Supervolcano: Things Fall Apart Harry Turtledove, 2014-12-02 New York Times bestselling author Harry Turtledove brings his post apocalyptic disaster trilogy to a startling conclusion An explosion of incalculable magnitude in Yellowstone Park propelled lava and ash across the landscape and into the atmosphere forever altering the climate of the entire continent Nothing grows from the tainted soil Stalled and stilled machines function only as statuary People have been scraping by on the excess food and goods produced before the eruption But supplies are running low Natural resources are dwindling And former police officer Colin Ferguson knows that time is running out for his family and for humanity Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart Harold Bloom, 2010 Things Fall Apart set in Nigeria about a century ago is widely regarded as Chinua Achebe's masterpiece Considered one of the most broadly read African novels Achebe's work responded to the two dimensional caricatures of Africans that often dominated Western literature This invaluable new edition of the study guide contains a selection of the finest contemporary criticism of this classic novel Things Fall Apart Chinua Achebe, 1997

And Then Things Fall Apart Arlaina Tibensky, 2011-07-26 Keek's life was totally perfect Keek and her boyfriend just had their Worst Fight Ever her best friend heinously betrayed her her parents are divorcing and her mom's across the country caring for her newborn cousin who may or may not make it home from the hospital To top it all off Keek's got the plague Well the chicken pox Now she's holed up at her grandmother's technologically barren house until further notice Not quite the summer vacation Keek had in mind With only an old typewriter and Sylvia Plath's The Bell Jar for solace and guidance Keek's alone with her swirling thoughts But one thing's clear through her feverish haze she's got to figure out why things went wrong so she can put them right

Reading Across Worlds J. Procter, B. Benwell, 2014-12-17 Combining sustained empirical analysis of reading group conversations with four case studies of classic and contemporary novels Things Fall Apart White Teeth Brick Lane and Small Island this book pursues what can be gained through a comparative approach to reading and readerships

This book investigates the ways in which gender is performed in Africa s digital spaces Social media and digital platforms provide young Africans with spaces to performatively resist gender conformance and assert bodies in transitions These spaces allow gender identities to be fluidly made unmade and remade Drawing on case studies from across North East West Central and Southern Africa this book investigates the ways in which social media enabled cultural products resist heteronormativity and project varying masculinities femininities and personalities which negate birth sex These identities in turn open up possibilities for transgender individuals non binary persons and empowered women to performatively resist the systemic constructions of gender Four particular themes are explored in depth representations of women in cultural texts call out culture and resistance of cyberbullying contested masculinities and antinormative gender enactments The book s inclusive exploration of gendered paradigms of digital expressions in Africa will be of interest to researchers across gender studies sociology performing arts literary studies linguistics cultural studies and media studies The Age of Insecurity

Astra Taylor,2023-09-05 Finalist 2024 Governor General s Literary Award for Nonfiction Finalist 2024 Writers Trust Shaughnessy Cohen Prize for Political Writing These days everyone feels insecure We are financially stressed and emotionally overwhelmed The status quo isn t working for anyone even those who appear to have it all What is going on In this urgent cultural diagnosis author and activist Astra Taylor exposes how seemingly disparate crises rising inequality and declining mental health the ecological emergency and the threat of authoritarianism originate from a social order built on insecurity From home ownership and education to the wellness industry and policing many of the institutions and systems that promise to make us more secure actually undermine us Mixing social critique memoir history political analysis and philosophy this genre bending book rethinks both insecurity and security from the ground up By facing our existential insecurity and embracing our vulnerability Taylor argues we can begin to develop more caring inclusive and sustainable forms of security to help us better weather the challenges ahead The Age of Insecurity will transform how you understand yourself and society while illuminating a path toward meaningful change

Language Learning and Leisure Denyze Toffoli, Geoffrey Sockett, Meryl Kusyk, 2023-07-04 The study of informal involvement with additional languages has recently emerged as a dynamic research field in SLA With the rapid development and spread of internet based technologies contact with foreign languages outside the classroom has become commonplace While this can take multiple forms online contents are a major driving force because they present learners with unprecedented opportunities for exposure to and use of target languages regardless of their physical location Research from diverse geographical educational and socio economic contexts bring a rich variety of perspectives to this book It explores these phenomena via a range of theoretical frameworks and methodological approaches focusing particularly on individual differences and language development The volume proposes that teachers in formal learning settings should seek to support and facilitate the development of these identities and practices and it indicates means they can adopt to best do so

Readings for Amerigerian Igbo Samuel C. Obi, 2010-12-23 Readings for Amerigerian Igbo was written to be a legacy road map and information source for American born Nigerian children Amerigerians who unlike their Nigerian born and raised parents did not get the chance to be born and raised in Nigerian culture This generation has significant language and cultural deficiencies with regard to their Nigerian root This book was written to help this later generation and other like future generations to understand better the nature of their root and what to do to help facilitate their connection to that root A rootless human being often feels like someone who dropped out of the sky with no known origin Such a life has a tendency to bounce around with little or no

anchor Often people with that type of background have a tendency to lose hope of striving as they encounter difficult life problems in their new and emerging world During the 1970s and early 1980s there was a mass exodus of Nigerian students to American colleges and universities Since then most American educated Nigerian graduates are forced to find jobs and settle in the United States Being relatively new in the United States the Nigerian community is emerging and discovering that there are problems associated with settling in the United State after all One of those problems deals with educating and acclimatizing their American born children with the ethos of life in the Nigeria that these parents left behind as students Highlights of the book include history and background of Nigerians who studied in the United States how Amerigerians situation evolved what has been done to help solve the problem the realities of things and inevitable challenges for Amerigerians dealing with Amerigerians situation i e what Amerigerians can do roses in our culture and some helpful lessons to speaking the Igbo language

Why Women Read Fiction Helen Taylor, 2019-12-05 Ian McEwan once said When women stop reading the novel will be dead This book explains how precious fiction is to contemporary women readers and how they draw on it to tell the stories of their lives Female readers are key to the future of fiction and as parents teachers and librarians the glue for a literate society Women treasure the chance to read alone but have also gregariously shared reading experiences and memories with mothers daughters grandchildren and female friends For so many reading novels and short stories enables them to escape and to spread their wings intellectually and emotionally This book written by an experienced teacher scholar of women s writing and literature festival director draws on over 500 interviews with and questionnaires from women readers and writers It describes how where and when British women read fiction and examines why stories and writers influence the way female readers understand and shape their own life stories Taylor explores why women are the main buyers and readers of fiction members of book clubs attendees at literary festivals and organisers of days out to fictional sites and writers homes The book analyses the special appeal and changing readership of the genres of romance erotica and crime It also illuminates the reasons for British women s abiding love of two favourite novels Pride and Prejudice and Jane Eyre Taylor offers a cornucopia of witty and wise women s voices of both readers themselves and also writers such as Hilary Mantel Helen Dunmore Katie Fforde and Sarah Dunant The book helps us understand why in Jackie Kay s words our lives are mapped by books
