Voice Of The Living Light Hildegard Of Bingen And Her World:

Voice of the Living Light Barbara Newman, 2008 The Palgrave Handbook of Educational Thinkers Brett A. Geier, 2024-08-21 This handbook presents a durable comprehensive and up to date resource covering the seminal thinkers in education of past and present Each entry will capture the professional background of a legendary thinker and presents their key insights new thinking and major legacies to the field of education Carefully brought together to present a balance of gender and geographical contexts as well as areas of thought and work in the broad field of education this handbook provides a unique history and overview of figures who have shaped education and educational thinking throughout the world The Oxford History of Life-Writing: Volume 1. The Middle Ages Karen A. Winstead, 2018-04-05 The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 1 The Middle Ages explores the richness and variety of life writing from late Antiquity to the threshold of the Renaissance During the Middle Ages writers from Bede to Chaucer were thinking about life and experimenting with ways to translate lives their own and others into literature Their subjects included career religious saints celebrities visionaries pilgrims princes philosophers poets and even a few ordinary people They relay life stories not only in chronological narratives but also in debates dialogues visions and letters Many medieval biographers relied on the reader's trust in their authority but some espoused standards of evidence that seem distinctly modern drawing on reliable written sources interviewing eyewitnesses and cross checking their facts wherever possible Others still professed allegiance to evidence but nonetheless freely embellished and invented not only events and dialogue but the sources to support them The first book devoted to life writing in medieval England The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 1 The Middle Ages covers major life stories in Old and Middle English Latin and French along with such Continental classics as the letters of Abelard and Heloise and the autobiographical Vision of Christine de Pizan In addition to the life stories of historical figures it treats accounts of fictional heroes from Beowulf to King Arthur to Queen Katherine of Alexandria which show medieval authors experimenting with adapting and expanding the conventions of life writing Though Medieval life writings can be challenging to read we encounter in them the antecedents of many of our own diverse biographical forms tabloid lives literary lives brief lives revisionist lives lives of political figures memoirs fictional lives and psychologically oriented accounts that register the inner lives of their subjects A Living Light Edward L. Ridsen, 2009-01-08 A Living Light explores some of the major events in the life of Hildegard of Bingen mystic physician composer and one of the foremost intellectuals of the Middle Ages In the form of a dramatic novella it telescopes to such life changing events as the courageous recording of her visions the Church's acceptance of her accounts of prophetic experience the formation of her own abbey and the interdiction against her nuns for the burial of a revolutionary on holy ground A story of character spiritual doubt and achievement kindness and resolve and a life devoted to both faith and works A Living Light adds to the growing volume and range of works both scholarly and creative addressing the influence of this extraordinary woman it attests to the profound effects possible through the commitment of single loving creative individuals even in the most difficult and oppressive of times Cosmos, Liturgy, and the Arts in the Twelfth Century Margot E. Fassler, 2022-12-06 In Cosmos Liturgy and the Arts in the Twelfth Century Margot E. Fassler takes readers into the rich complex world of Hildegard of Bingen's Scivias meaning 'Know the ways to explore how medieval thinkers understood and imagined the universe'. Hildegard, renowned for her contributions to theology, music, literature, and art, developed unique methods for integrating these forms of thought and expression into a complete vision of the cosmos and of the human journey. Scivias was Hildegard's first major theological work and the only one of her writings that was both illuminated and copied by scribes from her monastery during her lifetime. It contains not just religious visions and theological commentary but also a shortened version of Hildegard's play Ordo virtutum (Play of the virtues) plus the texts of fourteen musical compositions. These elements of Scivias, Fassler contends, form a coherent whole demonstrating how Hildegard used theology and the liturgical arts to lead and to teach the nuns of her community. Hildegard's visual and sonic images unfold slowly and deliberately, opening up varied paths of knowing Hildegard and her nuns adapted forms of singing that they believed to be crucial to the reform of the Church in their day and central to the ongoing turning of the heavens and to the nature of time itself. Hildegard's vision of the universe is a Cosmic Egg, as described in Scivias, filled with strife and striving, and at its center unfolds the epic drama of every human soul embodied through sound and singing. Though Hildegard's view of the cosmos is far removed from modern understanding, Fassler's analysis reveals how this dynamic cosmological framework from the Middle Ages resonates with contemporary thinking in surprising ways and underscores the vitality of the arts as embodied modes of theological expression and knowledge.

Sourcebook for Research in Music, Third Edition Allen Scott, 2015-06-01 Since it was first published in 1993, the Sourcebook for Research in Music has become an invaluable resource in musical scholarship. The balance between depth of content and brevity of format makes it ideal for use as a textbook for students, a reference work for faculty and professional musicians, and as an aid for librarians. The introductory chapter includes a comprehensive list of bibliographical terms with definitions, bibliographic terms in German, French, and Italian, and the plan of the Library of Congress and the Dewey Decimal music classification systems. Integrating helpful commentary to instruct the reader on the scope and usefulness of specific items, this updated and expanded edition accounts for the rapid growth in new editions of standard works in fields such as ethnomusicology, performance practice, women in music, popular music, education, business, and music technology. These enhancements to its already extensive bibliographies ensure that the Sourcebook will continue to be an indispensable reference for years to come.

Analytical Essays on Music by Women Composers: Secular & Sacred Music to 1900 Laurel Parsons, Brenda Ravenscroft, 2018-09-04 Through musical analysis of compositions written between the mid-twelfth to late nineteenth centuries, this volume celebrates the achievements of eight composers, all women: Hildegard of Bingen, Maddalena Casulana, Barbara Strozzi, Elisabeth Jacquet de la Guerre, Marianne Martines, Josephine Lang, Fanny Hensel, Clara Schumann, and Amy Beach. Written by outstanding music theorists and musicologists the essays provide fascinating in depth critical analytic explorations of representative compositions often linking analytical observations with questions of meaning and sociohistorical context Each essay is introduced by a brief biographical sketch of the composer by the editors The collection Volume 1 in an unprecedented four volume series of analytical studies on music by women composers is designed to challenge and stimulate a wide range of readers For academics these thoughtful analytical essays can open new paths into unexplored research areas in the fields of music theory and musicology Post secondary instructors may be inspired by the insights offered in these essays to include new works in music theory and history courses at both graduate and upper level undergraduate levels or in courses on women and music Finally for soloists ensembles conductors and music broadcasters these detailed analyses can offer enriched understandings of this repertoire and suggest fresh new programming possibilities to share with listeners
