Youth Ministry That Transforms Merton P. Strommen, Karen Jones, Dave Rahn, 2011-05-03 A first of its kind study of Protestant youth ministers reveals the hopes frustrations and effectiveness of today s youth workers Of the 7 000 youth workers assembled in 1996 under Atlanta s Georgia Dome a sample of 2 130 full time youth ministers from dozens of Protestant denominations and parachurch organizations answered a battery of exhaustive deliberate questions covering What they liked best about youth ministry What particularly pleased them in their work with youth What they found most encouraging or discouraging Their biggest obstacle to an effective youth ministry Their biggest concern in youth ministry Their answers revealed a dedicated group of professionals concerned about the students in their ministries but troubled with a variety of perplexing issues And their answers form the backbone of Youth Ministry That Transforms a comprehensive analysis of this groundbreaking study funded by the Lilly Endowment focusing on the hopes frustrations and effectiveness of today s youth workers Spearheaded by Merton Strommen one of America s most exemplary and influential thinkers and authors in youth and family ministry the research writing team is joined by Karen E Jones and Dave Rahn of Huntington

Indiana College's Link Institute for Faithful and Effective Youth Ministry and acknowledged leader in the task of undergirding youth ministry with a research base. These three deliver thorough analysis and sound interpretation regarding the state of youth ministry at the dawn of the 21st century. Youth Ministry That Transforms belongs on the desks and in the classrooms of all who are concerned with this developing profession including denominational and parachurch leadership professors, youth ministry students, and thoughtful youth workers themselves. It is also an insightful resource for any who want to understand youth ministers and their profession: senior pastors, executive pastors, and other individuals and committees charged with hiring and supervising youth workers. Adoptive Youth Ministry (Youth, Family, and Culture) Chap Clark, 2016-01-26 Kids desperately need healthy committed adults who can help them thrive in their faith and become active participants in the life of the church. This requires the efforts of the whole faith community. Chap Clark, one of the leading voices in youth ministry today, brings together twenty-four experts from a variety of denominations and traditions to offer a comprehensive introduction to adoptive youth ministry: a theologically driven, academically grounded, and practical youth ministry model. The book shows readers how to integrate emerging generations into the family of faith, helping young adults become active participants in God's redemptive community. Deep Ministry in a Shallow World Chap Clark, Kara Powell, 2009-08-08 Deep Ministry in a Shallow World will show you a new way to prayerfully reflect on the questions you face in your youth ministry every day so you can find the answers that will take it to deeper places. That's because authors Chap Clark and Kara Powell have gathered significant research findings that will help shift your ministry paradigm. Did you know that the typical strategies we use to build relationships with kids might actually cause them to trust us less because of what this generation has endured? Recent research on communication could help us move past the witty talks and funny stories we work so hard to develop and instead actually connect the Bible to kids' lives. Studies show that offering students just Jesus and not helping them at home, school, and in their neighborhoods might not help them very much at all. The authors' research also led to their development of the Deep Design problem-solving process: a revolutionary model that will give you better tools than ever before to address every last issue you'll encounter in youth ministry. Sustainable Youth Ministry Mark DeVries, 2010-01-28 One of the big problems in youth ministry is the constant turnover of youth ministers. Mark DeVries addresses the problem with a systematic answer: churches need to take corporate responsibility for establishing a vision and structure for effective ministry rather than leaving it all up to the youth minister. Especially helpful for senior pastors and church leaders. Parents and Family: Junior High School Group Study Kara Powell, 2010-03-21 Growing up can be difficult for tweens and parents. Emotions can run hot and cold, and if families aren't strengthened along the way, they may not be able to handle the extremes. Now youth leaders can help the young teens in their group deal with their wildly fluctuating feelings and relate positively to their parents and siblings. Activities and exercises get teens thinking about how they can let God reign over their emotions and their families. Uncommon puts it all together for youth leaders. Uncommon Youth Ministry Jim
