Tools Of The Devil Six In The Clarksonville Series:

Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature Christine A. Jenkins, Michael Cart, 2018-03-20 Discussions of gender and sexuality have become part of mainstream conversations and are being reflected in the work of more and more writers of fiction particularly in literature aimed at young adult audiences But young readers regardless of their sexual orientation don't always know what books offer well rounded portrayals of queer characters and situations Fortunately finding positive role models in fiction that features LGBTQ themes has become less problematic though not without its challenges In Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature LGBTQ Content since 1969 Christine Jenkins and Michael Cart provide an overview of the literary landscape An expanded version of The Heart Has Its Reasons this volume charts the evolution of YA literature that features characters and themes which resonate not only with LGBTQ readers but with their allies as well In this resource Jenkins and Cart identify titles that are notable either for their excellence accurate thoughtful and tactful depictions or deficiencies books that are wrongheaded stereotypical or outdated Each chapter has been significantly updated and this edition also includes new chapters on bisexual transgender and intersex issues and characters as well as chapters on comics graphic novels and works of nonfiction This book also features an annotated bibliography and a number of author title lists of books discussed in the text that will aid teachers librarians parents and teen readers Encompassing a wider array of sexual identities Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature is an invaluable resource for young people eager to read about books relevant to them and their lives

Tools of the Devil Barbara Clanton, 2022-09-26 Seventeen year old Lisa Brown loved going to church Oh sure sometimes she'd rather sleep in but she liked the calming and empowering strength of her faith Sundays revitalized her spirit when she thanked God for the wonderful things in her life like her loving family and amazing girlfriend Samantha Rose One day she hoped to marry Sam have a house and yard and have babies together One day But then it happened That fateful Sunday the guest preacher stepped behind the pulpit and spoke four words that would change Lisa's world forever Homosexuality is a sin he said Had she heard him right When her mother put a hand on her forearm she knew she had Every muscle in her body tensed and she forgot to breathe What was happening The church she'd been baptized in grown up in and wanted to get married in had in one instant turned against her Still not quite believing what she'd heard she mumbled Ignorance is a sin Reverend Never one to back down from a challenge she scanned the congregation but didn't find a single soul who looked upset by his statement On the contrary many nodded in agreement Under her breath she muttered Game on people Game on
