Egyptology: The Missing Millennium Okasha El Daly,2016-07-01

Egyptology The Missing Millennium brings together for the first time the disciplines of Egyptology and Islamic Studies seeking to overturn the conventional opinion of Western scholars that Moslims Arabs had no interest in pre Islamic cultures This book examines a neglected period of a thousand years in the history of Egyptology from the Moslem annexation of Egypt in the seventh century CE until the Ottoman conquest in the 16th century Concentrating on Moslem writers as it is usually Islam which incurs blame for cutting Egyptians off from their ancient heritage the author shows not only the existence of a large body of Arabic sources on Ancient Egypt but also their usefulness to Egyptology today Using sources as diverse as the accounts of travelers and treasure hunters to books on alchemy the author shows that the interest in ancient Egyptian scripts continued beyond classical writers and describes attempts by medieval Arab scholars mainly alchemists to decipher the hieroglyph script He further explores medieval Arab interest in Ancient Egypt discussing the interpretations of the intact temples as well as the Arab concept of Egyptian kingship and state administration including a case study of Queen Cleopatra that shows how the Arabic romance of this queen differs significantly from Western views This book will be of great interest to academics and students of archaeology Islamic studies and Egyptology as well as anyone with a general interest in Egyptian history

The Complete Academic Search Manual Lauren A. Vicker,Harriette J. Royer,2023-07-03 Covers searches for all faculty staff and administrative positions Emphasizes aligning hires to departmental and institutional goals Describes proven practices for successful outcomes Successful academic searches where high caliber college faculty and administrators are recruited and retained are critical to the vitality and sustainability of every institution In higher education many faculty and administrators are thrust into the role of academic search with little preparation other than their own experience of being interviewed Typically search committees also have to manage the process in the context of already heavy workloads This manual provides faculty members department heads chairs deans and members of search committees with a straightforward ten step process using proven strategies and systematic planning designed to facilitate group dynamics while members seek out and identify high caliber candidates and reach consensus on the best one for the institution This book concisely lays out everything committee members need to know replete with real life examples from diverse institutions sample forms timelines and checklists The process begins with the composition of the committee understanding its charge and the responsibilities of the chair and its members It then leads the committee through the steps of drawing up the position description using input from all stakeholders publicizing the position evaluating resumes planning and conducting interviews narrowing the pool to the final selection and negotiation processes Throughout the authors attend to issues of diversity and inclusion aligning the hire with institutional goals and avoiding legal pitfalls Equally importantly they set out a framework for welcoming acclimating and retaining new hires to ensure the return on the institution s substantial investment of time and expense to recruit them
