Transitions Environments Translations Feminisms In International Politics:

Transitions Environments Translations Joan W. Scott, 2013 The essays in Transitions Environments Translations explore the varied meanings of feminism in different political cultural and historical contexts They respond to the claim that feminism is Western in origin and universalist in theory and to the assumption that feminist goals are self evident and the same in all contexts Rather than assume that there is a blueprint by which to measure the strength or success of feminism in different parts of the world these essays consider feminism to be a site of local national and international conflict They ask What is at stake

Transitions, Environments, Translations Cora Kaplan, Joan Wallach Scott, Debra Keates, 1997 The essays in Transitions Environments Translations explore the varied meanings of feminism in different political cultural and historical contexts They respond to the claim that feminism is Western in origin and universalist in theory and to the assumption that feminist goals are self evident and the same in all contexts Rather than assume that there is a blueprint by which to measure the strength or success of feminism in different parts of the world these essays consider feminism to be a site of local national and international conflict They ask What is at stake in various political efforts by women in different parts of the world What meanings have women given to their efforts What has been their relationship to feminism as a concept and as an international movement What happens when feminist ideas are translated from one language one political context to another

The Politics of Translation in International Relations Zeynep Gulsah Capan, Filipe dos Reis, Maj Grasten, 2021-01-09 This volume concerns the role and nature of translation in global politics Through the establishment of trade routes the encounter with the New World and the circulation of concepts and norms across global space meaning making and social connections have unfolded through practices of translating While translation is core to international relations it has been relatively neglected in the discipline of International Relations The Politics of Translation in International Relations remedies this neglect to suggest an understanding of translation that transcends language to encompass a broad range of recurrent social and political practices The volume provides a wide variety of case studies including financial regulation gender training programs and grassroots movements Contributors situate the politics of translation in the theoretical and methodological landscape of International Relations encompassing feminist theory de and post colonial theory hermeneutics post structuralism critical constructivism semiotics conceptual history actor network theory and translation studies The Politics of Translation in International Relations furthers and intensifies a cross disciplinary dialogue on how translation makes international relations

Staging International Feminisms E. Aston, S. Case, 2007-10-17 This is a landmark anthology of international feminist theatre research A three part structure orientates readers through Cartographies of feminist critical navigations of the global arena the staging of feminist Interventions in a range of international contexts and Manifestos for today s feminist practitioners activists and academics

Beyond Civil Society Sonia E. Alvarez, Jeffrey W. Rubin, Millie Thayer, Gianpaolo Baiocchi, Agustín Laó-Montes, 2017-05-18 The contributors to Beyond Civil Society argue that the conventional distinction between civic and uncivic protest and between activism in institutions and in the streets does not accurately describe the complex interactions of forms and locations of activism characteristic of twenty first century Latin America They show that most contemporary political activism in the region relies upon both confrontational collective action and civic participation at different moments Operating within fluid dynamic and heterogeneous fields of contestation activists have not been contained by governments or conventional political categories but rather have overflowed their boundaries opening new democratic spaces or extending existing ones in the process These essays offer fresh insight into how the politics of activism participation and protest are manifest in Latin America today while providing a new conceptual language and an interpretive framework for examining issues that are critical for the future of the region and beyond Contributors Sonia E Alvarez Kiran Asher Leonardo Avritzer Gianpaolo Baiocchi Andrea Cornwall Graciela DiMarco Arturo Escobar Raphael Hoetmer Benjamin Junge Luis E Lander Agust n La Montes Margarita L pez Maya Jos Antonio Lucero Graciela Monteagudo Amalia Pallares Jeffrey W Rubin Ana Claudia Teixeira Millie Thayer Feminist Studies Hemangini Gupta, Kelly Sharron, Carly Thomsen, Abraham Weil, 2025-06-02 Feminist Studies An Introductory Reader offers a unique approach to teaching and learning feminist thought Crafted with the movement and translation of ideas in mind this book is broken into four sections Feminist Epistemologies Feminist Ontologies Feminist Orientations and Resistance Each chapter includes two well known classic texts that commonly appear in Feminist Studies classes as well as two new texts written by scholars who engage critique and extend those ideas in their work In addition the book is accompanied by a companion website which includes discussion questions assignment ideas lesson plans and other materials useful for classroom instruction Feminist Studies An Introductory Reader is designed for those new to feminism as well as more seasoned feminist thinkers It is an ideal resource for students in introductory and advanced feminist theory courses as well as those interested in social scientific and humanistic inquiry more broadly Gender and Global Restructuring Marianne H. Marchand, Anne Sisson Runyan, 2005-08-08 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Rethinking Contemporary Feminist Politics J. Dean, 2010-07-21 Rethinking Contemporary Feminist Politics puts forward a timely analysis of contemporary feminism Critically engaging with both narratives of feminist decline and re emergence it draws on poststructuralist political theory to assess current forms of activism in the UK and present a provocative account of recent developments in feminist politics Gender, Agency and Change Victoria Goddard, 2003-12-16 In response to global change people create new opportunities and conditions and in their responses they are influenced by both gender and age In Gender Agency and Change the contributors illustrate the complexities involved in the constitution and performance of agency Such agency may be reflected in strategies of accommodation and adaption that can nevertheless produce new institutional arrangements Alternatively they may be directed towards the outright rejection of these processes The cases examined in this volume explore the ways in which different subjects engage in the reformulation of spaces roles and identities redefining the boundaries between and the content of the public and the private The examples also provide an account of how gendered discourses are deployed to convey new meanings a new sense of place and time confirming or challenging ideas of tradition and modernity This collection will be of particular interest to students of anthropology and gender studies

Identity and Global Politics P. Goff, 2004-03-17 This collected volume draws together essays written by International Relations scholars from a variety of regional methodological and theoretical perspectives to confront the challenges of identity centered analysis In particular the contributors seek to elucidate the general meaning and methodological implications of the commonly state yet largely unexamined assertion that identities are relational fluid constructed and multiple
