Staging Women's Lives in Academia Michelle A. Massé, Nan Bauer-Maglin, 2017-01-12 Argues that institutional change must accommodate women's professional and personal life stages Staging Women's Lives in Academia demonstrates how ostensibly personal decisions are shaped by institutions and advocates for ways that workplaces not women must be changed Addressing life stages ranging from graduate school through retirement these essays represent a gamut of institutions and women who draw upon both personal experience and scholarly expertise The contributors contemplate the slipperiness of the very categories we construct to explain the stages of life and ask key questions such as what does it mean to be a graduate student at fifty Or a full professor at thirty five The book explores the ways women in all stages of academia feel that they are always too young or too old too attentive to work or too overly focused on family By including the voices of those who leave as well as those who stay this collection signals the need to rebuild the house of academia so that women can have not only classrooms of their own but also lives of their own Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World Mary Zeiss Stange,Carol K. Oyster,Jane E. Sloan,2011-02-23 This work includes 1000 entries covering the spectrum of defining women in the contemporary world

Maglin,2006 Women mostly in their fifties and sixties tell about the ending of their mostly heterosexual relationships and of the aftermath In all but one case the breakup was initiated by the narrator's partner Issues in Aging Mark Novak,2015-07-22 Opportunities and optimism in Aging Issues in Aging 3rd edition takes an optimistic view of aging and human potential in later life This book presents the most up to date facts on aging today the issues raised by these facts and the societal and individual responses that will create a successful old age for us all Mark Novak presents the full picture of aging exhibiting both the problems and the opportunities that accompany older age The text illustrates how generations are dependent on one another and how social conditions affect both the individual and social institutions Learning Goals Upon completing this book readers will be able to Understand how large scale social issues social attitudes the study of aging and demographic issues affect individuals and social institutions Identify the political responses to aging and how individuals can
