Tourism In Southeast Asia Challenges And New Directions:

Tourism in Southeast Asia Michael Hitchcock, Victor T. King, Mike Parnwell, 2009 Tourism in Southeast Asia provides an up to date exploration of the state of tourism development and associated issues in one of the world's most dynamic tourism destinations. The volume takes a close look at many of the challenges facing Southeast Asian tourism at a critical stage of transition and transformation and following a recent series of crises and disasters. Building on and advancing the path breaking Tourism in South East Asia produced by the same editors in 1993 it adopts a multidisciplinary approach and includes contributions from some of the leading researchers on tourism in Southeast Asia presenting a number of fresh perspectives. The volume combines introductory material with an in depth examination of anthropological writing on Southeast Asian tourism followed by case studies dealing with as diverse issues as globalization terrorism romance tourism and ecotourism. Tourism and Development in Southeast Asia Claudia Dolezal, Alexander Trupp, Huong T. Bui, 2020-03-24

This book analyses the role tourism plays for sustainable development in Southeast Asia. It seeks to assess tourism's impact on residents and localities across the region by critically debating and offering new understandings of its dynamics on the global and local levels. Offering a myriad of case studies from a range of different countries in the region, this book is interdisciplinary in nature, thereby presenting a comprehensive overview of tourism's current and future role in development. Divided into four parts, it discusses the nexus of tourism and development at both the regional and national levels, with a focus on theoretical and methodological foundations, protected areas, local communities, and broader issues of governance. Contributors from within and outside of Southeast Asia raise awareness of the local challenges, including issues of ownership or unequal power relations, and celebrate best practice examples where tourism can be regarded as making a positive difference to residents' life. The first edited volume to examine a comprehensive analysis of tourism in Southeast Asia as both an economic and social phenomenon through the lens of development, this book will be useful to students and scholars of tourism development, Southeast Asian culture and society, and Asian Studies more generally. Special Interest Tourism in Southeast Asia: Emerging Research and Opportunities Handayani, Bintang, Seraphin, Hugues, Korstanje, Maximiliano E., 2019-04-12 As the tourism industry grows worldwide, researchers continue to seek solutions and practices that support increased tourism to specific regions. Special interest tourism is a method that looks at how psychological and sociological factors help a visitor choose which destination to visit. By applying this type of tourism in Southeast Asia, the role of emotions, experiences, and place attachment becomes a driving factor for tourists. Special Interest Tourism in Southeast Asia: Emerging Research and Opportunities critically discusses the challenges associated with special interest tourism and how it can be used to overcome unfavorable impacts of tourism for the local community as well as preserve cultural heritage. The book covers emerging issues such as sustainability, technological advances within this type of tourism, and responses to over tourism and tourism phobia. It is ideally designed for government officials, policymakers, managers, industry professionals, and university students seeking current research on the recent growth of the tourism industry Tourism and Ethnodevelopment Ismar Borges de Lima, Victor T. King, 2017-09-13 Ethnodevelopment is a well established concept in the field of development studies Despite its relevance to tourism initiatives and processes in the Global South it continues to be an underutilised concept in the field This book bridges this gap presenting an original conceptual framework to study the relationship between tourism and ethnodevelopment It focuses on the processes of inclusion empowerment self expression and self determination to explore the effects of tourism initiatives on the identities cultural resilience livelihoods and economic opportunities of ethnic minority communities Chapters explore a range of concepts and issues such as gender authenticity indigenous knowledge tradition the commodification of culture community based tourism local entrepreneurship cultural heritage and tourism and the environment Drawing on rich primary research conducted across South East Asia and South and Central America the book offers detailed evaluations of the successes and failures of various tourism policies and practices This book makes a valuable contribution for students scholars practitioners and policy makers alike interested in tourism development studies geography and anthropology The Routledge Handbook of Tourism in Asia C. Michael Hall, Stephen J. Page, 2016-09-13 Asia is regarded as the fastest growing area for international and domestic tourism in the world today and over the next 20 years Given the economic social and environmental importance of tourism in the region there is a need for a comprehensive and readable overview of the critical debates and controversies in tourism in the region and the major factors that are affecting tourism development both now and in the foreseeable future This Handbook provides a contemporary survey of the region and its continued growth and development as a key destination and generator of tourism which is marked by a high proportion of intra regional travel The book is divided into five sections This first section provides an introduction to the region and context to the nationally focused chapters The next three sections are then broadly based on the three UNWTO Asian regions South East Asia South and Central Asia and East and North East Asia providing readers with a valuable snapshot of tourism at various scales and from various approaches and positions The concluding section considers future prospects for tourism in Asia The handbook is interdisciplinary in coverage and is also international in scope through its authorship and content It presents a range of perspectives and understanding of the processes and forces that are shaping tourism in this fascinating and dynamic region that is one of the focal points of global tourism This is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism in the growth region of Asia now and in the future

The Tourism-Disaster-Conflict Nexus Andreas Neef, Jesse Hession Grayman, 2018-11-12 Tourism is often seen as the world's peace industry Yet while tourism may play a major role in post conflict and post disaster recovery the sector can also be a trigger of crisis and disaster This book examines the complex linkages between tourism disaster and conflict through a series of case studies drawn mainly from the Asia Pacific region Disappearing Destinations Andrew L. Jones, Michael R. Phillips, 2009-12-01 Providing a thorough examination of the threats posed to destinations by tourism this comprehensive text discusses how popular and fragile destinations such as the Great Barrier Reef could become severely damaged and forced to close to tourists if current tourism trends continue The consequences of tourism growth predicted changes and management and policy responses are reviewed The book will explore tourism in the context of climate change and vulnerable environments exploring the situation at local level and in a wider perspective using international case studies throughout and provide

Tourism and Leisure Mobilities Jillian Rickly, Kevin Hannam, Mary Mostafanezhad, 2016-07-15 This book reframes tourism as well as leisure within mobilities studies to challenge the limitations that dichotomous understandings of home away work leisure and host guest bring A mobilities approach to tourism and leisure encourages us to think beyond the mobilities of tourists to ways in which tourism and leisure experiences bring other mobilities into sync or disorder and as a result re conceptualizes social theory The proposed anthology stretches across academic disciplines and fields of study to illustrate the advantages of multi disciplinary conversation and in so doing it challenges how we approach studies of movement based phenomena and the concept of scale Part One examines the ways in which mobility informs and is informed by leisure from everyday practices to leisure inspired mobile lifestyles Part Two investigates individuals and communities that become entrepreneurial in the face of changing tourism contexts and reflects on the performance of work through multiple mobilities Part Three turns to issues of development with attention to the cultural politics that frame development encounters in the context of tourism The varied ways that people move into and out of development projects is mediated by geopolitical discourses that can both challenge and perpetuate geographic imaginations of tourism destinations

Recentring Tourism Geographies in the 'Asian Century' Harnng Luh Sin, Mary Mostafanezhad, Joseph M. Cheer, 2022-04-19 This book considers what the transition into the Asian Century means for some of the most urgent issues in the world today such as sustainable development human rights gender equality and environmental change The book critiques Anglo Western centrism in tourism theory and calls on tourism scholars to make radical shifts toward more inclusive epistemology and praxis From the British Century of the 1800s to the American Century of the 1900s to the contemporary Asian Century tourism geographies are deeply entangled in broader shifts in geopolitical power In the shadow of the COVID 19 pandemic the significance of shifts in tourism geographies and the themes addressed in this volume are more urgent than ever That the world faces increasing turmoil is abundantly clear Yet amidst the disruption to the everyday it is hope and compassion but also political economic restructuring that is needed to reset the tourism industry in more sustainable equitable and ethical directions In no uncertain terms the pandemic has forever changed the tourism industry as the world once knew it This book therefore sets out to collectively build on the momentum of the inclusive scholarship that Critical Tourism Studies Asia Pacific is renowned for while also asking readers to pause and reflect on the possibilities and challenges of tourism in a post pandemic Asian Century The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies

the past decade there have been an increasing number of publications that have analysed and critiqued the potential of tourism to be a mechanism for poverty reduction in less economically developed countries LEDCs This book showcases work by established and emerging researchers that provides new thinking and tests previously made assumptions providing an essential guide for students practitioners and academics This book advances our understanding of the changes and ways forward in the field of sustainable tourism development Five main themes are illustrated throughout the book 1 measuring impacts of tourism on poverty 2 the need to evaluate whether interventions that aim to reduce poverty are effective 3 how unbalanced power relations and weak governance can undermine efforts 4 the importance of the private sector s use of pro poor business practices and 5 the value of using multidisciplinary and multi method research approaches Furthermore the book shows that academic research findings can be used practically in destinations and how practitioners can benefit from sharing their experiences with academic scholars This book was based on a special issue and various articles from the Journal of Sustainable Tourism

Authenticating Ethnic Tourism Philip Feifan Xie, 2011 This book represents a shifting of emphasis away from the discourse of authenticity to the process of authenticating ethnic tourism It focuses upon what authentication is how it works who is involved and what the problems are in the process By using the study of folk villages on Hainan Island China the book suggests that authenticity evolves from a static into a more dynamic concept which can be formulated according to the different stages of development relating to all the stakeholders involved Authentication is an interactive process in which a balance of forces defines a state of equilibrium The book uncovers some interesting findings that will significantly contribute to the literature on ethnic tourism in developing areas Finally here is a way to move beyond old debates about authenticity in tourism studies with a pragmatic useful approach for analyzing authentication processes Xie s models of stakeholders interactions and the paradoxes encountered in ethnic tourism development have worldwide application for academics and stakeholders themselves Margaret Swain University of California USA
