Zen And Philosophy An Intellectual Biography Of Nishida Kitaro:

Zen and Philosophy Michiko Yusa, 2002-03-31 This is the definitive work on the first and greatest of Japan's twentieth century philosophers Nishida Kitaro 1870-1945. Interspersed throughout the narrative of Nishida's life and thought is a generous selection of the philosopher's own essays, letters, and short presentations, newly translated into English. Zen & Philosophy Michiko Yusa, 2002 This is a biography of one of the greatest of Japan's 20th century philosophers Nishida Kitaro 1870-1945. Interspersed throughout a narrative of Nishida's life and thought is a selection of the philosopher's own essays, letters, and short presentations. Eco-Phenomenology: Life, Human Life, Post-Human Life in the Harmony of the Cosmos William S. Smith, Jadwiga S. Smith, Daniela Verducci, 2018-07-03 This volume presents discussions on a wide range of topics focused on eco phenomenology and the interdisciplinary investigation of contemporary environmental thought. Starting out with a Tymieniecka Memorial chapter, the book continues with papers on the foundations, theories, readings, and philosophical sources of eco phenomenology. In addition, it examines issues of phenomenological anthropology, ecological perspectives of the human relationship to nature, and phenomenology of the living body and the virtual body. Furthermore, the volume engages in a dialogue with contemporary behavioral sciences on topics such as eco alienation, sustainability, and the human relationship to the earth in the context of the cosmos. The Cosmic Breath Amos Yong, 2012-05-10 Recent thinking in the interfaith dialogue and in the theology/science dialogue have taken a pneumatological turn. The Cosmic Breath explores this pneumatological theology as unfolded in the Christian/Buddhist dialogue, alongside critical interaction with the theology and science conversation. As an attempt in comparative and constructive Christian philosophical theology, its central thesis is that a pneumatological approach to Buddhist traditions in further dialogue with modern science generates new philosophical resources that invigorate Christian thinking about the natural world and humanity's place in it. The result is a transformation of the Buddhist/Christian dialogue from insights generated in the theology and science interface and a contribution to the religion and science dialogue from a comparative theological and philosophical perspective. Columbia Companion to Twentieth-Century Philosophies Constantin V. Boundas, 2007 Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is the first guide to cover both the Anglo-American analytic and European continental traditions. Organized thematically, the volume thoroughly discusses the major movements and fields of each tradition and features the contributions of highly distinguished specialists in their fields. This book is divided into three sections. The first is devoted to highlighting the multidimensional work of philosophers identified with the analytic tradition, with Nicholas Rescher writing on neoidealism, Josephine Donovan commenting on feminist philosophy, Tyler Burge discussing the philosophy of language and mind, and Robert Hanna reflecting on Kant's legacy. The second section presents the thought of those who identified themselves with the continental tradition, featuring Jean Grondin on hermeneutics, Leonard Lawlor on phenomenology, Charles Scott on postmodernism, and Babette Babich on the philosophy of science. This volume also covers logical positivism.

naturalism pragmatism aesthetics existentialism Marxism the Frankfurt School structuralism psychoanalysis political philosophy ethics and the philosophy of religion The final section addresses concurrent trends in Indian Chinese Japanese and African philosophy and a comprehensive introduction by the editor not only provides a thorough outline of the problems and issues of the analytic and continental traditions but also boldly challenges the conviction that the two approaches must be rivals Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is an invaluable overview of the ideas that have shaped a monumentally important century in the history of philosophy offering an unusually panoramic perspective that allows readers to form their own interpretations of original materials

Buddhism Keith Yandell, Harold Netland, 2009-05-22 In this clear introduction to Buddhism Keith Yandell and Harold Netland lay out the central metaphysical claims of this significant world religion and then offer an honest comparison with Christianity acknowledging some overlap of belief while also noting the clear and significant differences between the two religions

The Kyoto School and International Relations Kosuke Shimizu, 2022-03-10 The Kyoto School and International Relations explores the Kyoto School's challenge to transcend the Western domination over the rest of the world and the issues this raises for contemporary non Western and Global IR literature Was the support of Kyoto School thinkers inevitable due to the despotism of military government thus nothing to do with their philosophy or a logical extension of their philosophical engagement The book answers this question by investigating individual Kyoto School philosophers in detail The author argues that any attempts to transcend the West are destined to be drawn into power politics as far as they uncritically adopt and use the prevailing ontological concept of linear progressive time and dominant meta narrative of Westphalia Thus to fully understand this problem there is the need to be cautious of the power of language of Westphalia and the concept of time in IR Aimed at students and scholars of IR theory

Japanese politics and East Asian IR in general this book provides some introductory explanations of these academic subjects developing a theory based on the concepts of time and language of Kyoto School philosophy
