Michel d' Herbigny

Vladimir Soloviev Vladimir Soloviev:

Vladimir Soloviev Paul Marshall Allen, 2007-12 In 1795 Johann Wolfgang von Goethe produced his tale of tales The fairytale of The Green Snake and the Beautiful Lily an extraordinary masterwork that is unique among Goethe's works An initiatory fable of transformation the tale arose out of the Rosicrucian alchemical impulses that play an important role in Faust and Goethe's other writings Among those influenced by it was Rudolf Steiner whose mystery dramas employ similar themes The authors begin by placing the fairytale against the background of Goethe's life and cultural setting They then discuss its importance in the development of Steiner's spiritual science Finally they describe its visual language profound mystical insights and relevance for us today The book includes Carlyle's classic translation of the tale and illustrations plus Steiner's essay on its inner meaning The authors offer a positive look at the possibilities of the twenty first century They view Goethe's fairytale as fully relevant to our time just as it was when Goethe first wrote it Vladimir Soloviev, a Russian Newman (1853-1900) Michel d'Herbigny, 1918 Vladimir Soloviev and the Spiritualization of Matter Oliver Smith, 2018-05-30 While he is widely acknowledged as the most important Russian thinker of the nineteenth century Vladimir Soloviev's place in the landscape of world philosophy nevertheless remains uncertain Approaching him through a single synoptic lens this book foregrounds his unique envisioning of the interaction between humanity and the material world By investigating the development of a single theme in his work his idea of the spiritualization of matter the task of humanity Smith constructs a rounded picture of Soloviev's overall importance to an understanding of nineteenth century thought as well as to modern theology and philosophy The picture that emerges is of a writer whose contribution to a Christian philosophy of matter resonates with many of the religious debates of modernity Vladimir Soloviev Mishel D'Herbigny, A. M. Buchanan, 2014-03-18 ONE of the fortunes of war has been the revelation to Western eyes of a Russian mystic It is Vladimir Soloviev He is not only the foremost spiritual philosopher of Russia but he is also one of the most distinguished types of the modern mind Towards the end of his life he happened to write a book against Tolstoi combating that writer's doctrine of the non resistance of evil The book has lately received two translations into English as a statement of the philosophy of war from the Russian point of view The subject of war however holds but a secondary place in the book and indeed a very secondary place in the life of Soloviev His great lifework was an exposition and propaganda of the claims of the Universal Church He was a convert from Orthodoxy to Catholicism and the one ruling passion of his life was to familiarize Russia with the idea of a Universal Church monarchical in its constitution This is the chief reason for calling him the Russian Newman There were other striking similarities between the two men although their divergencies were even more striking and more numerous Soloviev like Newman was very lonely in his soul He worked always from within the voice of conscience was his all impelling guide and force His method was the personal one He conceived in his own peculiar way a philosophy of the whole man which was neither intellectualist voluntarist nor sentimentalist With the watchword of integralism he stood for the due equipoise of all the faculties of man in the search for truth He worked out for himself a method remarkably analogous to Newman s doctrine of the Native Sense but with this important difference that he always preserved a profound respect for the use and the value of the syllogism Yet if on the one hand he was personal and subjective it was always with a sane appreciation of the value of Objective evidence Like Newman again he took a special delight in the study of Holy Scripture and the Fathers of Church history and the development of religion Like Newman too he had an ardent love for his own country He thought of Catholicism for Russia and believed that if only Russia were Catholic it would mean the religious transformation of the whole world Unlike Newman Soloviev never became a priest Both before and after his conversion he preferred to work as a layman Nevertheless he deemed that he could best follow his calling by remaining a celibate Once at the age of eighteen he did think of marriage but by the time he had arrived at the age of twenty he had fully resolved to lead a single life Vladimir Soloviev Paul M. Allen,1978 The Heart of Reality Vladimir Sergeyevich Soloviev,2020-09-15

Vladimir S Soloviev 1853 1900 moral philosopher social and literary critic theologian and poet is considered one of Russia s greatest philosophers But Soloviev is relatively unknown in the West despite his close association with Fyodor Dostoevsky who modeled one of his most famous literary characters Alyosha Karamazov on Soloviev In The Heart of Reality Vladimir Wozniuk offers lucid translations a substantive introduction and careful annotations that make many of Soloviev s writings accessible for the first time to an English speaking audience Soloviev worked tirelessly in the name of the mystical body of the Universal Church The vast bulk of his writings can be construed as promoting in one way or another the cause of ecumenism His essays also display the influence of Platonic and German Idealism and strands of Thomistic thinking Wozniuk demonstrates the consistency of Soloviev s biblically based thought on the subjects of aesthetics love and ethics while at the same time clarifying Soloviev s concept of vseedinstvo the unity of spiritual and material especially as applied to literature Containing many previously untranslated essays The Heart of Reality situates Soloviev more clearly in the mainstream of Western religious philosophy and Christian thought Vladimir Soloviev and His Messianic Work D.

Strémooukhoff,Paul Call,1979 Vladimir Soloviev and His Messianic Work D. Strémooukhoff,1979 Vladimir Soloviev, a Russian Newman (1853-1900) Michel d' Herbigny,1911 Vladimir Soloviev, a Russian Newman (1853-1900) Thomas John Gerrard,Anna Maud Buchanan,Michel D' Herbigny,2023-07-18 This biographical work examines the life and thought of Vladimir Soloviev a Russian philosopher and theologian The authors compare Soloviev to John Henry Newman a prominent English theologian and argue that Soloviev s work has relevance beyond the Russian context This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We
