What Does It Mean To Be White Developing White Racial Literacy Counterpoints:

What Does it Mean to be White? Robin J. DiAngelo, 2012 What does it mean to be white in a society that proclaims race meaningless yet is deeply divided by race In the face of pervasive racial inequality and segregation most whites cannot answer that question Robin DiAngelo argues that a number of factors make this question difficult for whites miseducation about what racism is ideologies such as individualism and colorblindness defensiveness and a need to protect rather than expand our worldviews These factors contribute to what she terms white racial illiteracy Speaking as a white person to other white people Dr DiAngelo clearly and compellingly takes readers through an analysis of white socialization She describes how race shapes the lives of white people explains what makes racism so hard for whites to see identifies common white racial patterns and speaks back to popular white narratives that work to deny racism Written as an accessible introduction to white identity from an anti racist framework What Does It Mean To Be White is an invaluable resource for members of diversity and anti racism programs and study groups and students of sociology psychology education and other disciplines

What Does it Mean to be White? Robin DiAngelo, 2016 What does it mean to be white in a society that proclaims race meaningless yet is deeply divided by race Robin DiAngelo reveals the factors that make this question so difficult miseducation about racism ideologies such as individualism and colorblindness segregation and the belief that to be complicit in racism is to be an immoral person Contemplative Practices and Anti-Oppressive Pedagogies for Higher Education Greta Gaard, Bengü Ergüner-Tekinalp, 2022-05-15 This volume explores mindfulness and other contemplative approaches as strategic tools for cultivating anti oppressive pedagogies in higher education Research confirms that simply providing students with evidence and narratives of economic social and environmental injustices proves insufficient in developing awareness and eliciting responses of empathy solidarity and a desire to act for change From the environmental humanities to the environmental sciences legal studies psychology and counseling educators from a range of geographical and disciplinary standpoints describe their research based mindfulness pedagogies Chapters explore how to interrupt and interrogate oppression through contemplative teaching tools assignments and strategies that create greater awareness and facilitate deeper engagement with learning contents contexts and communities Providing a framework that facilitates awareness of the links between historic and current oppression self identity and trauma and creating a transformative learning experience through mindfulness this book is a must read for faculty and educators interested in intersections of mindfulness contemplative pedagogies and anti oppression Epistemic Justice, Mindfulness, and the Environmental Humanities Janelle Adsit, 2021-11-29 Epistemic Justice Mindfulness and the Environmental Humanities explores how contemplative pedagogies and mindfulness can be used in the classroom to address epistemic and environmental injustice In recent years there has been a groundswell of interest in contemplative pedagogies in higher education with increasing attention from the environmental sciences environmental humanities and sustainability studies Teachers and writers have demonstrated how mindfulness practices can be a key to anti oppression and anti racist efforts both in and out of the classroom Not all forms of contemplative pedagogy are suited for this anti colonial and anti oppressive resistance however Simply adopting mindfulness practices in the classroom is not enough to dislodge and dismantle white supremacy in higher education Epistemic Justice Mindfulness and the Environmental Humanities advocates for mindfulness practices that affirm multiple epistemologies and cultural traditions Written for educators in the environmental humanities and other related disciplines the chapters interrogate the western uptake of mindfulness practices and suggest anti colonial and anti oppressive methods for bringing mindfulness into the classroom The chapters also discuss what mindfulness practices have to offer to the pursuit of a culturally relevant pedagogy This highly applied and practical text will be an insightful read for educators in the environmental humanities and across the liberal arts disciplines

The Little Book of Race and Restorative Justice Fania E. Davis,2019-04-16 In our era of mass incarceration gun violence and Black Lives Matters a handbook showing how racial justice and restorative justice can transform the African American experience in America This timely work will inform scholars and practitioners on the subjects of pervasive racial inequity and the healing offered by restorative justice practices Addressing the intersectionality of race and the US criminal justice system social activist Fania E Davis explores how restorative justice has the capacity to disrupt patterns of mass incarceration through effective equitable and transformative approaches Eager to break the still pervasive centuries long cycles of racial prejudice and trauma in America Davis unites the racial justice and restorative justice movements aspiring to increase awareness of deep seated problems as well as positive action toward change Davis highlights real restorative justice initiatives that function from a racial justice perspective these programs are utilized in schools justice systems and communities intentionally seeking to ameliorate racial disparities and systemic inequities Chapters include Chapter 1 The Journey to Racial Justice and Restorative Justice Chapter 2 Ubuntu The Indigenous Ethos of Restorative Justice Chapter 3 Integrating Racial Justice and Restorative Justice Chapter 4 Race Restorative Justice and Schools Chapter 5 Restorative Justice and Transforming Mass Incarceration Chapter 6 Toward a Racial Reckoning Imagining a Truth Process for Police Violence Chapter 7 A Way Forward She looks at initiatives that strive to address the historical harms against African Americans throughout the nation This newest addition the Justice and Peacebuilding series is a much needed and long overdue examination of the issue of race in America as well as a beacon of hope as we learn to work together to repair damage change perspectives and strive to do better

Handbook of Research on Diversity and Social Justice in Higher Education Keengwe, Jared, 2020-05-22 There is growing pressure on teachers and faculty to understand and adopt best practices to work with diverse races cultures and languages in modern classrooms Establishing sound pedagogy is also critical given that racial cultural and linguistic integration has the potential to increase academic success for all learners To that end there is also a need for educators to prepare graduates who will better meet the needs of culturally diverse learners and help their learners to become successful global citizens The Handbook of Research on Diversity and Social Justice in Higher Education is a cutting edge research book that examines cross cultural perspectives challenges and opportunities pertaining to advancing diversity and social justice in higher education Furthermore the book explores multiple concepts of building a bridge from a monocultural pedagogical framework to cross cultural knowledge through appropriate diversity education models as well as effective social justice practices Highlighting a range of topics such as cultural taxation intercultural engagement and teacher preparation this book is essential for teachers faculty academicians researchers administrators policymakers and students

Care(ful) Relationships between Mothers and the Caregivers They Hire Andrea O'Reilly, Katie Bodendorfer Garner, 2023-12-14 Care ful Relationships between Mothers and the Caregivers They Hire offers an interdisciplinary and international approach to the complex issues of carework primarily focusing on childcare The diverse collection of authors center their examinations of care by interrogating how class race and gender interplay to create inequity and potential The work shared in Care ful Relationships draws from various disciplines including sociology anthropology media studies literary and dramatic analysis history and women s studies while also addressing carework as it is depicted in ages past and contemporary culture The collection not only seeks to challenge misconceptions and inequity but also examine how the unique personal relationships that form in the labor of care can yield prosocial change

Ethnicity and Inclusion David G. Horrell, 2020-10-29 Some of today s problematic ideologies of racial and religious difference can be traced back to constructions of the relationship between

Judaism and early Christianity New Testament studies which developed contemporaneously with Europe's colonial expansion and racial ideologies is David Horrell argues therefore an important site at which to probe critically these ideological constructions and their contemporary implications In Ethnicity and Inclusion Horrell explores the ways in which ethnic and religious characteristics feature in key Jewish and early Christian texts challenging the widely accepted dichotomy between a Judaism that is ethnically defined and a Christianity that is open and inclusive Then through an engagement with whiteness studies he offers a critique of the implicit whiteness and Christianness that continue to dominate New Testament studies today arguing that a diversity of embodied perspectives is epistemologically necessary Samuel, Kings, Chronicles,

Ezra-Nehemiah Athalya Brenner-Idan, Gale A. Yee, 2021-07-29 This volume brings together disparate views about biblical texts in the books of Samuel Chronicles and Ezra Nehemiah and examines their influence in the life of contemporary communities demonstrating how today's environments and disorders help readers to acquire new insights into such texts The contributing scholars hail from different continents from East Asia to the United States to Europe to South Africa and Israel and count themselves as members of various Jewish and Christian traditions or secularist ways of life But in spite of their differences in location and community membership and perhaps in the spirit of the times 2020 and its global discontents they share preoccupations with questions of ethics in politics and life proper death violence and social exclusion or inclusion This volume offers readers a better understanding of how politics and faith can be melded both in ancient and contemporary contexts to serve the interests of certain classes and societies often at the expense of others Unsettling Education

Anna-Leah King, Kathleen O'Reilly, Patrick J. Lewis, 2024-07-19 This edited collection tackles unsettling as an emerging field of study that calls for settlers to follow Indigenous leadership and relationality and work toward disrupting the colonial reality through their everyday lives Bringing together Indigenous and non-Indigenous scholars and activists Unsettling Education considers how we can reconcile and transcend ongoing settler colonialism The contributors reflect on how the three concepts of unsettling Indigenization and decolonization overlap and intersect in practical and theoretical ways Questions are raised such as how can we recognize and address historical and current injustices that have been imposed upon Indigenous Peoples and their lands How can we respect the fundamental and inherent sovereignty and rights of Indigenous Peoples as we work toward reconciliation And how do we work collectively to build more equitable and just communities for all who call Canada home Unsettling Education is well suited for college and university courses in Indigenous studies or education that focus on decolonization land based learning Indigenization unsettling and reconciliation

Higher Education Is History Brendan Cushing-Daniels, 2025-09-04 The legacy of exclusion within higher education shapes current perceptions and practices in academia it is also the essential lens through which to view the present reactionary climate against efforts supporting diversity equity and inclusion DEI in higher education and elsewhere For centuries access to higher education was reserved for wealthy white men This book details and counters a number of the most strident criticisms of higher education and illustrates that many of these criticisms are inextricably tied to the opening of higher education to women students of color and others whose identities have historically been excluded. These expansions require addressing a host of needs not merely financial but emotional, psychological and social as well to establish a true sense of belonging for all students. This includes acknowledging past injustices and actively creating environments that support all students. Brendan Cushing Daniels advocates for a commitment to equity in education and promotes greater access to the intellectual and economic benefits of a college degree indicating that a more inclusive approach will benefit both individuals and society as a whole.

BI_PoC Diversity Manager*innen in weißen Organisationen: Eine Gratwanderung zwischen Racial Stress & White Fragility Asmahan Gamgami, 2025-04-22. Dieses Buch ist eine wegweisende und machtkritische Analyse der deutschen Diversity Management Praxis. Die Autorin bietet einen tiefgründigen analytischen und umfassenden Einblick in die Komplexität der Thematik. Die zentrale Rolle weißer Befindlichkeiten sowie das Wirken kolonialer Kontinuitäten auf BI_PoC Diversity Manager*innen werden systematisch herausgearbeitet. Gamgami betont unter anderem das intrinsisch aktivistische Verständnis von BI_PoC Diversity Manager*innen und analysiert sowohl den Mehrwert als auch das Dilemma dieses Antriebs. Diese Forschung bietet jedoch nicht nur Kritik sondern benennt wesentliche Faktoren für erfolgreiches Diversity Management, liefert Handlungsempfehlungen für den Selbstschutz von BI_PoC Diversity Manager*innen und definiert die Kompetenzen die gute Diversity Manager*innen mitbringen müssen. Dabei berücksichtigt sie stets die Wirkung bestehender Machtverhältnisse. Die Autorin lädt dazu ein die Herausforderungen und Potenziale des deutschen Diversity Managements sowie ihrer Akteur*innen zu verstehen und kritisch zu reflektieren.

The Foundations of European Transnational Private Law Anna Beckers, Hans-W. Micklitz, Rodrigo Vallejo, Pia Letto-Vanamo, 2024-05-30. Since Anu Bradford's groundbreaking book on the Brussels Effect there is a vastly evolving literature on the EU as a global regulatory actor as well as the global reach of EU law. This edited collection connects to this debate. Yet it shifts the focus from the currently predominant public law focus to investigating European and EU private law and to connecting to literature and research on transnational law. To that end it proceeds first conceptually by introducing and giving shape to the notion of a European Transnational Private Law through four conceptual contributions by the editors. Secondly it focuses on several sectors: finance, taxation, investment, consumer law, labour law and topics: climate litigation, global value chains, non-discrimination to trace sector specifically the role of EU private law in relation to transnational legal ordering.

Critical Leadership Praxis for Educational and Social Change Katie Pak, Sharon M. Ravitch, 2021. In this edited volume contributors draw on the work of Andrade and Morrell 2008 in articulating critical leadership praxis as well as critical race theory and critical education leadership scholarship in order to offer new and generative theories of change. They make explicit power dynamics, social inequities and taken for granted forms of stratification in educational organizations with the primary purpose of offering specific and useful frames, concepts and practices to educational leaders that they can adopt in their own work. The goal is for educational leaders to develop their sense of agency and their knowledge and professional competencies for taking an equity and inquiry stance in their work of transforming the organizations and people around them The work is intended to provide a counter narrative to a broad literature in educational leadership that reinscribe white middle class male leadership styles values and priorities as an assumed and normative backdrop both in terms of the frames used and the values and epistemologies promoted The work is organized into four sections Transforming Self Transforming Educators Transforming Organizations and Transforming Systems Contributors include practicing leaders doctoral students with leadership experience and leadership faculty and researchers

Equitable Literacy Instruction for Students in Poverty Doris Walker-Dalhouse, Victoria J. Risko, Differences in performance between students of poverty and more advantaged students are reflective of an opportunity gap as opposed to a gap in student ability This book argues that significant attention must be given to eliminating the barriers that produce educational inequities in student achievement Walker Dalhouse and Risko focus on disparities in literacy achievement that might be attributed to color blind practices deficit mindsets low expectations or context neutral practices Situating literacy learning within a comprehensive view of literacy development they provide a set of instructional practices that will best support students living in poverty Specifically vignettes from kindergarten through middle school classrooms are used to demonstrate practices that address critical areas of the reading process are responsive to students racial ethnic cultural gender and linguistic histories and assets attend to students strengths and needs and go beyond the impact of short term testing to support optimal and sustainable learning Educators and school leaders can use this resource to transform schools into nurturing and vibrant communities that are committed to change equity and diversity Book Features Provides recommendations and detailed guidance for enacting literacy instruction that will close opportunity gaps for students living in poverty Includes vignettes from leading literacy educators and researchers that demonstrate high quality literacy instruction implemented in K 8 classrooms Presents instruction that is responsive to differences and honors the languages literacies and cultural resources that students bring to their learning Offers specific recommendations and practices that can guide advocacy for change The authors correct the deficit misperceptions by showing how students experiencing poverty are the targets not the causes of educational disparities What a different world schools would be if we each embraced these lessons From the Afterword by Paul C Gorski founder Equity Literacy Institute

Inarticulate Longings Jennifer Scanlon, 2020-10-28 Inarticulate Longings explores the contradictions of a social agenda for women that promoted both traditional roles and the promises of a growing consumer culture by examining the advertising industry in the early 20th century

Developing Culturally Responsive Learning Environments in Postsecondary Education R. Jason Lynch, Charmion B. Rush, 2024-01-01 U S colleges and universities are rapidly diversifying In 2018 the U S Census Bureau estimated that nearly half of undergraduate students were of non white racial identities with that number only increasing for future generations This increase in diversity holds true for many other identity groups Yet faculty demographics remain disproportionately white and male For years students have called for institutions of postsecondary education to support their success through adopting more culturally relevant practices for teaching and learning Scholarship on student success in college has also echoed this call Developing Culturally Responsive Learning Environments in Postsecondary Education was developed to help postsecondary educators answer this call through a multilayered view of student support within the college classroom and beyond Specifically this book features twenty three chapters divided into four parts Each part corresponds with four thematic areas identified as an important component in developing culturally responsive learning environments unpacking educator cultural competence learning experiences of the 21st century college student culturally responsive teaching and instruction and transforming curriculum content and environments Authors representing diverse backgrounds and institutional contexts come together to offer their own scholarly and practical expertise to tackle issues ranging from combating implicit bias and building cultural competence to exploring specific student experiences and practical ways to implement culturally responsive pedagogies In addition to each chapter this volume provides a companion case scenario exercise for you to directly apply the content from the book Ultimately we hope this book provides you with a meaningful starting place to help you honor the diversity of your students and support their success within your learning context Resources in Education ,2001-04
