Mawdudi and the Making of Islamic Revivalism Seyyed Vali Reza Nasr, 1996 Nasr examines the life and thought of Mawdudi one of the first and most important Islamic ideological thinkers Mawdudi was the first to develop a modern political Islamic ideology and a plan for social action to realize his vision The prolific writings and indefatigable efforts of Mawdudi's party the Jamaat-i-Islami first in India and later in Pakistan have disseminated his ideas far and wide His views have informed revivalism from Morocco to Malaysia Nasr discerns the events that led Mawdudi to a revivalist perspective and probes the structure of his thought in order to gain fresh insights into the origins of Islamic revivalism He argues that Islamic revivalism did not simply develop as a cultural rejection of the West rather it was closely tied to questions of communal politics and its impact on identity formation discourse of power in plural societies and nationalism Mawdudi's discourse though aimed at the West was motivated by Muslim-Hindu competition for power in British India His aim according to Nasr was to put forth a view of Islam whose invigorated pristine and uncompromising outlook would galvanize Muslims into an ideologically uniform and hence politically indivisible community In time this view developed a life of its own and evolved into an all-encompassing perspective on society and politics and has been a notable force in South Asia and Muslim life and thought across the Muslim world The Cambridge Illustrated History of the Islamic World Francis Robinson, 1996 Islamic peoples account for one fifth of the world's population and yet there is widespread misunderstanding in the West of what Islam really is Francis Robinson and his team set out to address this revealing the complex and sometimes contrary nature of Muslim culture As well as taking on the issues uppermost in everyone's minds such as the role of religious and political fundamentalism they demonstrate the importance of commerce literacy and learning Islamic art the effects of immigration exodus and conquest and the roots of current crises in the Middle East Bosnia and the Gulf Throughout emphasis is placed on the interaction between Islam and the West from the first Latin translations of the Quran to the fatwa on Salman Rushdie This elegant book deliberately sets out to dismantle the Western impression of Islam as a monolithic world and replace it with a balanced view from current issues of fundamentalism to its dynamic culture and art Francis Robinson is the editor of two outstanding reference works Atlas of the Islamic World Since 1500 Cambridge 1982 and The
