Roseman, 2017-09-15 In the passage to modernity we in the West have lost the ability to see things whole We've closed our minds to all things transcendent and default to unbelief and can't make sense of the persistent echoes of the voice of God that reverberate in our souls In Rediscovering God's Grand Story James Roseman picks up the strands of science philosophy history the arts and theology and reweaves the tapestry to see a coherent story that makes the best sense of the world and provides real meaning and significance to our lives God's Grand Myth We see that the signals of transcendence that confound our culture of doubt are a universal language and vocabulary of the heart echoing the voice of God and in the very Judeo Christian story we so readily jettison is found the Author enabling us to see the world whole again This essay tells why the story and promise of Christianity is so hard to hear today but won't go away Could it be that as T S Eliot wrote in the mid twentieth century at the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time

The Book of Revelation Bishop Audrey Drummonds Ph.D.,2015-11-30 The Bible is a book written by God and the formation of His family Our believing knowing and understanding are the revelation of Christ already in us which must be squeezed and shaped into His image so that when others see us they see their Father God is looking for his sons to do this The Book of Revelation reveals Christ in us which must be manifested as the body with Jesus as the head in order for the return of the Lord to be revealed This book is the instruction of the spiritual process that must take place individually and then corporately in each child of God to walk in the authority and power as a son What he created in spirit must come forth in the flesh with his image and likeness We must know in our heart that we are an offspring a portion of the original Jesus has been blowing the sound of our jubilee since he rose from the grave He is waiting for us to hear this sound and enter into his rest We have the ability today to know the power of his resurrection while in our natural body The Book of Revelation tells us how God is looking for His sons He created in the beginning to take dominion and authority The Book of Revelation reveals Christ in us who must be manifested as His body with Jesus as the head When Jesus said It is finished was he just making a way for personal salvation with God or was there a bigger picture John 14 12 says Verily verily I say unto you he that believeth on me the works that I do shall he do also and greater works than these shall he do because I go unto my Father For over 2000 years the body of Christ has been liken to kings and lords hiding in a cave waiting for a someday when they get to heaven to receive their inheritance as a son of God When Jesus died he gave us the ram s horn the shofar to declare that our JUBILEE is here NOW for us to receive The Book of Revelation teaches us how to hear the sound of this horn the voice of the Father which brings hope and challenge for us to open the doors to our true identity as a son of God It will set us free from the captivity and bondages in our lives as we find out that as He is so are we today in this world with His power and His authority

Dream Projects in Theatre, Novels and Films Yehuda Moraly, 2020-11-02 Every artist has a dream project an enterprise that he or she has continuously taken up but never completed Via archived notes and drafts a retrospective reconstitution of such projects can serve as a key for better understanding the authors artistic corpus The present study reaches out to the authorship of Paul Claudel Jean Genet and Federico Fellini Claudel deferred and never completed the fourth segment of his Trilogie des Coufontaine. The only indication of the existence of this prospective fourth part of the theatre sequence is a brief entry in his Journal. In 1949 he began writing a third version of his first great work T te d Or. Like the unfinished fourth section that was to be added to the trilogy, the draft of the third version of T te d Or reveals a dialogue between the Old and New Testaments, a theme that appears to be central to Claudel's entire corpus. Genet labored over La Mort for many years. At the conclusion of Saint Genet, com dien et martyr (1952), Sartre mentions this final work of Genet. Genet discussed his progress on La Mort in correspondence and even published Fragments of La Mort in the literary magazine Les Temps Modernes. While the project never came to fruition, it nevertheless remains an important means through which to understand Genet's work. The aborted production of Fellini's Voyage de G. Mastorna has become a legend. After 8 and Giulietta degli spiriti, Fellini wrote a screenplay that he began to film but subsequently abandoned, much to the chagrin of producer Dino de Laurentiis, who had already invested in sets and costumes. Fellini would often revisit this project but never completed it. This book also examines additional dream projects taken from different art forms: poetry (Mallarmé's Le Livre), literature (Vigny's Daphn), painting (Monet's Nymph), music (Schoenberg's Moses und Aron), and various films (Clouzot's L'Enfer, Visconti's La Recherche, Kubrick's Napoleon, etc.).

Sharing Your Story and God's Story Doug Fields, Brett Eastman, 2003. Presents lessons to be used by small groups to explore ways to share faith in Jesus through prayer, scripture, fellowship, and ministry.

How John Wrote the Book of Revelation: From Concept to Publication Kim Mark Lewis, 2015-11-22. How John Wrote the Book of Revelation is the first of its kind and introduces genetic literary reconstruction to Biblical studies. It enables the reader to produce prior drafts of Hebrew and Christian Scriptures, thereby allowing the reader to apply the literary science of genetic criticism to a book in the Bible. How John Wrote the Book of Revelation takes the most difficult book to understand in the Christian Scriptures and reveals the sequence in which it was written, from the very first line to the final parallel. This provides the reader for the first time with the experience of observing how a Biblical book was written and does this from an intimate perspective, as though they were looking over John's shoulders as he crafted it. How John Wrote the Book of Revelation is the first book that teaches the reader how to read Revelation the way it was written. After centuries of blind guesswork, trying to divine meaning and weak interpretations of symbols, this book finally presents a clear, precise, and consistent method. It is a guidebook to identify all the rich symbols and their meanings within Revelation. Inside the pages of this book is the all-encompassing theory of construction for the book of Revelation. It includes three prior drafts of the book of Revelation along with hundreds of charts and illustrations. How John Wrote the Book of Revelation is like no other book that has been written before and sets a new paradigm for all Biblical works.
