 depicts a man much like the author himself lonely brilliant difficult and a world much like our own mesmerized by money speed and machines Dissipatio H G is a precocious portrait of our Anthropocene world and a philosophical last will and testament from a great Italian outsider A Memoir of the Warsaw Uprising Miron Bialoszewski,2015-10-27 A blow by blow ground level account of the 1944 Warsaw Uprising the 2 month Polish Resistance effort to liberate Warsaw from Nazi occupation Poland s most famous post war poet offers the finest book about the insurrection of 1944 an essential read for fans of WW2 history John Carpenter On August 1 1944 Miron Bia oszewski later to gain renown as one of Poland s most innovative poets went out to run an errand for his mother and ran into history With Soviet forces on the outskirts of Warsaw the Polish capital revolted against 5 years of Nazi occupation an uprising that began in a spirit of heroic optimism 63 days later it came to a tragic end The Nazis suppressed the insurgents ruthlessly reducing Warsaw to rubble while slaughtering some 200 000 people mostly through mass executions The Red Army simply looked on First written over 25 years after the uprising Bia oszewski s account gives readers an unforgettable sense of the chaos and immediacy of the final days of World War II He tells of slipping back and forth under German fire dodging sniper bullets collapsing with exhaustion rescuing the wounded and burying the dead This unusual memoir is a major work of literature and a reflection on memory that resists the terrible destruction it records Madeline G Levine has extensively revised her 1977 translation and passages that were unpublishable in Communist Poland have been restored Happy Moscow Andrey Platonov,2012-11-13 An NYRB Classics Original Moscow Chestnova is a bold and glamorous girl a beautiful parachutist who grew up with the Revolution As an orphan she knew tough times but things are changing now Comrade Stalin has proclaimed that Life has become better Life has become merrier and Moscow herself is poised to join the Soviet elite But her ambitions are thwarted when a freak accident propels her flaming from the sky A new stranger life begins Moscow drifts from man to man through dance halls all night diners and laboratories in which the secret of immortality is actively being investigated exploring the endless avenues and vacant spaces of the great city whose name she bears looking for happiness somewhere still Unpublishable during Platonov s lifetime Happy Moscow first appeared in Russian only in 1991 This new edition contains not only a revised translation of Happy Moscow but several related works a screenplay a prescient essay about ecological catastrophe and two short stories in which some characters reappear and the reader sees the mind of an extraordinary writer at work Marshlands Andre Gide,2021-01-05 A slim but powerful work of metafiction by a Nobel Prize winning French writer and intellectual Andr Gide is the inventor of modern metafiction and of autofiction and his short novel Marshlands shows him handling both forms with a deft and delightful touch The protagonist of Marshlands is a writer who is writing a book called Marshlands which is about a reclusive character who lives all alone in a stone tower. The narrator by contrast is anything but a recluse. He is an indefatigable social butterfly flitting about the Paris literary world and always talking about what else the wonderful book he is writing Marshlands. He tells his friends about the book and they tell him what they think which is not exactly flattering and of course those responses become part of the book in the reader's hand. Marshlands is both a poised satire of literary pretension and a superb literary invention and Damion Searls's new translation of this early masterwork by one of the key figures of twentieth century literature brings out all the sparkle of the original.

Germs Richard Wollheim, 2021-02-02 A brilliant sinuous exploration of family and childhood memory by one of the most original British philosophers of the twentieth century. Germs is about first things the seeds from which a life grows as well as about the illnesses it incurs the damage it sustains. Written at the end of his life by Richard Wollheim one of the major philosophers of the late twentieth century the book is not the usual story of growing up and getting on but a brilliant recovery and evocation of childhood consciousness and unconsciousness an eerily precise rendering of that primitive formative world we all come from in which we do not know either the world or ourselves for sure and things houses clothes meals parents loom large around us as indispensable as they are out of our control. Richard Wollheim's remarkably original memoir is a disturbing enthralling dispassionate but also deeply personal depiction of a child standing fascinated and fearful on the threshold of individual life.
