Women and Yugoslav Partisans Jelena Batinić, 2015-05-12 This book focuses on one of the most remarkable phenomena of World War II the mass participation of women including numerous female combatants in the communist led Yugoslav Partisan resistance Drawing on an array of sources archival documents of the Communist Party and Partisan army wartime press Partisan folklore participant reminiscences and Yugoslav literature and cinematography this study explores the history and postwar memory of the phenomenon More broadly it is concerned with changes in gender norms caused by the war revolution and establishment of the communist regime that claimed to have abolished inequality between the sexes The first archive based study on the subject Women and Yugoslav Partisans uncovers a complex gender system in which revolutionary egalitarianism and peasant tradition interwove in unexpected ways Women and Yugoslav Partisans, 2015 Gender and World War II in the Yugoslav Media Iva Jelušić, 2024-12-27 This book presents an analysis of the cultural memory of women's participation in the Yugoslav People's Liberation Struggle 1941-1945 with a particular focus on the figure of the female soldier It examines how this subject was treated in socialist Yugoslavia's popular printed press and how it contributed to the creation of the figure of the Yugoslav New Woman By examining four popular magazines this volume aims to reveal the variety of understandings of women's unprecedented level of wartime engagement and its relevance in creating the conditions for the emergence and development of the New Woman in socialist Yugoslavia The book delves into the roles and societal impact of these women as portrayed in the printed press from the end of World War II until the watershed moment of socialist Yugoslavia's history the death of Josip Broz Tito in 1980 This book is aimed at students scholars and researchers interested in women's and gender history in state socialist countries Its examination of print magazines an understudied aspect of Yugoslav media will also be of interest to media and communication scholars Women and Partisan Art Elena Messner, Cristina Beretta, Goran Lazičić, Markus Gönitzer, 2025-10-31 The resistance by partisan women in Yugoslavia and Carinthia Austria and particularly their artistic production have not been acknowledged in the historical accounts of World War II Their art was both a form of resistance and a culturally subversive practice ranging from avant garde aesthetics to traditional forms of folk art and handicraft The cultural production by and subsequently about the Yugoslav and Carinthian women partisans includes literature visual arts film photography comics textiles press theater dance and monument architecture The contributors to this volume present this groundbreaking research to mark eighty years since the victory over Nazism and fascism in Europe The Oxford Handbook of Gender, War, and the Western World since 1600 Karen Hagemann, Stefan Dudink, Sonya O. Rose, 2020-10-30 To date war history has focused predominantly on the efforts of and impact of war on male participants However this limited focus disregards the complexity of gendered experiences with war and the military The Oxford Handbook of Gender War and the Western World since 1600 investigates how conceptions of gender have contributed to the shaping of military culture examining the varied ideals and practices that have socially differentiated men and women's wartime experiences Covering the major periods in warfare since the seventeenth century The Handbook explores cultural representations of war and the interconnectedness of the military with civil society and its transformations New Perspectives on European Women's Legal History Sara L. Kimble, Marion

Röwekamp, 2016-07-01 This book integrates women's history and legal studies within the broader context of modern European history in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Sixteen contributions from fourteen countries explore the ways in which the law contributes to the social construction of gender They analyze questions of family law and international law and highlight the politics of gender in the legal professions in a variety of historical social and national settings including Eastern Southern Western Northern and Central Europe Focusing on different legal cultures they show us the similarities and differences in the ways the law has shaped the contours of women and men's lives in powerful ways They also show how women have used legal knowledge to struggle for their equal rights on the national and transnational level The chapters address the interconnectedness of the history of feminism legislative reforms and women's citizenship and build a foundation for a comparative vision of women's legal history in modern Europe The Eastern Front Yan Mann, Olga

Kucherenko, 2024-11-14 The Second World War in Eastern Europe is far from a neglected topic especially since social cultural and diplomatic historians have entered a field previously dominated by operational histories and produced a cornucopia of new scholarship offering a more nuanced picture from both sides of the front However until now the story has still been disjointed and specialized whereby military social economic and diplomatic histories continue to give their own separate accounts This collection of essays attempts to bring these themes into a more cohesive whole that tells a complex multifaceted story of war on the Eastern Front as it truly was This is one of the few critical examinations that includes both perspectives and looks at the war as a multi front effort It also reveals how myths are created around military conflicts and have direct relevance to current developments in Europe linking them to a broader discussion of the Second World War its impact and utility today It gives a historical dimension to pressing issues and will be of interest and relevance to history students policymakers political scientists diplomats and foreign policy experts The Eastern Front will be a useful reference source since some chapters rely on extensive new archival research and materials ego sources as well as extensive findings of non Western scholars thereby bringing their work to the attention of a broader audience Gender, Nation and Women

Politicians in Serbia and Kosovo Gordana Subotić, 2022-03-30 This book examines the ways women politicians in Serbia and Kosovo have imagined constructed and politicised national identity and gender while engaging with politics in the context of the democratisation process The first book to focus on the work of women inside political structures it draws on participant observation and interview material to answer the question of how women in positions of power and influence deal with their national identity and gender in societies deeply divided along ethnic lines Based on close studies of the work of a small number of women from different ethnic backgrounds the author offers comparative analyses of the ways in which women politicians of different ethnicities respond to similar events in their everyday work An original political ethnography that considers engagement of women in formal politics this volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in political structures and political participation particularly as these relate to questions of gender nation and ethnicity

Communism in Eastern Europe Melissa Feinberg, 2021-12-29 Communism in Eastern Europe is a groundbreaking new survey of the history of Eastern Europe since 1945 It examines how Communist governments came to Eastern Europe how they changed their societies and the legacies that persisted after their fall Written from the perspective of the 21st century this book shows how Eastern Europe's trajectory since 1989 fits into the longer history of its Communist past Rather than focusing on high politics Communism in Eastern Europe concentrates on the politics of daily life melding political history with social cultural and gender history It tells the history of this complicated era through the voices and experiences of ordinary people By focusing on the complex interactions of everyday life Communism in Eastern Europe illuminates the world Communism made in Eastern Europe its politics and culture values and dreams successes and failures This book is an engaging introduction to the history of Communist Eastern Europe for any reader It is ideal for adoption in a wide array of undergraduate and graduate courses in 20th century European history

The New Yugoslav Woman Branka Bogdan, 2025-09-30 From 1945 to 1989 the Yugoslav state connected its claims of progressive politics and gender equality to its support of free healthcare sex education and contraception and laws that supported reproductive choice Yugoslav men and women internalized these messages proclaiming their homeland's superior care for its citizens in comparison to postwar Europe and the United States Even as Yugoslav women faced stigma and abuse for their usage of contraceptives and medical practitioners grappled with new regulations and technology alongside personal ideologies Yugoslavs celebrated their own reformation into new politically minded citizens who carefully navigated tradition and modernity as they reconstructed the nation The New Yugoslav Woman provides a social and cultural history of how Yugoslav communists used reproductive regulation to build a platform of socialism through self management and to position the country as a conduit between the global North and South Author Branka Bogdan traces reproduction as a central facet of socialist Yugoslavia's state formation through the nation's laws medical infrastructure technological growth and state run sex education programs Bringing this history to the present day with a discussion of more than two dozen interviews with Yugoslav patients and medical professionals Bogdan reveals how these recollections show key continuities with the past rather than an abrupt break between the socialist and post socialist worlds Drawing Yugoslavian women's experiences into the geopolitical history of reproduction and the Cold War era state The New Yugoslav Woman reveals the centrality of reproduction contraception and abortion to socialist Yugoslavia's self conception as the developed leader of the developing world
