Available in combined and split volumes and in a variety of electronic formats. Also available in a docutext edition with sources: The Athenaeum, 1901 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1928 The Bookseller, 1912 The Journal of Education, 1910 The World Felipe Fernandez-Armesto, 2010-10-26 For today's busy student, we've created a new line of highly portable books at affordable prices. Each title in the Books a la Carte Plus program features the exact same content from our traditional textbook in a convenient notebook-ready loose leaf version, allowing students to take only what they need to class. As an added bonus, each Books a la Carte Plus edition is accompanied by an access code to all of the resources found in one of our best-selling multimedia products. Best of all, our Books a la Carte Plus titles cost less than a used textbook. The World interweaves two stories of our interactions with nature and with each other. The environment-centered story is about humans distancing themselves from the rest of nature and searching for a relationship that strikes a balance between constructive and destructive exploitation. The culture-centered story is of how human cultures have become mutually influential and yet mutually differentiating. Both stories have been going on for thousands of years. We do not know whether they will end in triumph or disaster. There is no prospect of covering all of world history in one book. Rather, the fabric of this book is woven from selected strands. Readers will see these at every turn, twisted together into yarn stretched into stories. Human-focused historical ecology: the environmental theme will drive readers back again and again to the same concepts: sustenance, shelter, disease, energy, technology, art. The last is a vital category for historians not only because it is part of our interface with the rest of the world but also because it forms a record of how we see reality and of how the way we see it changes. In the global story of human interactions, the cultural theme we return constantly to the ways people make contact with each other: migration, trade, war, imperialism, pilgrimage, gift exchange, diplomacy, travel, and to their social frameworks: the economic and political arenas, the human groups and groupings, the states and civilizations, the sexes and generations, the classes and clusters of identity. The St. Louis Exposition, 1904 A collection of photos from the 1904 World's Fair held in St. Louis. Mo also referred to as the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The World's History Illuminated Israel Smith Clare, 1897 School, 1906 Index-catalogue of the Ancoats Lending Branch Manchester Public Libraries (Manchester, England).
