Black Greek-letter Organizations in the Twenty-First Century

Gregory S. Parks, 2008-06-13 During the twentieth century black Greek Letter organizations BGLOs united college students dedicated to excellence fostered kinship and uplifted African Americans Members of these organizations include remarkable and influential individuals such as Martin Luther King Jr Congresswoman Barbara Jordan novelist Toni Morrison and Wall Street pioneer Reginald F Lewis Despite the profound influence of these groups many now question the continuing relevance of BGLOs arguing that their golden age has passed Partly because of their perceived link to hip hop culture black fraternities and sororities have been unfairly reduced to a media stereotype a world of hazing without any real substance The general public knows very little about BGLOs and surprisingly the members themselves often do not have a thorough understanding of their history and culture or of the issues currently facing their organizations To foster a greater engagement with the history and contributions of BGLOs Black Greek Letter Organizations in the Twenty first Century Our Fight Has Just Begun brings together an impressive group of authors to explore the contributions and continuing possibilities of BGLOs and their members Editor Gregory S Parks and the contributing authors provide historical context for the development of BGLOs exploring their service activities as well as their relationships with other prominent African American institutions The book examines BGLOs responses to a number of contemporary issues including non black membership homosexuality within BGLOs and the perception of BGLOs as educated gangs As illustrated by the organized response of BGLO members to the racial injustice they observed in Jena Louisiana these organizations still have a vital mission Both internally and externally BGLOs struggle to forge a relevant identity for the new century Internally these groups wrestle with many issues including hazing homophobia petty intergroup competition and the difficulty of bridging the divide between college and alumni members Externally BGLOs face the challenge of rededicating themselves to their communities and leading an aggressive campaign against modern forms of racism sexism and other types of fear driven behavior By embracing the history of these organizations and exploring their continuing viability and relevance Black Greek Letter Organizations in the Twenty first Century demonstrates that BGLOs can create a positive and enduring future and that their most important work lies ahead

Ebony ,1990-02 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The Anchora Delta Gamma, March 1922 , The Radical Imagination of Black Women Pearl K. Ford Dowe, Pearl K. Ford, 2023 Historically many Black women have viewed political participation as a means to achieve full equality and improve their status in US society To this end Black women have long engaged in politics through activism voting mobilization and seeking office Since 2016 the number of women particularly Black women seeking office has increased dramatically Including interviews with Black women holding political office at the national state and local levels as well as focus group data The Radical Imagination of Black Women challenges political science s current approach to political ambition by exploring how Black women decide to seek political office Pearl K Ford Dowe argues that ambition for Black women cannot be measured only by political candidacies and ascents of the political chain of power Black women are uniquely positioned within their communities to influence politics and public policy which stems from unique variables of socialization gender and racial identity and marginalization that shape the political attitudes of Black women Thus Dowe asserts that Black women s political ambition often manifests outside formal politics in activism and community building a process that is linked to a wider radical vision for a full democracy This is ambition that occurs in a specific context of marginalization and both motivation and the conditions surrounding such motivation are critical to understanding the full range of Black women s political work By focusing on Black women s experiences in elite politics The Radical Imagination of Black Women is a much needed intervention in the literature on electoral ambition women in politics and candidates and elections Pursuing a Promise F. Erik Brooks, 2006 In Statesboro Georgia two schools coexisted one white and the other black Yet these schools were intertwined by their geographical location and the traditions of the segregated South There are many glaring similarities between the white students of Georgia Southern University s forerunner the First District A M School and the black students of the Statesboro Industrial and High School Yet as happened all too often in the South as implementation of the federal court s desegregation orders took shape Negro schools were downgraded or outright closed Statesboro was no different While First District A M became a regional university Statesboro Industrial and High School was downgraded to a junior high school In 1961 integration on the higher education level at Georgia s flagship university captured national attention Few works if any have examined desegregation in the context of non flagship universities Likewise there is a misguided mythology that desegregation occurred quietly at Georgia Southern University it s clear that while there was not the violence and rioting seen elsewhere in Southern universities blacks were marginalized and did not feel welcome at the college A passive group after the initial integration blacks adopted tactics of protest and confrontation to empower themselves Taking a page from the Civil Rights Movement black students and faculty established organizations to confront discrimination and gain access to campus leadership positions This is a story about the defeats victories struggles and developments of blacks at Georgia Southern University

We are the Leaders We've Been Waiting For Julie E. Owen, 2023-07-03 At this time of social flux of changing demographics on campus and the world beyond of recognition of intersectional identities as well as the wide variety of aspirations and career goals of today's women undergraduates how can colleges and universities best prepare them for the demands of modern leadership This text speaks to the changing context of today's women students experiences recognizing that their work life goals may go beyond climbing the corporate ladder to include social innovation and entrepreneurial goals policy and politics and social activism This book is a product of multiple collaborations and intellectual contributions of a diverse group of undergraduate and graduate women who helped shape the course on which it is based They provided research support critical readings as well as the diverse narratives that are included throughout the book not as an ideal for readers to aspire to but as an authentic expression of how their distinct and sometimes non conforming lived experiences shaped their understandings of leadership It goes beyond hero centered approaches to get at the complex and intrapersonal nature of leadership It also situates intersectional identities critical consciousness and student development theory as important lenses throughout the text Recognizing that there are many possible manifestations of leadership or gender this text encourages students to embrace the contradictions rather than engaging in dualistic black and white thinking challenging them to address such questions as Should women lean in and work harder to achieve their own leadership goals or should they focus on bigger systemic issues to create equity in the workplace Each chapter concludes with a brief chapter review a narrative from a current college student and critical reflection questions
