A Hospitable World? David Jordhus-Lier,Anders Underthun,2014-10-30 The hospitality and tourism sector is a large and rapidly expanding industry worldwide and can rightfully be described as a vehicle of globalisation Hotels are among the cornerstones of the industry often drawing workers from the most vulnerable segments of multicultural labour markets accommodating and entertaining tourists and business travelers from around the world This book explores the organisation of work worker identities and worker strategies in hotel workplaces as they are located in heterogeneous labour markets being changed by processes of globalisation It uses an explicitly geographical approach to understand how different groups of workers experience and respond to challenges in the hospitality industry and is based on recent theoretical debates and empirical research on hotel workplaces in cities as different as Oslo Goa London Las Vegas and Toronto A multi scalar analysis is taken where concrete worker bodies and their physical emotional and embodied labour are seen in relation to among other aspects the regulation of national and regional labour markets city governments with global city ambitions and global corporate actors and labour migration patterns The book sheds light on the hotel workplace as a hierarchical and fragmented social space as well as addressing questions on worker mobility the fragmentation of work scales of organisation and how workers can help shape the regulation of their industry This timely volume brings together contributions from international academics and is valuable reading for all those interested in hospitality tourism human geography and globalisation Cultural Diversity Management in Tourism Jasmin Nowak, 2011-10-11 Seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject Leadership and Human Resources Miscellaneous grade 1.8 University of Applied Sciences Bremen Fakultät I Wirtschaftswissenschaften course Human Resources language English abstract As business has become exclusively internationalized and globalized over the past years the issue of workforce diversity has also gained more popularity The complex and dynamic business environment requires interaction among people from diverse backgrounds and cultures Competitive corporations cannot allow themselves losing talented and skillful employees due to discriminatory preferences or practices The customer base has become more diverse as well and as service industries tourism and hospitality are exposed even to a greater extent to the challenges of the heterogeneous labor market of the 21st century In tourism industry the contact with the customers is vital so corporations need to recruit employees who are able to understand and relate to the customers needs The main purpose of managing diversity in business is to bring out the best of employees in a non discriminatory fair and just environment for the benefit of the individuals as well as the prosperity of the whole company The futurist Jamais Cascio gives the main reasons why workforce diversity has become so important These are the shift from manufacturing to a service economy the globalization as well as the innovative business strategies and the increasing demand on teamwork In addition there are the mergers and alliances acting on a high international level and of course the changing labor market conditions Current
