Building Peace from Within Maphosa, Sylvester B., DeLuca, Laura, Keasley, Alphonse, 2014-02-07 This book seeks to examine how successful models of building peace from within in the African context function It draws emerging lessons to provide critical recommendations on policy practice and academia our primary audience While there are numerous examples of failures of conflict resolution in Africa shown by intractable conflict axes less attention is paid to successes While acknowledging the challenges that exist this edited volume provides positive examples of building peace from within in fragile contexts through many forms of initiatives and actions at different levels community based through individual and or collective local peace initiatives government through ministries and or departments and regional through external and or multilateral infrastructure for peace As a guiding principle the notion of building peace from within draws from the idea of community regeneration which describes voluntary and peaceful activities of grassroots actors that reflect their broader interests of building peaceful communities and existence

Building Peace Laura J. Shepherd, 2018-10-11 Moving seamlessly from the global to the local from the politics of institutions to the theoretical apparatus through which we analyse peace and security governance the contributions to this volume draw attention to the operations of gendered power in peacebuilding across diverse contexts and explore the possibilities of gender sensitive sustainable peace The authors have wide ranging expertise in gendered analysis of the peacebuilding practices of international and national organisation detailed and complex qualitative analysis of the gendered politics of peacebuilding in specific country contexts and feminist analysis of the tools we use to think with when approaching contemporary debates about peacebuilding The volume thus serves not only as a useful marker of the development of feminist encounters with peacebuilding but also as a foundation for future scholarship in this area This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Peacebuilding

International Peacebuilding Alpaslan Ozerdem, SungYong Lee, 2015-12-14 International Peacebuilding offers a concise practical and accessible introduction to the growing field of peacebuilding for students and practitioners This new textbook comprises three parts each dealing with a key aspect of peacebuilding Part I defines the core concepts and theoretical discussions that provide the philosophical grounds for contemporary peacebuilding activities Part II divides the procedures of peacebuilding into three phases and examines some of the important features of each phase Part III examines the key areas of the practice of peacebuilding The volume approaches peacebuilding from the viewpoints of individual actors or institutions introducing a range of theoretical discussions with which students can critically examine contemporary peacebuilding practice as well as presenting detailed case studies for key issues highlighted in the text In doing so the book aims to provide more concrete ideas on how peacebuilding programmes are planned and implemented in the field and which major issues should be addressed by peacebuilding practitioners This book will be essential reading for all students of peacebuilding conflict transformation and post conflict reconstruction and recommended reading for students of international organisations international security and IR in general

Transnational Actors in War and Peace David Malet, Miriam J. Anderson, 2017-06-01 Transnational Actors in War and Peace provides a comparative examination of a range of transnational actors who have been key to the conduct of war and peace promotion and of how they interact with states and each other It explores the identities organization strategies and influence of transnational actors involved in contentious politics armed conflict and peacemaking While the study of transnational politics has been a rapidly growing field to date the disparate actors have not been analyzed alongside each other making it difficult to develop a common theoretical framework or determine their influence on international security This book brings together a diverse set of scholars focused on a range of transnational actors such as foreign fighters terrorists private military security companies religious groups diasporas NGOs and women s peace groups Malet and Anderson provide the standard for future study of transnational actors in this work intended for those interested in security studies international relations conflict resolution and global governance

Gender and Peacebuilding Claire Duncanson, 2016-05-27 Gender and Peacebuilding offers a comprehensive and up to date analysis of how and why gender matters in contemporary peace operations It draws on a wide range of examples from across the world to offer a nuanced account of the UNs attempts to mainstream gender into peace operations via Security Council Resolution 1325 and assesses the successes and failures of this effort to enhance the participation and protection of women and girls in peacebuilding operations In presenting this mixed picture of progress and ongoing challenges the book argues for bold steps forward that will enable peacebuilding to contest the current neoliberal order address structural inequalities and bring about feminist visions of peace and security It is only by focusing attention on the economic empowerment of women and its ability to temper the dangers of neo liberalism in post conflict contexts that feminists can hope to achieve these aims Timely critical and engaged this book provides an invaluable guide to the issues for students of peace and conflict studies and sets the agenda for future scholarship and advocacy

Black Women and International Law Jeremy I. Levitt, 2015-04-30 From Compton to Cairo Bahia to Brixton black women have been disproportionately affected by poverty illiteracy unemployment discrimination and violence Despite being one of the largest and geographically dispersed groups in the world they are rarely referenced or considered as a subject of analysis in international law literature Thus it is vital that scholars refashion global discourse by re conceptualizing international law and relations from their unique experiences and perspectives This collection covers a broad range of topics and issues that examine the complex interactions as subjects and objects between black women and international law The book critically explores the manifold relationship between them with a view toward highlighting the historic and contemporary ways in which they have influenced and been influenced by transnational law doctrine norms jurisprudence public policy public discourse and global governance It purports to unearth old law and fashion

new paradigms born out of the experiences of black women

Gender, UN Peacebuilding, and the Politics of Space

Laura J. Shepherd, 2017-08-02 The United Nations Peacebuilding Commission UNPBC was established in December 2005 to develop outlines of best practice in post conflict reconstruction and to secure the political and material resources necessary to assist states in transition from conflict to peacetime Currently the organization is involved in reconstruction and peacebuilding activities in six countries Yet a 2010 review by permanent representatives to the United Nations found that the hopes of the UN peacebuilding architecture despite committed and dedicated efforts had yet to be realized Two of these hopes relate to gender and power specifically that peacebuilding efforts integrate a gender perspective and that the Commission consult with civil society NGOs and women's organizations This book is the first to offer an extensive and dedicated analysis of the activities of the UN Peacebuilding Commission with regard to both gender politics broadly conceived and the gendered dynamics of civil society participation in peacebuilding activities Laura J Shepherd draws upon original fieldwork that she conducted at the UN to argue that the gendered and spatial politics of peacebuilding not only feminizes civil society organizations but also perpetuates hierarchies that privilege the international over the domestic realms The book argues that the dominant representations of women gender and civil society in UN peacebuilding discourse produce spatial hierarchies that paradoxically undermine the contemporary emphasis on bottom up governance of peacebuilding activities

Routledge Handbook of International Relations in the Middle East

Shahram Akbarzadeh, 2019-03-26 This handbook examines the regional and international dynamics of the Middle East It challenges the state society dichotomy to make sense of decision making and behavior by ruling regimes The 33 chapter authors include the world's leading scholars of the Middle East and International Relations IR in order to make sense of the region This synthesis of area studies expertise and IR theory provides a unique and rigorous account of the region's current dynamics which have reached a crisis point since the beginning of the Arab Spring The Middle East has been characterized by volatility for more than a century Although the region attracts significant scholarly interest IR theory has rarely been used as a tool to understand events The constructivist approach in IR highlights the significance of state identity shaped by history and culture in making sense of international relations The authors of this volume consider how IR theory can elucidate the patterns and principles that shape the region in order to provide a rigorous account of the contemporary challenges of the Middle East The Routledge Handbook of International Relations in the Middle East provides comprehensive coverage of International Relations issues in the region Thus it offers key resources for researchers and students interested in International Relations and the Middle East

Critical Feminist Justpeace

Karie Cross Riddle, 2024-10-25 In Critical Feminist Justpeace Karie Cross Riddle presents an intersectional revision to conflict transformation arguing that we need complementary theories and practices of gender conscious peacebuilding for regions and conflicts that formal peacebuilding institutions and agendas cannot reach Introducing a novel theoretical framework and drawing on fieldwork in Manipur India

Riddle makes the case that we need norms and processes for feminist peacebuilding that can flexibly respond to the particularities of national and local politics and social context. Original and insightful, Riddle's theoretical framework serves as a flexible guide for women's local peacebuilding work.
