Recovering the Female Voice in Islamic Scripture Georgina L. Jardim, 2016-04-08 Protest is an activity not associated with the pious and collectively minded but more often seen as an activity of the liberal and rebellious Judaism Christianity and Islam are commonly understood as paragons of submission and obedience following Abraham's example Yet the scriptures of all three faiths are founded in the prophets protesting wrongs in the social order The Qur'an claims that men and women and the relations between them are a sign from God The question is to what extent are women silenced in the text and do they share with men in shaping the prophetic scriptures This book finds that far from silencing women the Qur'an affirms the female voice as protester for justice and as questioner of Theology In this reading of the female role in divine revelation in the Islamic text Georgina Jardim returns to the scriptures of the Judeo Christian counterpart of the Abrahamic faiths to investigate whether the Bible may claim women as brokers of revelation The result is an enriched understanding of divine communication in the Abrahamic scriptures and a commonplace for reasoning about the female voice as speaker in the Word of God

Arab Islamic Voices, Agencies, and Abilities Saloua Ali Ben Zahra, 2017-11-01 This book explores portrayals and predicaments of the disabled in Arab Muslim post colonial North African and Middle Eastern societies in genres ranging from classical Arabic scripture to secular popular culture including Francophone Moroccan and Algerian fiction Egyptian Middle Eastern film as well as Tunisian song and television In line with theorists Aijaz Ahmad and Ato Quayson's objection to reading Third World literature as national allegory The author argues that rather than being metaphors or allegories disabled characters represent persons with disabilities in their culture and act as a mirror upon their changing societies Contemporary Maghrebians and Muslims with disabilities find themselves at an intersection of conflicting and competing cultures their native Islamic culture and Westernizing lifestyles In the rush to import everything Western despite humanitarian Islamic teachings regarding the disabled are often abandoned In situations of fundamentalist menace the disabled who tend to be the most vulnerable and abused fraction of Arab Muslim society suffer the worst especially women
