Coming Together Around What Matters Most Thomas J. Bickerton, 2016-04-04 With all the issues facing The United Methodist Church today there are plenty of theories and opinions about what we should do Frankly many of us are weary of the relentless bickering associated with all the rhetoric What are we fighting for This question not only points us to the futility of our disunity but also compels us to consider what we are fighting for what deserves our greatest intensity and effort as we seek to be faithful followers of Jesus Christ Bishop Thomas J Bickerton offers a way to move beyond all the discord to a hope filled future by exploring how we can come together around what matters most so that the gospel of Jesus Christ becomes a vibrant part of our lives and witness He says that fights feuds and uncertainties can distract us leaving us ineffective and mired in mediocrity and decline but focusing on what matters most causes our ministries to flourish and the church to become a relevant and vital presence in the community and world With a warm and practical approach he leads us

God's People Count Carl Barrett,2023-10-17 We are undoubtedly living in a society and culture that is growing stranger by the day creating more distance between others minute by minute It seems that people are living in their own little bubbles and silos more than ever with no interest in connecting with people effectively And it is evident that the rise of the digital age is affecting people mentally and emotionally leading to voidness and isolation and a sense of hopelessness and helplessness Billions of people are connecting with an unproductive device in their hands when it should be the word of God There is no spiritual value when we allow the things of this world to consume our lives more than God s divine nature Do we really think anything will improve in our homes communities churches schools country and globally if we re not grounded and connected in the Truths of his word We must realize that connecting with humans physically emotionally and spiritually is how God designed us Just like our Creator wants a relationship with you and me he wants us to bond with others so they can also see the experience of his abundant blessings and goodness in our lives We cannot afford to be on the sidelines because it s all about cultivating genuine care for God s creation and putting it into practice for the sake of ourselves and others now more
