Theory of Mind in Translation Annegret Sturm, 2020-06-12 Taking the perspective of others is central to translation But does translation train this uniquely human capacity This book introduces the concept of Theory of Mind ToM to model one of the central features of translation the meta representation of others and presents three innovative studies which investigate the question using brain scans eye tracking and key logging to shed new light on the role of non linguistic macro competences on the translation process Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe,2000 Specialised Translation M.

Rogers,2015-05-26 This book shifts the common perception of specialised or LSP translation as necessarily banal and straightforward towards a more realistic understanding of it as a complex and multilayered phenomenon which belies its standard negative binary definition as non literary The Translation and Translator of the Peshitta of Hosea Eric Tully,2015-02-04 In The Translation and the Translator of the Peshitta of Hosea Eric J Tully offers the first study of the Peshitta conducted via insights and methods from the discipline of Translation Studies Every translator leaves residue of his or her interference in the course of the translation process This investigation analyzes that interference seen in the form of translation shifts categorizes it and draws conclusions with implications for textual criticism Translation Studies historical reconstruction and the history of interpretation Eric Tully argues that the Peshitta was translated from a Hebrew text similar to the Masoretic Text but not identical to it and was also influenced by readings from the Greek Septuagint The study concludes with a socio historical profile of the translator Just as an ancient person makes one kind of ceramic jug or bronze incense stand and not another the translation is a literary artifact in which the translator has crafted a text that reflects his or her own values and technique The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Ethics Kaisa Koskinen,Nike K.

Construction, Coherence and Connotations Pierre J. Jordaan, Nicholas P. L. Allen, 2016-08-22 These fourteen selected essays were originally read at the LXXSA international conference Construction Coherence and Connotation in Septuagint Apocryphal and Cognate Literature 28-30 August 2015 hosted by the North West University Potchefstroom South Africa Here the intention was to apply new critical theory and approaches to the fields of Old Testament Scripture as well as associated Apocryphal and Cognate literature with a specific focus on the interrelated recurring theme of the Wisdom of the deity and its decryption and reception at various times in history In this regard it was felt that this theme and associated source texts had been largely overlooked in recent scholarship Here the aim was to attract recent research by both leading national as well as international scholars which not only shed new light on Old Testament Apocrypha and so called Pseudepigraphical literature but which also critically reviewed certain biblical wisdom texts which are foundational for both the Christian as well as Jewish communities As a consequence many of the essays deal with the apocryphal Wisdom of Sirach However important contributions may also be found apropos Micah Daniel Baruch 2 Maccabees Tobit Susanna Judith and the works of Josephus Flavius
