Voice Of An Exile Reflections On Islam:

Voice of an Exile Nasr Abu Zaid, Esther Ruth Nelson, 2004-03-30 In 1995 Ayman al Zawahiri a prominent terrorist figure recently associated with Al Queda and al Jihad issued a bounty against Dr Nasr Abu Zaid a respected Islamic scholar at Cairo University What was Zaid s offense Arguing that Islam s holy texts should be interpreted in the historical and linguistic context of their time and that new interpretations should account for social change His controversial claim that the Qur an be interpreted metaphorically rather than literally further enraged fundamentalists Labeled an apostate by the Cairo court of appeals his life was threatened and he was forced to flee to the Netherlands with his wife A professor of Arabic and Islamic studies at Leiden University in his adopted country this progressive Islamic scholar insists that change is still possible and that new understandings of Islam can be accepted and advanced Forgoing claims that Islam is a violent religion Zaid shows us that above all justice and obedience lies at the heart of the Qur an At the outset of this book we find Zaid growing up in Quhafa a village in northern Egypt Islam gives meaning and definition to his life As he matures we see him sorting through Egypt s various political developments and upheavals Zaid carefully weaves such developments into the events of his own life his father s death raising his younger siblings attending Cairo University his study abroad his marriages the events leading to his exile and his visit to Egypt after a seven year absence Through it all we see him advancing in his academic career and applying new skills to his study and interpretation of the Qur an He wrestles with subjects such as polygamy wife beating inheritance and the practice of usury in Islamic cultures He asserts and illustrates that Islam must be separate from the State in order to protect the religion from political manipulation Zaid s personal story and academic pursuits reflecting the social reality of the broader culture offer new perspectives on Islam and provide hope to Muslims who feel their religion has been misrepresented and misunderstood

Religious Secularity Naser Ghobadzadeh, 2014-11-03 Fundamentalism and authoritarian secularism are commonly perceived as the two mutually exclusive paradigms available to Muslim majority countries Recent political developments however have challenged this perception Formerly associated with a fundamentalist outlook mainstream Islamist groups such as the Muslim Brotherhood and Al Nahda have adopted a distinctly secular democratic approach to the state re building process Their success or failure in transitioning to democracy remains to be seen but the political position these Islamic groups have carved out suggests the viability of a third way Naser Ghobadzadeh examines the case of Iran which has a unique history with respect to the relationship of religion and politics The country has been subject to both authoritarian secularization and authoritarian Islamization over the last nine decades While politico religious discourse in Iran is articulated in response to the Islamic state it also bears the scars of Iran s history of authoritarian secularization the legacy of the Pahlavi regime Ghobadzadeh conceptualizes this politico religious discourse as religious secularity He uses this apparent oxymoron to describe the Islamic quest for a democratic secular state and he demonstrates how this concept encapsulates the complex characteristics of the Shiite religious reformation movement

Seeds of Conflict in a Haven of Peace Frans Jozef Servaas Wijzen, 2007 On 7 August 1998 the American embassies in Nairobi and Dar es Salaam were bombed and 200 people lost their lives These bombings shattered the image of Africa's tradition of peaceful religious coexistence Since then inter religious dialogue has been high on the agendas of ecclesial and religious organisations but not so much of faculties of theology and departments of religion in East Africa This book investigates why this is so How are interreligious relations dealt with in Africa and more particularly how are they and how should they be taught in institutions of higher learning This book is based on fieldwork in Nairobi from 2001 onwards It shows why Africa's tradition of peaceful co existence is not going to help Africa in the 21st century and recommends a shift in the education in inter religious relations from religions studies to inter religious studies A World of Inequalities Lucinda Mosher, 2021-02-16 In this volume leading Christian and Muslim scholars respond to the global crisis of inequality by demanding and modeling interreligious dialogue Essays explore the roots of these realities how they are treated in Christian and Muslim traditions and texts and how the two faiths can work together to address inequality Beyond Modernity Mohammed Moussa, Emi Goto, 2023-10-30 A contest is afoot in Muslim discourses around the world in the twenty first century Prevalent norms and acts are subject to competing motivations trends and forces The image of a monolithic Islam is thus wholly inadequate to identify and interpret the different expressions of Muslim thought and practice in their specific yet connected contexts This book proposes competing and persuasive perspectives for interpreting what Muslims say do and think in collective settings or in the light of common frames of reference The chapters contained in this book reflect a diversity of disciplines and interests Nonetheless a common thread of the preoccupation with meanings in context unites the contributors and the approaches to their chosen examples Islam is not a discrete category that is taken for granted Instead the cacophony of voices in the Muslim world situated in specific contexts variously national regional or global is allowed to inform each chapter Here one encounters contemporary Muslims participating in discourses with a contested character that create opportunities to augment or question orthodox dictates or transmit or alter existing beliefs and practices What emerges are nuanced portraits of contemporary Muslim thought and practice that reveal a far from monolithic Islam to which all things Islamic can be reduced Islamic Doctrines and Political Liberalism Gozde Hussain, 2024-11-13 This book delves into the compatibility of Islam with liberal values engaging in a comparative analysis of Islamic moral language and John Rawls's liberal democratic ideas Rawls a prominent modern liberal political philosopher posits that diverse moral and religious doctrines in a pluralistic society should align with the principles of a liberal democratic political culture The author shares Rawls's assumptions and maps out a spectrum of Islamic orthodoxy positions to assess the plausibility of reconciling Islamic doctrines with a liberal political order While acknowledging that such compatibility is not the mainstream outlook the book argues that it's feasible through reasonable interpretations of Islamic sources The central question addressed is the realism of observant Muslims endorsing a liberal democratic state from within their doctrinal tradition By examining a range of Islamic orthodoxy positions the book demonstrates that Muslims can theoretically find Islamic reasons rooted in acceptable interpretations of divine sources to justify their commitment to a liberal state Furthermore it provides moral reasons and strategies for the liberal state to address incompatible Islamic doctrines ensuring Muslims can maintain religious practices without an Islamic political authority This theoretical framework offers insights for future empirical and theoretical studies on Muslims navigating pluralistic liberal societies making it a vital contribution to the discourse on Islam and liberalism

Being in the World Fred Dallmayr,2013-05-01 It is commonly agreed that we live in an age of globalization but the profound consequences of this development are rarely understood Usually globalization is equated with the expansion of economic and financial markets and the proliferation of global networks of communication In truth much more is at stake Traditional concepts of individual and national identity as well as perceived relationships between the self and others are undergoing profound change Every town has become a potential cosmopolis an international city affecting the way that people conceptualize the relationship between public order and political practice In Being in the World noted political theorist Fred Dallmayr explores the globe's transition from the traditional Westphalian system of states to today's interlocking cosmopolitan network Drawing upon sacred scriptures as well as the work of ancient philosophers such as Plato and Aristotle and more recent scholars such as Martin Heidegger Hans Georg Gadamer and Raimon Panikkar this book delves into what Dallmayr calls being in the world seen as an aspect of ethical political engagement Rather than lamenting current problems he suggests addressing them through civic education and cosmopolitan citizenship Dallmayr advocates a politics of the common good which requires the cultivation of public ethics open dialogue and civic responsibility

Contemporary Perspectives on Revelation and Qu'ranic Hermeneutics Ali Akbar,2019-11-27 A number of innovative hermeneutical approaches emerged in Muslim exegetical discourse in the second half of the 20th century Among these developments is a trend of systematic reform theology that emphasises a humanistic approach whereby revelation is understood to be dependent not only upon its initiator God but also upon its recipient Prophet Muhammad who takes an active role in the process Ali Akbar examines the works of four noted scholars of Islam Fazlur Rahman Pakistan Abdolkarim Soroush Iran

Muhammad Mujtahed Shabestari Iran and Nasr Hamid Abu Zayd Egypt His study shows that the consequences of taking a humanistic approach to understanding revelation are not confined to the realm of speculation about God human relations but also to interpreting Qur A nic socio political precepts And the four scholars emerge as a distinctive group of Muslim thinkers who open up a new horizon in contemporary Islamic discourse
