Christians in Active Politics Yokoniah Mvula, 2022-09-16 Some Christians may be uncomfortable to think of Jesus as being political since the word politics or political has evolved to have negative overtones and connotations in our world today particularly in Africa where this monograph from the Department of Theology and Religious Studies of the University of Malawi has originated Christians often argue that their commission or job description does not include the political process which is the way a society conducts its public affairs However Jesus beginning with his temptation as in the gospels of Matthew and Luke showed the people who would follow him what it means to do God's will The third temptation conceived of in this study as a political temptation for power is the rationale behind the arguments made in this study which begins by positing that the message of Jesus was not politically neutral and therefore Christianity as a super culture must be active in all sectors affecting social concerns if it is to truly be the change agent who Christ believes it to be It goes on to define and describe what it means to say that the message of Jesus was political and lays out the biblical theological ethical and experiential rationale for Christians active participation in the secular political arena

The Nature of Love Thomas Jay Oord, 2010-04-01 God is love Consequently shouldn't love exist at the center of Christian theology When love is at the center theology is understood differently than it has typically been understood Some theologians have placed faith at the center others God's sovereignty still others the Church but Dr Oord places the emphasis on love God's love for us revealed in Christ in the Church and in creation and our love for God and others as ourselves must be afforded its rightful place Beginning with the foundation of love is what differentiates the Christian faith from others a loving God Dr Oord defines love as To love is to act intentionally in sympathetic empathetic response to God and others to promote overall well being Is this not what has defined Christians throughout history

Al Truesdale,2002-01 Do you remember what you were doing the morning of September 11 Probably so But what was God doing Was He watching but not caring Did He choose to just sit on His hands In this fictional work of letters to an Episcopal priest Truesdale addresses the unavoidable question What Kind of loving Father would allow such suffering If God Is God Then Why will help you come to terms with the fact that God has not revealed exactly why but that the life death and resurrection of Jesus is the solution Global Wesleyan Dictionary of Theology Al Truesdale,2013 Designed for clergy laypersons university students and church teachers this work is arranged for ease in cross referencing and to assist in further study
