Transformational Leadership Lcwr Leadership Conference Of Women Religious:

Transformational Leadership Sanders, Annmarie, IHM, 2015-09-01 In 2009 the Leadership Conference of Women Religious LCWR an organization representing 300 orders of sisters in the United States suddenly gained wide attention following a critical doctrinal assessment issued by the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith Many became interested in the way the LCWR and its members exercised leadership One of their members described it as transformational leadership a way of being in the world To better understand this way of leadership LCWR regularly conducts interviews with some of the most engaging and passionate of contemporary thinkers In this volume of interviews eighteen theologians psychologists educators and religious leaders from various fields and disciplines share their wisdom about a way of leadership able to meet the deep challenges of today's world Transformational Leadership offers the opportunity to learn from notables such as Walter Brueggemann Judy Cannato Joan Chittister OSB Constance FitzGerald OCD Donald Goergen OP Marty Linsky and Margaret Wheatley Transformational Leadership although originally addressed to American Catholic sisters provides thoughtful and practical suggestions for living a Gospel centered life and its unique collection of personalities and insight makes it of interest to all men and women seeking to live and lead with purpose and depth

However Long the Night Annmarie Sanders Ihm, 2018-03-21 These reflections offered by the Leadership Conference of Women Religious LCWR describe what the organization learned as it went through a six year public crisis The book details the values attitudes and practices that helped the organization navigate a situation that could easily have resulted in fractured relationships and polarization but did not The authors share a variety of processes and conceptual frameworks that can be valuable for anyone living or leading in a complex and challenging situation of conflict Back cover Conscience & Catholicism Decosse, David E., Heyer, Kristin E., 2015-09-30 In this volume leading ethicists and theologians address conscience a term with loaded meaning and controversy in the Catholic Church in recent decades around issues like political participation human sexuality war and institutional violence and theological dissent Many essays in this challenging and far ranging volume focus on the tension between the primacy of conscience codified at Vatican II and the processes and cultures of Catholic institutions including schools hospitals and medical research facilities Intended for a scholarly audience this valuable collection will also appeal to those involved in Catholic health care catechetical work and pastoral ministry Publisher

Conversations at the Well Jung Eun Sophia Park, Teresa Maya, 2019-08-29 Are religious women in the United States disappearing and finally dying out Or is there any new way of religious life emerging Conversations at the Well tries to respond to this question In the twenty first century of the global world newly emerging religious life would be rooted with the Jesus Movement and develop in the spirit of collaboration networking and intercultural living As the liminal space religious life is located at the margins subverting the existing social order and creating a new vision for the world This book explores an alternative meaning of religious life within the context of the apostolic mission In this new religious life the concept of community is not limited to living as a community in the convent but extended into collaborating friendship. Primarily the apostolic religious life is deeply related to social justice, delinking the global capitalism in which many people suffer from human trafficking, immigration and exile. The new leader of religious women would require skill in handling uncertainty, amplifying resources and opening to the new reality. In this new religious life, spirituality would be articulated as freedom and liberation to let go of the old frame as well as letting the new life become reality. In this way, as radical disciples, religious women in the twenty-first century embody the Jesus Movement, building bridges between different cultures and people.

Lessons from the experience of Catholic women in leadership in a wide range of Catholic ministries Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson Callahan, 2013-05-20 This 2 volume set within The SAGE Reference Series on Leadership tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion. It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move leadership in communities of faith, leadership as taught in theological education and training, religious leadership impacting social change and social justice, and more. Topics are examined from multiple perspectives, traditions and faiths. Features Benefits: By focusing on key topics with 100 brief chapters, we provide students with more depth than typically found in encyclopedia entries but with less jargon or density than the typical journal article or research handbook chapter. Signed chapters are written in language and style that is broadly accessible. Each chapter is followed by a brief bibliography and further readings to guide students to sources for more in-depth exploration in their research journeys. A detailed index, cross references between chapters, and an online version enhance accessibility for today's student audience. Education, Identity and Women Religious, 1800-1950 Deirdre Raftery, Elizabeth M. Smyth, 2015-10-08 This book brings together the work of eleven leading international scholars to map the contribution of teaching Sisters who provided schooling to hundreds of thousands of children globally from 1800 to 1950. The volume represents research that draws on several theoretical approaches and methodologies. It engages with feminist discourses, social history, oral history, visual culture, post-colonial studies, and the concept of transnationalism to provide new insights into the work of Sisters in education. Making a unique contribution to the field, chapters offer an interrogation of historical sources as well as fresh interpretations of findings, challenging assumptions. Compelling narratives from the USA, Canada, New Zealand, Africa, Australia, South East Asia, France, the UK, Italy, and Ireland contribute to what is a most important exploration of the contribution of the women religious by mapping and contextualizing their work. Education, Identity and Women Religious, 1800-1950. Convents, classrooms and colleges will appeal to academics, researchers, and postgraduate students in the fields of social history, women's history, the history of education, Catholic education, gender studies, and international education. Beyond the Altar Christine L.M. Gervais, 2018-04-26 Beyond the Altar illustrates how women religious overcome sexist subjugation by side-stepping the patriarchal power of the Roman Catholic Church. This book counters the stereotypical image of Catholic nuns as being loyally compliant with their church by showing how a number of current and former women religious in Canada challenge their institutional religion's precepts and engage in transformative strategies to effect change both within and outside the Roman Catholic Church. The sisters' testimonials reveal never before shared details about their painful experiences of male domination, their courageous efforts to move beyond such sexist stifling, and the women-led and women-centered spiritual governance and activist practices they have engendered in the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries. Featuring many examples of the sisters' resourcefulness, resilience, and resistance, this book fills a void in international scholarship on what Canadian Catholic women religious have endured and accomplished. Through interviews and in-depth accounts of the complexities and nuances present in the current and former sisters' lives, readers will discover their steadfast indomitability as they strategically and sometimes subversively innovate their spiritual spaces. Catholic Women Preach Donnelly, Elizabeth, Petrus, Russ, 2024-09-25
