War In Darfur And The Search For Peace Studies In Global Equity:

War in Darfur and the Search for Peace Alexander De Waal, 2007 This series of essays provides in depth analysis of the origins and dimensions of the conflict in Darfur including detailed accounts of the evolution of ethnic and religious identities the breakdown of local administration the emergence of Arab militia and resistance movements and regional dimensions to the conflict

The Darfur Conflict Osman Suliman, 2011-01-05 Although it is often simplified as an ethnic conflict in popular media the current crisis in Darfur can only be superficially defined across ethnic lines This project diverges from previous studies by addressing how the underlying social and environmental influences such as changing resource dynamics expanding poverty lack of infrastructure and political corruption have brought the crisis to a head Analyzing the interplay of these factors will yield valuable insights as to how a concerned international community can both end the tragic genocide and address the underlying injustices that engendered it

Intervention and Sovereignty in Africa Irit Back, 2015-10-19 In response to the civil war in Darfur the African Mission in Sudan AMIS force was established in May 2004 and by June its first contingents were on the ground For the first time since the founding of the African Union a resolution about direct intervention in a conflict that involved wide ranging abuse of human rights was accepted on a pan continental level Here Irit Back looks at the changes in attitudes towards the ever problematic tension between the concepts of humanitarian intervention and state sovereignty using the example of the African Union s intervention in Darfur to illustrate this unique pan continental approach to conflict resolution and peace keeping Additionally Back analyses the challenges which international task forces including AMIS and its successor the United Nations African Union Mission in Darfur UNAMID have faced ever since Including an examination of the situation in the wake of the declaration of independence of South Sudan in 2011 this book offers a unique perspective on the problem of internationally organised intervention in local conflicts

Violent Conflict and Peacebuilding Johan Brosché, Daniel Rothbart, 2013 This book examines the sources of the genocidal violence in Darfur and addresses the peace initiatives undertaken to resolve this conflict using a conflict complementarity framework

The Oxford Handbook of the Responsibility to Protect Alex Bellamy, Tim Dunne, 2016-06-23 The Responsibility to Protect R2P is intended to provide an effective framework for responding to crimes of genocide ethnic cleansing war crimes and crimes against humanity It is a response to the many conscious shocking cases where atrocities on the worst scale have occurred even during the post 1945 period when the United Nations was built to save us all from the scourge of genocide The R2P concept accords to sovereign states and international institutions a responsibility to assist peoples who are at risk or experiencing the worst atrocities R2P maintains that collective action should be taken by members of the United Nations to prevent or halt such gross violations of basic human rights This Handbook containing contributions from leading theorists and practitioners including former foreign ministers and special advisors examines the progress that has been made in the last 10 years it also looks forward to likely developments in the next decade

Revisiting the

“Ripeness” Debate Tetsuro Iji, Siniša Vuković, 2022-08-22 This book takes stock of the accumulated body of literature on ripeness theory inspired by the seminal work of I William Zartman The book posits the continued relevance of the ripeness theory well into the 21st century and sheds new light on the potential for further development The timing of efforts for resolution either negotiation or mediation is always a central concern for policy makers and scholars alike in the field of international conflict resolution The work of I William Zartman on ripeness was a groundbreaker in the long standing inquiry into this key question and over more than three decades the notion of a ripe moment and its adjuncts such as a mutually hurting stalemate and a mutually enticing opportunity has not only served as an essential policy guidance but also inspired wide ranging research programs The chapters in this edited volume feature studies intended to advance ripeness theory conceptually test it empirically through case studies for possible implications to the theory itself or examine relations with related concepts and theories This volume is divided into two parts The Foreword and the chapters included in Part I were originally published as a special issue of the journal Ethnopolitics Part II features first and foremost Zartman s own seminal article published in the inaugural issue of the same journal It also includes other recently published articles in journals such as Security Studies Civil Wars and Studies in Conflict Terrorism that are considered to have made important contributions to the debate on the subject

Reluctant Interveners Eyal Mayroz, 2020 Why do we allow our governments to get away with bystanding to genocide Focusing on the relationships between citizens political elites and U S institutions in the most powerful nation in the world Reluctant Interveners offers a sobering account of the interplays between values and interests words and deeds which transformed the pledge of never again to a recurring reality of ever again

New Actors and Alliances in Development Lisa Ann Richey, Stefano Ponte, 2016-03-17 This collection brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars exploring how development financing and interventions are being shaped by a wider and more complex platform of actors than usually considered in the existing literature The contributors also trace a changing set of key relations and alliances in development those between business and consumers NGOs and celebrities philanthropic organizations and the state diaspora groups and transnational advocacy networks ruling elites and productive capitalists and between new donors and developing country governments Despite the diversity of these actors and alliances several commonalities arise they are often based on hybrid transnationalism and diffuse notions of development responsibility rather than being new per se they are newly being studied as engaging in practices that are now coming to be understood as development and they are limited in their ability to act as agents of development by their lack of accountability or pro poor commitment The articles in this collection point to images and representations as increasingly important in development branding and suggest fruitful new ground for critical development studies This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

Failure to Prevent Gross Human Rights Violations in Darfur Fred Grünfeld, Wessel N. Vermeulen, 2014-05-09 The book looks at the role of states and international organisations in their attempts to prevent the genocide in Darfur 2003 2005 from early warning to limited action in the field of humanitarian assistance mediation sanctions and peace keeping The book uses several theories to explain how decision making led to the absence of international responses Insurgent Fragmentation in the Horn of Africa Michael Woldemariam,2018-02-15 When insurgent organizations factionalize and fragment it can profoundly shape a civil war its intensity outcome and duration In this extended treatment of this complex and important phenomenon Michael Woldemariam examines why rebel organizations fragment through a unique historical analysis of the Horn of Africa s civil wars Central to his view is that rebel factionalism is conditioned by battlefield developments While fragmentation is caused by territorial gains and losses counter intuitively territorial stalemate tends to promote rebel cohesion and is a critical basis for cooperation in war As a rare effort to examine these issues in the context of the Horn of Africa region based upon extensive fieldwork this book will interest both scholarly and non scholarly audiences interested in insurgent groups and conflict dynamics Mediation and Liberal Peacebuilding Mikael Eriksson,Roland Kostić,2013 Despite the wealth of research on external interventions and practices of Western peacebuilding many scholars tend to rely on findings in the so called post agreement phase of interventions As a result most mainstream peacebuilding literature pays limited or no attention to the linkages that exist between mediation practices in the negotiation phase and processes in the post peace agreement phase of intervention By linking the motives and practices of interveners during negotiation and implementation phases into a more integrated theoretical framework this book makes a unique contribution to the on going debate on the so called Western liberal models of peacebuilding Drawing upon in depth case studies this innovative volume examines a variety of political motives behind third party interventions thus challenging the very founding concept of mediation literature from the publisher Conflict Mediation in the Arab World Ibrahim Fraihat,Isak Svensson,2023-10-30 The Middle East and North Africa region has been plagued with civil wars international interventions and increasing militarization making it one of the most war affected areas in the world today Despite numerous mediation processes and initiatives for conflict resolution most have failed to transform conflicts from war to peace Seeking to learn from these past efforts and apply new research Fraihat and Svensson present the first comprehensive approach to mediation in the Arab world taking on cases from Yemen to Sudan from Qatar to Palestine Syria and beyond Conflict Mediation in the Arab World focuses on mediation at three different levels of analysis between countries between governments and armed actors inside single countries and between different communities In applying this holistic method the editors identify similarities and differences in the conditions for conflict resolution and management Drawing upon the work of experts in the field with a deep understanding of the increasing complexities and changing dynamics of the region this volume offers a valuable resource for academics policy makers and practitioners interested in conflict resolution and management in the Middle East and North Africa Ceasefires Govinda Clayton,Simon J. A. Mason,Valerie Sticher,Andreas Wenger,2025-03-03 A policy relevant study of when and how ceasefires lead to peace Almost all intrastate conflicts involve ceasefire agreements yet little is known about which factors make a ceasefire effective in stopping violence and ultimately ending intrastate conflict Ceasefires explores the complex relationship between the ceasefire and political negotiation processes and examines how they can either reinforce or impede each other Case studies from the joint perspectives of practitioners and scholars cover conflicts in Bosnia Burundi Colombia Darfur El Salvador Myanmar the Philippines Sudan North South and Syria This in depth analysis of ceasefires offers a unique framework for future mediators and negotiators as well as scholars of the intrastate peace process to enable them to identify a spectrum of potentially acceptable ceasefire agreements and sequencing approaches

The Oxford Handbook of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh, Gil Loescher, Katy Long, Nando Sigona, 2014 Refugee and Forced Migration Studies has grown from being a concern of a relatively small number of scholars and policy researchers in the 1980s to a global field of interest with thousands of students worldwide studying displacement either from traditional disciplinary perspectives or as a core component of newer programmes across the Humanities and Social and Political Sciences Today the field encompasses both rigorous academic research which may or may not ultimately inform policy and practice as well as action research focused on advocating in favour of refugees needs and rights This authoritative Handbook critically evaluates the birth and development of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies and analyses the key contemporary and future challenges faced by academics and practitioners working with and for forcibly displaced populations around the world The 52 state of the art chapters written by leading academics practitioners and policymakers working in universities research centres think tanks NGOs and international organizations provide a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of the key intellectual political social and institutional challenges arising from mass displacement in the world today The chapters vividly illustrate the vibrant and engaging debates that characterize this rapidly expanding field of research and practice

The World's Largest Humanitarian Agency D. Shaw, 2011-07-19 This book focuses on the transformation of the WFP into the world's largest humanitarian agency providing an in depth account of responses to increasingly large and complex natural and man made disasters It examines food aid and looks to the new modalities that are required to make food more available to those in dire need

Sovereignty and the Responsibility to Protect Theresa Reinold, 2013 This book explores how the bedrock institution of today's global order sovereignty is undergoing transformation as a result of complex interactions between power and norms between politics and international law This book analyses a series of controversial military interventions into the internal affairs of irresponsible sovereigns and discusses their consequences for the rules on the use of force and the principle of sovereign equality Featuring case studies on Kosovo Darfur and Afghanistan It shows that frames from one discourse for example the debate over the responsibility to protect have been imported into other discourses on counter terrorism and nuclear non proliferation in an attempt to legitimize a bold challenge to the global legal order Although the demise of sovereignty is widely debated this book instead seeks to deconstruct sovereignty by explaining how this institution has been reconstituted by global powers whose hegemonic law making activities have popularized the notion of sovereignty as responsibility Drawing on international relations theory international law and sociology Sovereignty and the Responsibility to Protect develops a truly interdisciplinary perspective on the transformation of sovereignty and will be of strong interest to students and scholars in these fields Inside the Un Security Council Jess Gifkins,2024-02-20 Inside the UN Security Council analyses informal practices within Security Council decision making both in general and focused on the case of Darfur in the west of Sudan to pull back the curtain on decision making Conflict Resolution and Human Needs Kevin Avruch,Christopher Mitchell,2013-05-02 This edited volume examines Basic Human Needs theory and interactive problem solving looking at recent developments in thinking about both and how these might affect peacebuilding in contemporary conflicts of the twenty first century The era in the immediate aftermath of World War II was paradoxically a time of great optimism in parts of academia There was especially in the United States and much of Europe a widespread belief in the social sciences that systematic scholarly analysis would enable humanity to understand and do something about the most complex of social processes and thus about solving persistent human problems unemployment delinquency racism under development and even issues of conflict war and peace This book examines the evolution of the Basic Human Needs theory and is divided into two key parts Basic Human Needs in Theory and Basic Human Needs in Practice Exploring this theory through a wide range of different lenses including gender ethics and power the volume brings together some of the leading scholars in the field of peace and conflict studies and draws upon research both past and present to forecast where the movement is headed in the future This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies conflict resolution psychology security studies and IR Serve and Protect Tobias Winright,2020-11-13 This collection of essays on policing and the use of force while written over the course of the last twenty five years remains relevant and timely Although issues in policing and questions about excessive force and brutality have been addressed by criminologists sociologists philosophers and criminal justice ethicists only a handful of theological ethicists treat this pressing matter While the Christian moral tradition has a voluminous record of theological attention to violence and nonviolence war and peace there is a dearth of references to policing And most considerations of criminal justice issues by Christians and their churches concentrate on prison reform or abolition and the death penalty but not policing These essays authored by a theological ethicist possessing professional experience in law enforcement seek to fill this curious gap They offer a framework for moral reasoning concerning the justification for police use of force and the just application of such force and they propose just policing as a model that is consonant with promoting a just peace in communities and society In addition they explore the implications of such an approach for wider international questions about just war terrorism the responsibility to protect and post war justice The No-Fly Zone in US Foreign Policy Gustav Meibauer,2025-09-12 The no fly zone is a frequently used instrument in the US foreign policy arsenal despite detrimental or even catastrophic results This book examines why the instrument has such a hold on leaders imaginations and rhetoric despite its patchy record in practice Examining detailed historical case studies from conflicts in Iraq Bosnia Kosovo South Sudan Darfur Libya and Syria the book shows how debates about and actual use of no fly zones in US foreign policy have not been primarily about managing conflict or protecting civilians Instead the focus is often on navigating contradictory international and domestic political incentives and constraints leading to US intervention in an ill considered and incremental manner
