Zambia National Service Recruitment 2014:

Zambia at Fifty Years Royson Mukwena, 2016-03-19 This book looks at what went wrong and right during Zambia's first fifty years of nationhood and based on this makes some recommendations where necessary on the way forward for the country in the areas covered in the book. The cutoff point for the book is October 24, 2014. The book is a systematic discourse on a range of socioeconomic and political developments in the country since independence. The discourse covers political history, constitutional history, political culture, and citizen participation in public affairs, sovereignty and democracy, foreign policy, civilian control of armed forces, dependency syndrome, employment creation through micro, small and medium enterprises, marketing systems, library and information services, labour matters, the civil service, and social welfare.

Estimates of Revenue and Expenditure Zambia, 2015 Public Relations History Cayce Myers, 2020-07-29 This book presents a unique overview of public relations history, tracing the development of the profession and its practices in a variety of sectors ranging from politics, education, social movements, and corporate communication to entertainment. Author Cayce Myers examines the institutional pressures, including financial, legal, and ethical considerations, that have shaped public relations and have led to the parameters in which the practice is executed today, exploring the role that underrepresented groups and sectors both in the U.S. and internationally played in its formation. The book presents the diversity and nuance of public relations practice while also providing a cohesive narrative that engages readers in the complex development of this influential profession. Public Relations History is an excellent resource for upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses covering public relations theory, management, and administration, mass communication history, and media history. Global Library and Information Science Ismail Abdullahi, 2017-11-07 This 2nd edition of the highly successful Global Library and Information Science presents an up-to-date review of international librarianship and library science through insightful and well-written chapters contributed by experts and scholars from all regions of the world. The role of public, academic, special, school libraries, as well as library and information science education, are presented from the early development to the present time. Its lively, readable approach will help the reader to understand librarianship in Africa, Asia, Australia, and New Zealand, Europe, Latin America, and the Caribbean, and North America. Edited by Ismail Abdullahi, Professor of Global Library and Information Science, this book is a must-read by library science students and teachers, librarians, and anyone interested in Global Librarianship. Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world, comprising their aims, activities, and events. Mathematics Teacher Training and Development in Africa Kakoma Luneta, Marc Schäfer, 2024-10-09 This edited volume addresses the need for reforms in mathematics teacher training, spurred by scientific advancements and societal changes encompassing calls for changes in curricula, content, and instructional methods.
