Subject Without Nation Stefan Jonsson, 2000 Jonsson analyzes how Musil explains the foundation of modern theories of subjectivity

The Mind of Max Scheler Manfred S. Frings, 1997 This book is designed to fill a long standing gap in the general literature of 20th century philosophy in that it offers a comprehensive view of the philosophy of Max Scheler 1874 1928 and opens up substantial discussions that have hitherto been largely overlooked The book is solely based on the original texts of the German Collected Edition as well as posthumous and untranslated materials References to English translations have been made whenever available The Mind of Max Scheler familiarizes the reader with strains of European thought that are rapidly gaining interest in the Americas Asia and Europe itself Already the pivotal questions Who are we What is a human being reveal the relevance Scheler's thought has to the self questioning stance that appears to mark this century's philosophy as a whole He also presents us with a cosmic view of what it means to be human and one is amazed at the scope of his approach that goes beyond his better known European contemporaries Heidegger Husserl Ortega or philosophers of our present time He addresses spurious value patterns that suffuse the age of capitalism and provides answers among them the gleanings of historical textures that are emerging toward the future and through which a lingering awareness of the eternal will eventually surface from the depths of human existence

Islamic Philosophy and Occidental Phenomenology on the Perennial Issue of Microcosm and Macrocosm Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2006-09-22 By proposing the Microcosm and Macrocosm analogy for dialogue between Islamic Philosophy and Occidental Phenomenology the authors of this volume are reviving the perennial positioning of the human condition in the play of forces within and without the human being This theme has run from Plato through the Middle Ages Renaissance and Modernity and has been ignored by contemporaries It now acquires a new pertinence and striking significance due to the scientific discoveries into the infinitely small in life on the one hand and the prodigious technological discoveries of the infinitely great on the other Both open up undreamt of prospects for the continuing conquest of cosmic forces The human person thrown into turmoil by the new approaches to life and needing to acquire new habits of mind having lost security of all beliefs desperately seeks a new clarification of the Human Condition within the unity of everything there is of cosmic forces and of his destiny The dialogue between Islamic Philosophy and phenomenology of life can show the way Papers by Gholam Reza A awani Mehdi Aminrazavi Roza Davari Ardakani Mohammad Azadpur Gary Backhaus Marina Banchetti Robino William Chittick Seyed Mostafa Muhaghghegh Damad Golamhossein Ebrahimi Dinani Nader El Bizri Kathleen Haney Salahaddin Khalilov Sayyid Mohammad Khamenei Mahmoud Khatami Mieczyslaw Pawel Migon Nikolay Milkov Sachiko Murata Anna Teresa Tymieniecka Daniela Verducci The Philosophical Diseases of Medicine and their Cure Josef Seifert, 2012-11-02 At all times physicians were bound to pursue not only medical tasks but to reflect also on the many anthropological and metaphysical aspects of their discipline such as on the nature of life and death of health and sickness and above all on the vital ethical dimensions of their practice For centuries almost for two millennia how ever those who practiced medicine lived in a relatively clearly defined ethical and implicitly philosophical or religious world order within which they could safely turn to medical practice knowing right from wrong or at least being told what to do and what not to do Today however the situation has radically changed mainly due to three quite different reasons First and most obviously physicians today are faced with a tremendous development of new possibilities and techniques which allow previously unheard of medical interventions such as cloning cryo conservation ge netic interference etc which call out for ethical reflection and wise judgment but regarding which there is no legal and medical ethical tradition Traditional medical education did not prepare physicians for coping with this new brave world of mod em medicine Secondly there are the deep philosophical crises and the philosophical diseases of medicine mentioned in the preface that lead to a break down of firm and formative legal and ethical norms for medical actions
