Corporate Power and the Environment George A. Gonzalez, 2001-05-16

Environmental policy is broadly viewed as an oasis of democracy unspoiled by crass capitalism and undominated by corporate interests This book counters that view The focus of Corporate Power and the Environment focuses on how U S economic elites corporate decisionmakers and other individuals of substantial wealth shape the content and implementation of U S environmental policy to their economic and political benefit The author uses the management of the national forests and national parks as well as wilderness preservation policies and federal clean air policies as case studies to show corporate power in action in even the purest of policy arenas

A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo, 2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women's political participation The author's primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng's concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women's oppression The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual's life a salient principle of Christian ethics and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity Using a sophiological hermeneutic this in depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio political ethic The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians postcolonial theorists inculturation theology African males and Jon Sobrino's liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology
