the most authentic and complete portrayal of the great and tireless service rendered to Islam by the Founder of the Ahmadiyya Movement The first two volumes published in 1939 and 1940 respectively consist of the Founder's life history and also contain synopsis of each of his major Urdu Arabic and Persian works The third volume deals with his Islamic philosophy thoughts exposition of Islamic concepts defense of Islam in reply to non Muslim critics and his mission of carrying the message of Islam to the West The Islamic Review, 1954 Dust of the Caravan Anis Kidwai, 2021-08-31 Dust of the Caravan is a selection of writings by Anis Kidwai sketching the personal and political journey of a Muslim woman through the first eight decades of the 20th century In Kidwai's often humorous and always incisive and compassionate telling of the travels that took her from a birth and upbringing in rural Awadh into the maelstrom of Partition and its aftermath lies a rich tapestry of tales Simultaneously a social history of life in rural Awadh in the early 20th century and the birth of the national movement in the region as well as an account of the traditions of mutual respect and understanding between different faiths in a shared culture and the rupture of those very traditions during Partition this book is also the story of a woman's journey from the home into the world and from family values towards autonomous beliefs friendships and activism In addition to its value as a literary work Dust of the Caravan is an important resource in the fields of history sociology and gender studies

Asian American Athletes in Sport and Society C. Richard King, 2014-10-24 For more than a century sporting spectacles media coverage and popular audiences have staged athletics in black and white Commercial media and academic accounts have routinely erased excluded ignored and otherwise made absent the Asian American presence in sport This book seeks to redress this pattern of neglect presenting a comprehensive perspective on the history and significance of Asian American athletes coaches and teams in North America The contributors interrogate the sociocultural contexts in which Asian Americans lived and played detailing the articulations of power and possibility difference and identity representation and remembrance that have shaped the means and meanings of Asian Americans playing sport in North America This volume will be of interest to students and scholars of the Asian American experience ethnic relations and the history of sport

Emotions in Rituals and Performances Axel Michaels, Christoph Wulf, 2020-11-29 Challenging the idea that rituals are static and emotions irrational the volume explores the manifold qualities of emotions in ritual practices Focusing explicitly on the relationship between emotions and rituals it poses two central questions First how and to what extent do emotions shape rituals Second in what way are emotions ritualized in and beyond rituals Strong emotions are generally considered to be more spontaneous and uncontrolled whereas ritual behaviour is regarded as planned formalized and stereotyped and hence less emotional However as the volume demonstrates rituals often reveal strong emotions among participants are motivated by feelings or are intended to generate them The essays discuss the motivation for rituals the healing function of emotions the creation of new emotions through new media the aspect of mimesis in the generation of feelings individual collective and non human emotions the importance of trance and possession staged emotions and emotions on stage emotions in the context of martyrdom emotions in Indian and Western dance traditions emotions of love sorrow fear aggression and devotion Furthermore aesthetic and sensory dimensions as well as emic concepts of emotions in rituals are underscored as relevant in understanding social practice The Cornhill Magazine William Makepeace Thackeray,1924 The Church Missionary
